'For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh'

So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate."

Matthew 19:6

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
LITURGY OF THE WORD

READING I

—2 KGS 4:42-44

A man came from Baal-shalishah bringing to Elisha, the man of God, twenty barley loaves made from the firstfruits, and fresh grain in the ear. Elisha said, "Give it to the people to eat." But his servant objected, "How can I set this before a hundred people?" Elisha insisted, "Give it to the people to eat." "For thus says the LORD, They shall eat and there shall be some left over." And when they had eaten, there was some left over, as the LORD had said.

PSALM No. 76: I Will Praise Your Name

READING II

—EPH 4:1-6

Brothers and sisters: I, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to live in a manner worthy of the call you have received, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another through love, striving to preserve the unity of the spirit through the bond of peace: one body and one Spirit, as you were also called to the one hope of your call; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.

MASS INTENTIONS:

Daily Mass Intentions are available for parishioners who would like their intentions to be remembered at Mass. Intentions are available for those who have died or for someone who is living. Stop by the Parish Office or call us to obtain a date and time.

GOSPEL

—JN 6:1-15

Jesus went across the Sea of Galilee.

A large crowd followed him, because they saw the signs he was performing on the sick. Jesus went up on the mountain, and there he sat down with his disciples. The Jewish feast of Passover was near. When Jesus raised his eyes and saw that a large crowd was coming to him, he said to Philip, "Where can we buy enough food for them to eat?" He said this to test him, because he himself knew what he was going to do. Philip answered him, "Two hundred days' wages worth of food would not be enough for each of them to have a little." One of his disciples, Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, said to him, "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?" Jesus said, "Have the people recline." Now there was a great deal of grass in that place. So the men reclined, about five thousand in number. Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. When they had had their fill, he said to his disciples, "Gather the fragments left over, so that nothing will be wasted." So they collected them, and filled twelve wicker baskets with fragments from the five barley loaves that had been more than they could eat. When the people saw the sign he had done, they said, "This is truly the Prophet, the one who is to come into the world." Since Jesus knew that they were going to come and carry him off to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain alone.

Stick together. Love each other, and together: Look to Jesus in Prayer.

WE ARE CALLED TO SHARE OUR BLESSINGS WITH A WORLD IN NEED OF HEALING AND HOPE.

Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts were centuries away from becoming a reality, yet the young boy in today's Gospel was already living up to the Scout Motto: "Be Prepared." It appears thousands of adults followed after Jesus with no thought of what to do if it was time for dinner!

No fast food outlets nearby; too far to make it home in time. Andrew locates the boy who came prepared with bread and fish for a few, but not for the many. Jesus takes the little and feeds the many. Now, we don't know if anyone else prepared ahead like this young boy. It is possible. It is possible the few who did began to feed the many who did not. If so, that would have been quite a miracle too.

Notice the skepticism of the Apostles. Whenever we witness this skepticism, we tend to be harsh with them. Didn't they know any better? Didn't they understand with whom they were dealing? In reality, they didn't know any better because they still didn't fully understand who Jesus was or what he was going to do for them – namely, offer them salvation. By breaking the bonds of death by his death, and thus reuniting them to the Father, Jesus would do something far greater, even, than feed five thousand with two fish and five loaves.

Are we not skeptical at times, too? Doubting that Christ can truly take care of us and our needs? Where does that come from, since we know who Jesus is? It comes partly from our human nature, and partly from the reality that we, too, are coming to terms each day with who Jesus is – growing in our faith and increasing our trust in him.

The truth is Jesus is able to take what we have been blessed with and do great things only if we are willing to share, and not hoard, our blessings. It is our choice, our free will, whether or not to share what we have for the good of all.

The parallel of this to the Eucharist jumps off the pages of today's Gospel. Taking the bread, blessing and sharing it along with the chalice of salvation is at the heart of the liturgy we gather to celebrate. It is here we do what Jesus did, and the miracle of his saving presence takes place in this time and place before our very eyes.

There is no room for skeptic hearts here. There is too much to be done. We may be the few, but with the blessing of Jesus, we have the grace and grit to tend to the many. Bread taken, blessed and shared – that is what we are called to do with our blessings. In so doing, we state emphatically we understand the Eucharist we gather here to celebrate this day.

THE HEART OF THE MATTER: TIME FOR REFLECTION AND SPIRITUAL GROWTH

1. Notice the skepticism of the Apostles. Whenever we witness this skepticism, we tend to be harsh with them. Didn't they know any better? Didn't they understand with whom they were dealing?
2. Are we not skeptical at times, too? Doubting that Christ can truly take care of us and our needs? Where does that come from, since we know who Jesus is?

THE TRUTH IS JESUS IS ABLE TO TAKE WHAT WE HAVE BEEN BLESSED WITH AND DO GREAT THINGS ONLY IF WE ARE WILLING TO SHARE, AND NOT HOARD, OUR BLESSINGS. IT IS OUR CHOICE, OUR FREE WILL, WHETHER OR NOT TO SHARE WHAT WE HAVE FOR THE GOOD OF ALL.

The Not-to-do-List

Everyone has a to-do list, but do you have a not-to-do list? If you want to upgrade your daily experience of life, the not-to-do list just might be a more effective route to take. Why? Simple: what you choose to not do gives you greater freedom to choose what you will do. Here are ten items we all should have on our not-to-do list. They cover different aspects of life, and every one of them has the potential to free you from the things that hold you back from experiencing all that life truly has to offer.

