THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
LITURGY OF THE WORD

READING I —JER 31:7-9

Thus says the LORD:

Shout with joy for Jacob, exult at the head of the nations; proclaim your praise and say: The LORD has delivered his people, the remnant of Israel. Behold, I will bring them back from the land of the north; I will gather them from the ends of the world, with the blind and the lame in their midst, the mothers and those with child; they shall return as an immense throng. They departed in tears, but I will console them and guide them; I will lead them to brooks of water, on a level road, so that none shall stumble. For I am a father to Israel, Ephraim is my first-born.

PSALM No. 126 God Has Done Great Things For Us

READING II —HEB 5:1-6

Brothers and sisters:

Every high priest is taken from among men and made their representative before God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. He is able to deal patiently with the ignorant and erring, for he himself is beset by weakness and so, for this reason, must make sin offerings for himself as well as for the people. No one takes this honor upon himself but only when called by God, just as Aaron was. In the same way, it was not Christ who glorified himself in becoming high priest, but rather the one who said to him: You are my son: this day I have begotten you; just as he says in another place: You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.

GOSPEL —MK 10:46-52

As Jesus was leaving Jericho with his disciples and a sizable crowd, Bartimaeus, a blind man, the son of Timaeus, sat by the roadside begging. On hearing that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say, "Jesus, son of David, have pity on me." And many rebuked him, telling him to be silent. But he kept calling out all the more, "Son of David, have pity on me." Jesus stopped and said, "Call him." So they called the blind man, saying to him, "Take courage; get up, Jesus is calling you." He threw aside his cloak, sprang up, and came to Jesus. Jesus said to him in reply, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man replied to him, "Master, I want to see." Jesus told him, "Go your way; your faith has saved you." Immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way.

Stick together. Love each other, and together: Look to Jesus in Prayer.

THE LORD REMOVES OUR BLINDNESS THAT WE MAY SEE AND SERVE CHRIST IN EACH OTHER.

Blindness was thought to be a curse from God. Those who could not see could not work. If you could not work, you could not feed your family. Bartimaeus, our protagonist in the Gospel, had endured great poverty due to his condition. What was his life like? Could he sustain a wife and a family? Had he become a burden to his father Timaeus? Whatever the case, he cries out Son of David, have pity on me. So many people who could see Jesus did not believe he was the Son of God. Bartimaeus, who has never seen anything, truly makes an act of faith in calling out to the Lord. Not only does the blind man demonstrate great faith, but also great determination, as he refuses to allow the others to prevent him from attracting Jesus' attention.

Jesus the High Priest so beautifully described in today's Letter to the Hebrews, who deals patiently with the ignorant and erring, grants Bartimaeus' greatest wish. In doing so, he restores him to life. The Lord does the same for us when he removes the blindness that afflicts us - those hard-to-see places in our lives that seem to keep us from seeing suffering or need around us.

Notice that when Bartimaeus is healed, he does not immediately return to his village and family. Instead, he received his sight and followed him on the way. He became a disciple, wishing to follow Jesus, and perhaps share with others the good fortune he has received. Bartimaeus, sight restored, could say with Jeremiah, Shout with joy for Jacob ... proclaim your praise and say: The Lord has delivered his people. We pray that the Lord will deliver all of us from blindness to sight, from death to new life. Once we see the world and those around us through the new eyes of faith, then we can truly find and serve Christ in one another.

THE HEART OF THE MATTER: TIME FOR REFLECTION AND SPIRITUAL GROWTH

1. What do you love most about the gift of sight?
2. When did you first hear about Jesus? What feelings, emotions, questions did Jesus stir in your mind and heart?
3. What does Bartimaeus do when he hears Jesus of Nazareth is coming?
4. Have you ever cried out loudly for Jesus to have mercy on you?
5. Jesus asks Bartimaeus..."what do you want me to do for you?" Wow! What a question! What if Jesus asked you this today? How would you answer it?
6. Bartimaeus asks for a "big" supernatural thing. Not five dollars. He wants his sight! How might this instruct us on what we ask Jesus?

THE LORD HAS DONE GREAT THINGS FOR US; WE ARE FILLED WITH JOY.

How to Make the Absolute Most of Fall on a Budget

"I'm so glad I live in a world where there are Octobers."— L. M. Montgomery

It's fall.

Pumpkin spiced everything dominates the aisles at local grocery stores, the leaves are changing and starting to fall, burnt orange flowers are set on the neighbors' front porches, and Halloween decorations are starting to crop up around town. You know who loves fall? The five thousand marketing firms across the United States who push all the seasonal "necessities" on us. Which is why you end up at your house with pumpkin spiced cookies, granola, beer, coffee, and popcorn . . . not that I've ever had that experience. There's nothing wrong with these marketing gimmicks we buy into, but they can be a little hard on our wallet—and they're not necessarily the best parts about fall anyway.

