THE NATIVITY OF ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST LITURGY OF THE WORD

READING I

—IS 49:1-6

Hear me, O coastlands, listen, O distant peoples. The LORD called me from birth, from my mother's womb he gave me my name. He made of me a sharp-edged sword and concealed me in the shadow of his arm. He made me a polished arrow, in his quiver he hid me. You are my servant, he said to me, Israel, through whom I show my glory.

Though I thought I had toiled in vain, and for nothing, uselessly, spent my strength, yet my reward is with the LORD, my recompense is with my God. For now the LORD has spoken who formed me as his servant from the womb, that Jacob may be brought back to him and Israel gathered to him; and I am made glorious in the sight of the LORD, and my God is now my strength! It is too little, he says, for you to be my servant, to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and restore the survivors of Israel; I will make you a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth.

PSALM No. 40:

Here I am

READING II

—ACTS 13:22-26

In those days, Paul said: "God raised up David as king; of him God testified, I have found David, son of Jesse, a man after my own heart; he will carry out my every wish. From this man's descendants God, according to his promise, has brought to Israel a savior, Jesus. John heralded his coming by proclaiming a baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel; and as John was completing his course, he would say, 'What do you suppose that I am? I am not he. Behold, one is coming after me; I am not worthy to unfasten the sandals of his feet.'

"My brothers, sons of the family of Abraham, and those others among you who are God-fearing, to us this word of salvation has been sent."

GOSPEL

—LK 1:57-66, 80

When the time arrived for Elizabeth to have her child she gave birth to a son. Her neighbors and relatives heard that the Lord had shown his great mercy toward her, and they rejoiced with her. When they came on the eighth day to circumcise the child, they were going to call him Zechariah after his father, but his mother said in reply, "No. He will be called John." But they answered her, "There is no one among your relatives who has this name." So they made signs, asking his father what he wished him to be called. He asked for a tablet and wrote, "John is his name," and all were amazed. Immediately his mouth was opened, his tongue freed, and he spoke blessing God. Then fear came upon all their neighbors, and all these matters were discussed throughout the hill country of Judea. All who heard these things took them to heart, saying, "What, then, will this child be?" For surely the hand of the Lord was with him. The child grew and became strong in spirit, and he was in the desert until the day of his manifestation to Israel.

Stick together. Love each other, and together: Look to Jesus in Prayer.

JOHN IS HIS NAME... “WHAT, THEN, WILL THIS CHILD BE?”

Prophets in the Old Testament such as Isaiah, Jeremiah and others whom we often hear from in our first readings were called by God to proclaim his teachings and his will for us in order to guide and direct us. Generally speaking, prophets were rejected, and sometimes put to death by the powerful and elite.

Being one of God's prophets wasn't a safe calling, but then Jesus' life wasn't a safe one either. At one point, Jesus told his Twelve Apostles: Truly, I say to you, among those born of women there has risen no one greater than John the Baptist (Matthew 11:11). And today, the Church celebrates the solemnity of his birth.

What made John the Baptist the greatest of all of the prophets, as Jesus declared? Was it his personality? No. Was it the ascetical life that he lived? No. What made him the greatest of all of the prophets was the role that he played in the great drama of our salvation. He was the one who heralded [Jesus'] coming by proclaiming a baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel, as we heard today. He was the one who would – quite literally – point to Jesus as the Lamb of God (cf., John 1:29).

It was the role of John the Baptist to point out the tremendous reality of God's Word made flesh and dwelling among us. John the Baptist showed us that God's chosen one – God's Christ, God's anointed one – was actually here. No other prophet had that privilege. No other prophet could point to God's living presence among us in actuality.

This is also the remarkable moment when the Old Testament meets the New Testament, and all that God has given us in the Old Testament is being crowned by all that he will give us in the New. Isaiah prophesied that Israel would be brought back to God, and the survivors restored, so that the Lord's salvation might reach to the ends of the earth. Now this child, called John by his father, is born to Elizabeth and Zechariah to prepare the way for the Lord.

Each one of us shares in John's prophetic calling, through our baptism. By our lives, by our words, by our deeds, we, too, are called by God to manifest his presence in our lives. We are called to point out to others that Jesus Christ is alive and well, risen from the dead and present to those around us.

None of us will ever be the greatest prophet. But that does not mean we cannot be a very, very good one.

THE HEART OF THE MATTER: TIME FOR REFLECTION AND SPIRITUAL GROWTH

1. What made John the Baptist the greatest of all of the prophets, as Jesus declared?
2. What makes me a beloved child of God?
3. Read the Ten Commandments for Mature Living (page 9), and think how these commandments can help you to be a better child of God.

BY OUR BAPTISM, WE HAVE A PROPHETIC CALLING.

TEN COMMANDMENTS FOR MATURE LIVING

From Sacred Fire by Ronald Rolheiser

- 1. Live in gratitude and thank your Creator by enjoying your life.
- 2. Be willing to carry more and more of life's complexities with empathy.
- 3. Transform jealousy, anger, bitterness, and hatred rather than give them back in kind.
- 4. Let suffering soften your heart rather than harden your soul.
- 5. Forgive those who hurt you, your own sins, the unfairness of your life, and God for not rescuing you.
- 6. Bless more and curse less!
- 7. Live in a more radical sobriety.
- 8. Pray, affectively and liturgically.
- 9. Be wide in your embrace.
- 10. Stand where you supposed to be standing, and let God provide the rest.

What is RCIA

RCIA prepares unbaptized adults for Baptism and for other sacraments of initiation, i.e., Confirmation and Eucharist, to be in full communion with the Church.

RCIA is also for adults who have been baptized but have not completed their sacraments of initiation.

RCIA is for anyone who would like to learn more about their Catholic faith.

The journey begins in September and continues through May each Sunday after 9:00 a.m. Mass (10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.) in the Parish Offices.

Anyone interested in learning more about the Catholic faith is welcome to contact the Transfiguration School of Religion (847) 526-6400 or Vicki Peloquin at (847) 997-7350.

Parishioners...prayerfully consider becoming part of the RCIA Team as a sponsor, catechist, or to assist with hospitality. Call Vicki Peloquin (847) 997-7350 if you are interested.

RESPECT LIFE NEWS -- SPIRITUAL ADOPTION

"Before I formed you in the womb
I knew you... before you were born
I consecrated you"

Jeremiah 1:4-10

We ask that you spiritually adopt an unborn child. This is done by praying for one particular, but unknown child; that he or she is allowed the gift of life.

Respect Life Spiritually Adopted Baby Week 14

Please pray that our baby, who is not yet born, will receive the gift of Life. As we follow our unborn baby to birth, this is what's going on in the womb during week 14.

"You may not believe this, but I am already into my second trimester of development this week. That means that I am 1/3 of the way to birth. Most of what I'll be doing this trimester is growing. That's an important job. This week alone, I will double in size! By week's end I will be about as long as a paper napkin. The even better news is that by the end of this week, there is much less risk that my mom and dad will lose me to miscarriage. I am looking forward to LIFE! Please, pray for me."

For more info on Respect Life Ministry, call Mary Ann Fijalkiewicz, 847-526-7101

MINISTERS OF CARE

Caring for one another...

Our church is a family and we consider our community a part of that family. We strive to care for and encourage those both within and beyond our walls. Our care ministry brings the Eucharist to our people to hospital, nursing homes and family homes. By taking some time to extend a helping hand we can show God's love and we assure our interest in their welfare and spiritual life.

Have a desire to help care for your neighbor?

Contact Kathy Baggio at
