A Prayer for Healing

ORACION DE SANACION

MODLITWA O UZDROWIENIE

Lord, You invite all who are burdened to come to you. Allow Your healing Hand to heal me. Touch my soul with Your compassion for others; touch my heart with Your courage and infinite Love for all; touch my mind with Your Wisdom, and may my mouth always proclaim Your praise. Teach me to reach out to You in all my needs, and help me to lead others to You by my example.

Most loving Heart of Jesus, bring me health in body and spirit that I may serve You with all my strength. Touch gently this life which you have created, now and forever.

This Sunday's Liturgy

TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME LITURGY OF THE WORD

READING I —IS 50:5-9A

The Lord GOD opens my ear that I may hear; and I have not rebelled, have not turned back. I gave my back to those who beat me, my cheeks to those who plucked my beard; my face I did not shield from buffets and spitting. The Lord GOD is my help, therefore I am not disgraced; I have set my face like flint, knowing that I shall not be put to shame. He is near who upholds my right; if anyone wishes to oppose me, let us appear together. Who disputes my right? Let that man confront me. See, the Lord GOD is my help; who will prove me wrong?

PSALM No. 116: The Name of God

READING II —JAS 2:14-18

What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him? If a brother or sister has nothing to wear and has no food for the day, and one of you says to them, "Go in peace, keep warm, and eat well, " but you do not give them the necessities of the body, what good is it? So also faith of itself, if it does not have works, is dead. Indeed someone might say, "You have faith and I have works." Demonstrate your faith to me without works, and I will demonstrate my faith to you from my works.

GOSPEL

—MK 8:27-35

Jesus and his disciples set out for the villages of Caesarea Philippi. Along the way he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that I am?" They said in reply, "John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others one of the prophets." And he asked them, "But who do you say that I am?" Peter said to him in reply, "You are the Christ." Then he warned them not to tell anyone about him. He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer greatly and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and rise after three days. He spoke this openly. Then Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. At this he turned around and, looking at his disciples, rebuked Peter and said, "Get behind me, Satan. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do." He summoned the crowd with his disciples and said to them, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the gospel will save it."

MASS INTENTIONS:

Daily Mass Intentions are available for parishioners who would like their intentions to be remembered at Mass. Intentions are available for those who have died or for someone who is living. Stop by the Parish Office or call us to obtain a date and time.

Stick together. Love each other, and together: Look to Jesus in Prayer.

THE STORY OF PETER, WITH ALL ITS TWISTS AND TURNS, IS ONE THAT EVERY CHRISTIAN CAN LEARN FROM.

Peter is rightly recognized as a great saint. Many see themselves reflected in his flawed humanity and find hope in the fact that, despite all his struggles, he ultimately became a saint. But what makes Peter a great saint is not his flaws, but his deep faith in Christ. It is the fact that he finally came to embrace the truth of Jesus' words: Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.

This truth is evident when we recall that it was Peter who denied and deserted Jesus in his time of need. There, the one who declares Jesus to be the Messiah proved himself to be a fair-weather friend. So great is Peter's misunderstanding of Jesus and his mission that he even felt able to rebuke him. But in one of the most shocking Gospel interactions, Jesus turns on Peter in the strongest way: Get behind me, Satan. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do. Strong words indeed! But deserved by Peter for he is totally out of step with Christ.

As we hear this Gospel, it is good for us to ask what we believe about Jesus. If we simply see him as a prophet, can we truly believe in the reconciliation offered through his cross and Resurrection?

Or are we like Peter, happy to confess that he is the Christ but unable to embrace the fullness of what that means?

To imitate Peter it is best to see his whole story – his post-denial regret and tears, his declarations of love at the Sea of Galilee and his post-Pentecost courage to preach the risen Christ. These are what make Peter great and worthy of our admiration. We can learn much from Peter. And although we might be attracted by his flawed humanity, we should not ignore the work that God has done in strengthening and empowering him to be a disciple and evangelist.

Like Peter we, too, need to let Christ change us if we are to let go of the human way of thinking. Yes, it's difficult but necessary. Baptism is never just a moment in time or a cultural expectation, but the beginning of a relationship with Christ. And it's a relationship that lasts all of our lives and calls us to be always open to Christ and his Word.