If you're looking to have a memorable and joyful fall season this year, here are some ideas that aren't sponsored by Target or Starbucks (although I still plan on enjoying a pumpkin spiced latte or two):

HAVE A BONFIRE: "If a year was tucked inside of a clock, then autumn would be the magic hour."— Victoria Erickson

GO ON A PICNIC: ". . . I cannot endure to waste anything so precious as autumnal sunshine by staying in the house. So I have spent almost all the daylight hours in the open air."— Nathaniel Hawthorne

MORNING COFFEE (FRIENDSHIP): "Autumn mornings: sunshine and crisp air, birds and calmness, year's end and day's beginnings."—Terri Guillemets

SCARY MOVIE NIGHT: "During the day, I don't believe in ghosts. At night, I'm a little more open-minded."— Unknown

APPLE PICKING: "Delicious autumn! My very soul is wedded to it, and if I were a bird I would fly about the Earth seeking the successive autumns."— George Eliot

HIKE: "People that love fall, they go crazy for the foliage: 'The foliage! Let's drive by the foliage. It's so beautiful the way the leaves die. They're so pretty right before they fall to their death.' We think it's beautiful. It's the leaves' hospice. It also helps that the leaves can't talk. If they could talk, they'd be like, 'Aaaahhhh! Get me chlorophyll! Why are these people driving by and smiling at me? You monsters!' We're rather insensitive to the leaves' tragedy. They die, they fall to the ground, we just rake them up. 'Kids, you want to jump on this pile of dead leaves? No? All right, I'll just light them on fire.'"—Jim Gaffigan

PICK UP A BOOK: "There is something incredibly nostalgic and significant about the annual cascade of autumn leaves."—Joe L. Wheeler

"Life starts all over again when it gets crisp in the fall."— F. Scott Fitzgerald

We are so lucky to have the different seasons and the goodness and beauty that each of them brings in their own, unique way. It is something I think I take for granted. It's also easy to get caught up in the marketing schemes that fill our homes with the right colors and flavors but fail to bring true joy or warmth to our hearts. So this fall, I challenge you to slow down, pick one (or all) of these ideas, and ask some friends or your family to join you. This is what life's about anyway, the memories with loved ones, not the pumpkin spiced latte

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION

“Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you... before you were born I consecrated you”
Jeremiah 1:4-10

Respect Life Spiritually Adopted Baby – Week 32

Please pray that our baby, who is not yet born, will receive the gift of Life. As we follow our unborn baby to birth, this is what's going on in the womb during week 32.

“There are so many things happening to me this week! My brain is growing quickly now and I am thinking all sorts of new things. It is taking huge amounts of calcium for my bones to harden and I am continuing to gain more weight. I am even starting to look a little chubby. I'll bet my parents will just love to squeeze my pudgy cheeks. I am healthy and beautiful and thanks to God, I am wonderfully made.”

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much.
I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby whom I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion.

The School of Religion is in need of greenery for our Advent Wreath project. We need clippings from Arborvitae, Juniper, Yew and Pine. If you are unable to trim and gather clippings yourself, we will send someone to do the work for you. We will pick up the clippings on November 17th. Please call the School of Religion office at 847-526-6400 before the 17th if you are able to donate.

Personal Hygiene: bath soap, shaving cream, deodorant, combs, hair brush, nail clipper, toothpaste, toothbrush, sunscreen, Chapstick

Kitchen & Cleaning: trash can, Windex, Pine Sol, dishwashing liquid, dishcloth, sponge, mop, bucket, broom, dustpan, paper towels

Bathroom: toilet paper, wash cloth, plunger, toilet bowl cleaner, toilet brush, bath towels, shower curtain

Miscellaneous: smoke detector battery, flashlight with batteries, wall calendar, appointment book, garbage bags, laundry basket, hamper, laundry detergent, aluminum foil, diapers, light bulbs

These Move-In Essentials provide a Veteran exiting homelessness with the basics needed as they transition to their new, permanent residence.

These items are needed on a continuing basis.

PADS LAKE COUNTY

Helping the Homeless Find a Way

Transfiguration manages the PADS site at Messiah Lutheran here in Wauconda each 3rd weekend of the month October through April.

Donations: We are putting a PADS donation board out again this year with tags listing the things the men need (remember, no women or children are at our site). Look for it in Gathering Place. Pull a tag and drop the item in that PADS box in the Gathering Place. We'll put it right into the hands of the people who need it most! - Each year we gather monetary donations to purchase whatever our clients need during "Black Friday" sales (Nov 23).

Are you interested in any of the following volunteer opportunities?