1. DON'T WATCH TV WHEN YOU EAT

If you are in a relationship or have a family, the reason not to do this is obvious. Turning on the TV kills your conversation. It destroys one of the most ancient ways we connect socially with our family and loved ones. But this isn't just for families and married couples. Even if you are single, turning on the TV decreases your experience of eating. You are less likely to taste your food and more likely to overeat, and you rob yourself of a chance for peace, quiet, and reflection on your day.

2. DON'T REST ON CLICHÉS

Clichés are the most basic form of communication. "How are you?", "Living the dream!", "What's going on in your life?", "A little of this, little of that." It's not a conversation, it's just filler. You know all those passing conversations you have around the office, at the store, or with your neighbor? What if you refused to use clichés and tried to make those conversations a little more meaningful? The not-to-do list gives you the freedom you need to really thrive. Humans thrive on meaningful connections, and the quickest way to a meaningful connection is to go deeper than clichés.

3. DON'T LET THE GAS GAUGE DROP BELOW QUARTER TANK

I know, I sound like a dad. I am a dad. Trust me, just fill the tank up early. It'll make you feel better. You won't be in danger of running out of gas. You will feel better because fill-ups will cost you less. You'll never be in that awful situation where you have to get somewhere in a hurry but need to stop for gas. Just do it.

4. DON'T WATCH LATE NIGHT TV SHOWS

I love Jimmy Fallon, and I've got nothing against him. But nothing changes your daily experience of life quite like getting a good night's sleep. Get to bed at a reasonable time so that you are refreshed and energized in the morning.

5. DON'T EAT THAT SECOND HELPING OF DESSERT

Eat the dessert, just don't take a second helping. There is so much to enjoy in life. Let one slice of pie be enough. You'll be happier.

6. DON'T FORGET TO CALL YOUR GRANDMA

Or your grandpa . . . or your mom . . . or your dad . . . or your sister . . . or your brother . . . No one will give you the pure love and support quite like your grandma. And you'll miss her when she's gone.

7. DON'T TURN IN YOUR FIRST DRAFT

Whatever you are doing, there is always room for a second draft. You always have a better version in you. This doesn't matter if it's in the workplace, or in your home. Whatever you are doing, never settle for the first draft.

8. DON'T SAY YES TO EVERYTHING

What you say yes to is often determined by what you say no to. Don't say yes to everything, just the most important things. Saying no is a powerful tool to keep in your back pocket. I believe you absolutely cannot thrive in life without the ability to say no. Get comfortable with it. Get used to it. Heck, get good at it.

9. DON'T HAVE YOUR PHONE WITH YOU 24/7

Everyone should take a break from their phone at least one day each week. It's just good for the soul.

10. DON'T FORGET TO SWEAT

Go for a walk. Stretch vigorously first thing in the morning. Take the stairs. Exercise. Get out in the hot sun. Do something every day that makes your fat cry a little bit.

We get excited by trying new things. We get energized by "getting things done." And nothing feels quite like crossing off an item on the to-do list. But it just might be that the not-to-do list gives you the freedom you need to really thrive.

RESPECT LIFE NEWS -- SPIRITUAL ADOPTION

"Before I formed you in the womb
I knew you... before you were born
I consecrated you"

Jeremiah 1:4-10

We ask that you spiritually adopt an unborn child. This is done by praying for one particular, but unknown child; that he or she is allowed the gift of life.

Respect Life Spiritually Adopted Baby Week 19

Please pray that our baby, who is not yet born, will receive the gift of Life. As we follow our unborn baby to birth, this is what's going on in the womb during week 19.

"Before I formed you in the womb I knew you... before you were born I consecrated you..."
Jeremiah 1:4-10

Please pray that our baby, who is not yet born, will receive the gift of Life. As we follow our unborn baby to birth, this is what's going on in the womb during week 19.

"I sleep about 20 hours a day now. Growing is very hard work. I try to make sure that I wake up and kick around when it is very dark in here ... and very quiet, too. I get the impression that I get Mom's full attention that way. I found some strange things in my mouth today. I think they are teeth. They're under my gums. That was a good idea for God to put them there. I won't need them yet, but one day I will. I can't wait to have my first cookie! Please pray for me."

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby whom I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion.

SCHOOL OF RELIGION

CATECISMO

KATECHEZA

Who Would WANT to be a Catechist?

Featuring: Jen Vogler

Over the last ten years, I have had the privilege of being a Catechist at Transfiguration's School of Religion. In that time, I've enjoyed partaking in the journey the students go through as they learn about their Faith. The student's experiences in the classroom are invaluable. They get to hear about scripture in a relatable way they can understand and therefore take those messages and carry them into their own lives. It is amazing to see them interact with their peers, share their experiences and see them soak up information about their Faith. They come away with a better understanding of what it means to be Catholic instead of just following along as they are directed. This knowledge will make them more compassionate, loving and generous people as they learn the Good News that Jesus taught and expects in each of us. I am truly proud to be a part of the School of Religious Education team and hope that parents continue to pursue educating their children in the program.

The School of Religion is very grateful to Jen Vogler and our many catechists and aides for their service. It takes many hands and a great deal of faith to bring Jesus Christ to our children. Won't you consider being a part of God's team? Please pray on it and call Mary at 847-526-6400 x239 for more information.

MINISTERS OF CARE

Caring for one another...

Our church is a family and we consider our community a part of that family. We strive to care for and encourage those both within and beyond our walls. Our care ministry brings the Eucharist to our people to hospital, nursing homes and family homes. By taking some time to extend a helping hand we can show God’s love and we assure our interest in their welfare and spiritual life.