THE HEART OF THE MATTER: TIME FOR REFLECTION AND SPIRITUAL GROWTH

As we hear this Gospel, it is good for us to ask what do we believe about Jesus. If we simply see him as a prophet, can we truly believe in the reconciliation offered through his cross and Resurrection? Or are we like Peter, happy to confess that he is the Christ but unable to embrace the fullness of what that means?

“Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the gospel will save it.”

STEWARDSHIP

*SOMOS DISCIPULOS COMPROMETIDOS
DZIELENIE SIĘ DARAMI*

*"Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me."
-MARK 8:34*

When we truly believe that all we have is a gift from God, then we must be willing to give up some things so that we can share our blessings as God intended. Living a stewardship lifestyle means not only being responsible for our own life, but the lives of others as well.

*"El que me quiera seguir, que se niegue a sí mismo, que tome su cruz y me siga"
-MARCOS 8:34*

Cuando realmente creemos que todo lo que tenemos es un regalo de Dios, entonces debemos estar dispuestos a renunciar a algunas cosas para que podamos compartir nuestras bendiciones como Dios pretende. Vivir un estilo de vida de corresponsabilidad significa no sólo ser responsable de nuestra propia vida, sino también de la de los demás.

Unplug Your Life: Phone Detox

You're starting to sweat. Your eyes dart around the room. Your breathing is quick and shallow. What's going to happen to me? How can I do this? Your fingers fidget in your pockets, grasping for something that's just not there. How much longer can I make it? How much longer . . . without your cell phone? You left it in your kitchen when you left for work. In the car when you went to dinner. Downstairs when you went to bed. It doesn't matter where. The point is, if being without your phone leaves you feeling like Gollum without his ring, you might have a problem.

THE PROBLEM: cell phone addiction is real, and it's widespread. The average American adult spends nearly three hours every day in front of their smartphone. Three hours. That's more time than eating, drinking, or exercising. Over the course of a life, that's about seven and a half years spent on your phone.

Below is a twelve-step phone detox designed to help you stay off your phone. It's built on the principle of continuous improvement, which teaches us that one small step is always more successful and effective than any one giant leap. Here is what you need to know. If you take these steps and rely on continuous improvement, your cell phone habits will change. Let the fun begin!

- 1. DON'T SLEEP WITH YOUR PHONE NEXT TO YOUR BED.
- 2. DON'T TAKE YOUR PHONE INTO THE BATHROOM WITH YOU.
- 3. TURN OFF ALL PHONE NOTIFICATIONS OF ANY KIND.
- 4. USE YOUR PHONE TO HELP YOU STOP USING YOUR PHONE.

This might sound a little counterintuitive, but hear me out. There are a number of cell phone apps out there designed to help you use your phone less. They can block any app on your phone, but you should focus on the biggest time wasters: social media apps and email. Check out AppDetox, Breakfree, Moment, or Offtime in your app store. These free or low cost apps will help you block access to unwanted distractions. And then you'll discover something amazing: the present moment.

5. DELETE SOCIAL MEDIA APPS FROM YOUR PHONE.

Keep social media to your computer, and let your phone just be a phone. You might have an emotional connection to your social media, and I get that. But if you are ever really going to be free from your phone, you have to free yourself from the apps that pull you in again and again and again.

Most of the steps so far have helped you use your phone less. We've been slowly eliminating the apps and notifications that turn our attention. Now it's time to start actually separating from the phone. Leave your phone in your car when you walk into the restaurant. Leave it in your office when you go to a meeting. It will still be accessible if you really need it, but now the beast is finally out of sight.

6. LEAVE YOUR PHONE IN ANOTHER ROOM.

7. LEAVE YOUR PHONE AT HOME FOR A FEW HOURS.

8. TURN OFF CELLULAR DATA AND WI-FI FOR ONE DAY.

9. LEAVE YOUR PHONE IN AIRPLANE MODE FOR ONE DAY.

10. LEAVE YOUR PHONE TURNED OFF FOR ONE WEEKEND.

11. LEAVE YOUR PHONE AT HOME EVERY DAY FOR ONE WEEK.

12. DITCH THE SMARTPHONE.

Complete and total phone detox. You aren't using apps or social media. You don't take your phone to work anymore. You don't use it on the weekends. You aren't sleeping with it or taking it into the bathroom. It's hard to believe, but you are actually alive and well without your phone. So get rid of it. Switch to a dumb phone, and let the phone just be a phone. Texting and calls. You really don't need more than that.

The smartphone is a want. It's not a need. You can live without it. People have for thousands of years before us. And now you can, too. And the next time you accidentally leave your phone at home, you won't turn into that frantic person muttering my precious under their breath.

Transfiguration manages the PADS site at Messiah Lutheran here in Wauconda each 3rd weekend of the month October through April: Oct 20-21, Nov 17-18, Dec 15-16, Jan 19-20, Feb 16-17, Mar 16-17, Hispanic dinner Mar 30, and April 20-21. This is a great way to see the diversity of our parish in action, sharing our traditional foods (Hispanic, Polish, Italian, German, others), and helping those less fortunate, the homeless, by providing food and shelter. Please contact Karen Abernathy kabemat44@gmail.com or 847-651-3444 to help or for questions. Donations: We are putting a PADS donation board out again this year with tags listing the things the men need (remember, no women or children are at our site). Look for it in the vestibule or Gathering Place. Pull a tag and drop the item in that PADS box in the Gathering Place. We'll put it right into the hands of the people who need it most!$ - Each year we gather monetary donations to purchase whatever our clients need during "Black Friday" sales (Nov 23). One year we even purchased a bus ticket to visit a dying father over the holidays, with help of the PADS client advocate. Please give Karen a call or email if you'd like to donate any monetary amount.

Are you interested in any of the following volunteer opportunities?

Be in charge of purchasing food for sack lunches each weekend. Bring to Messiah Lutheran, ready for our overnight crew to pack. All expenses are reimbursed. Help out by doing a load or two of laundry (there is a "laundry lead" who will coordinate this for you), laundering sheets in your own home, in time for the next weekend, when different church takes over.

On-site here and there to fill in when needed:

Oct. 20 before 5pm: purchasing food for sack lunches.

Oct. 20-21 10pm-2am: be onsite while clients sleep, pack lunches.

Oct. 21: Clean-up the site after the clients leave.

Nov. 18 or Jan. 20, 2-5am: be onsite while clients sleep.

Nov. 18, Dec. 15, or Jan 19: Serve dinner and clean-up.

Dec. 29: This is not our usual weekend; however, all churches in the area are coming together to help. How about a traditional dinner from your heritage, the "way Mom would cook it", or give them a hand ringing in the New Year?

RESPECT LIFE NEWS -- SPIRITUAL ADOPTION

"Before I formed you in the womb
I knew you... before you were born
I consecrated you"

Jeremiah 1:4-10

We ask that you spiritually adopt an unborn child. This is done by praying for one particular, but unknown child; that he or she is allowed the gift of life.

Respect Life Spiritually Adopted Baby Week 26

Please pray that our baby, who is not yet born, will receive the gift of Life. As we follow our unborn baby to birth, this is what's going on in the womb during week 26.

"It is remarkable to think about all of the things that my body has done in the last 26 weeks. I am 2/3 of the way through my life here and about to start the final trimester in the womb. It is so exciting to think of what waits for me in the world outside. My brain is so developed that I have actually started to dream about what God has planned for me. For now, I can only imagine...Please pray for me."

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much.

I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby whom I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion.

HELP US END ABORTION

PRAY WITH US AT THE ABORTION CLINIC IN DES PLAINES

Saturday, September 22, 2018 8:30 a.m. – noon

Volunteers from Transfiguration have been praying the Rosary on the 4th Saturday of each month for over 20 years at the American Women's Medical Center in Des Plaines (whose sole purpose is providing abortions).

The presence of the Rosary has made a serious impact on moms seeking abortions – asking for our help and escorts to The Women's Center for aid in having their babies instead of aborting.

Please join us for 8 a.m. Mass. There will be NO CARPOOL to the clinic, 110 River Rd (Rt. 45, 2 blocks south of Holy Family Hospital and ½ mile south of the Carmelite Convent/Monastery.)

Our prayer time consists of recitation of all 4 Mysteries of the Rosary & the Chaplet of Divine Mercy.

Caring for one another...

Our church is a family and we consider our community a part of that family. We strive to care for and encourage those both within and beyond our walls. Our care ministry brings the Eucharist to our people to hospital, nursing homes and family homes. By taking some time to extend a helping hand we can show God's love and we assure our interest in their welfare and spiritual life.
