THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME LITURGY OF THE WORD

READING I — 1KGS 17:10-16

In those days, Elijah the prophet went to Zarephath. As he arrived at the entrance of the city, a widow was gathering sticks there; he called out to her, "Please bring me a small cupful of water to drink." She left to get it, and he called out after her, "Please bring along a bit of bread." She answered, "As the LORD, your God, lives, I have nothing baked; there is only a handful of flour in my jar and a little oil in my jug. Just now I was collecting a couple of sticks, to go in and prepare something for myself and my son; when we have eaten it, we shall die." Elijah said to her, "Do not be afraid. Go and do as you propose. But first make me a little cake and bring it to me. Then you can prepare something for yourself and your son. For the LORD, the God of Israel, says, 'The jar of flour shall not go empty, nor the jug of oil run dry, until the day when the LORD sends rain upon the earth.'" She left and did as Elijah had said. She was able to eat for a year, and he and her son as well; the jar of flour did not go empty, nor the jug of oil run dry, as the LORD had foretold through Elijah.

PSALM No. 30 I Will Praise You, Lord

READING II — HEB 9:24-28

Christ did not enter into a sanctuary made by hands, a copy of the true one, but heaven itself, that he might now appear before God on our behalf. Not that he might offer himself repeatedly, as the high priest enters each year into the sanctuary with blood that is not his own; if that were so, he would have had to suffer repeatedly from the foundation of the world. But now once for all he has appeared at the end of the ages to take away sin by his sacrifice. Just as it is appointed that human beings die once, and after this the judgment, so also Christ, offered once to take away the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to take away sin but to bring salvation to those who eagerly await him.

GOSPEL

—MK 12:38-44

Jesus sat down opposite the treasury and observed how the crowd put money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents. Calling his disciples to himself, he said to them, "Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood."

Stick together. Love each other, and together: Look to Jesus in Prayer.

IN THANKSGIVING WE RESPOND TO THE LORD, WHO SACRIFICED HIS SON SO THAT SIN MAY BE TAKEN AWAY.

When we gather together around the table of the Lord, we come to say "Thank you" to the One who cares for us. "Thank you" for the many blessings that we are blessed to receive. "Thank you" for the gift of our lives. Perhaps even "Thank you" for the sufferings that may stand before us. The word "Eucharist" itself means "Thank you." It is right and just to give thanks to the One who has created us, has redeemed us and makes us holy. The One who sacrificed himself completely so that sin and death would be overcome.

In the first part of today's Gospel, Jesus warns the crowd to beware of the religious leaders who liked to be held in great esteem, at the expense of the widows. They demonstrated piety and accepted honors not accorded to others. But they did not really do anything for the community. They did not care for those who were entrusted to them.

Contrast this with the widow whom Jesus points out: she contributed to the synagogue treasury from her want; she gave her whole livelihood in order to ensure that others within her community might have something. And while Jesus does not ask this question, we might: which of these two examples tells us something essential about who God is? Clearly the widow.

God is like that widow in his care for us: he holds absolutely nothing back. He gives us everything he has, and is. Including himself. As the widow sacrificed, so Jesus sacrificed his very life for the sake of the world. And the Eucharist we share is our participation in this salvation, and our thanksgiving for it.

It is not a passive thanksgiving, however. And perhaps this is a message we can take from the Gospel today. Formed and transformed by the Eucharist, it is a person of faith who sees that God's justice is sorely needed in this world. In the psalms, the Lord gives sight to the blind, cares for the oppressed, protects strangers and sustains widows. As Domus Dei, that is, the House of God, the Church's mission is to see that God's house is in order by seeing to it that justice is made manifest in this world.

This is us. We, the Church, give thanks to God for his generous gifts by sharing the good news of salvation and by giving our time, talents and treasure so that no one is left uncared for – that no one is left without.

THE HEART OF THE MATTER: TIME FOR REFLECTION AND SPIRITUAL GROWTH

1. 'God loves a cheerful giver'. How does this teaching help us to put in context the sacrificial aspect of giving?
2. What examples are there of the good practice of stewardship, and the absence of stewardship, in local church of Transfiguration and/or the wider church?
3. What is the relation between the notion of giving and the notions of creation, love, mercy, neighbor and Kingdom in Christian life?
4. How can you put your other gifts, abilities and resources to work for the Kingdom of Heaven?
5. You should give away as much money as you spend on your own leisure'. Do you consider this to be a good Christian principle?

"SHE (AND HER SON) WAS ABLE TO EAT FOR A YEAR, THE JAR OF FLOUR DID NOT GO EMPTY, NOR THE JUG OF OIL RUN DRY."

STEWARDSHIP

*SOMOS DISCIPULOS COMPROMETIDOS
DZIELENIE SIĘ DARAMI*

"I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they all contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, her whole living." -MARK 12:43-44

Jesus gets right to the point – we are all called to give money to support the mission of the Church, regardless of our circumstance. No gift is too small or insignificant! Giving money to support the mission of our local parish is a matter of our faith, just like praying and participating in parish ministries. When you make a financial offering, is it from your "first fruits" or from what is "left over"?

"Les digo que esta pobre viuda aportó más que todos los demás contribuyentes al tesoro. Porque todos contribuyeron de su abundancia; pero ella, de su pobreza, ha puesto todo lo que tenía, toda su vida." -MARCOS 12:43-44

Jesús nos enseña que estamos llamados a servirnos unos a otros. Sacrificio no es una palabra que a muchas personas les guste escuchar. Pensamos que significa que debemos renunciar a algo que queremos. Sin embargo, el significado literal del sacrificio es "hacer santo", de las palabras "sacer" = sagrado y "facere" = hacer. En otras palabras, hacemos nuestras vidas santas compartiendo nuestros dones en el servicio a Dios.

30 Ways to Reduce Stress — Right Now (Part One)

If you are feeling stressed, here are thirty things you can do right now to relieve some of the stress you might be feeling.

1. BREATHE: In for a slow count of four, out for a slow count of four. Close your eyes. In through your nose, out through your mouth. Do this for at least two minutes.

2. DO ONE SMALL THING: Find something on your to-do list that you can cross off in five minutes or less: Finally change that lightbulb in the garage. Send that quick email you've been meaning to get around to. Whatever it is, just do one small thing to get that burst of "I've accomplished something!" endorphins.

3. ASK SOMEONE TO PRAY FOR YOU: Or think about you. Or send good vibes your way. Sometimes we need to share our burdens with others.

4. TAKE A WALK: Ten minutes. Brisk pace. Not a stroll. Not a jaunt. Go for a consistent long stride, and raise your heart rate a little bit in the process.

5. WRITE FOR FIVE MINUTES ABOUT EVERYTHING YOU ARE FEELING: Don't think, just write. Dump your feelings on the page. You can shred it after if you want. Let your fears, worries, and anger out of your heart. Gratitude eradicates stress!

6. READ SOMETHING ENCOURAGING FOR FIVE MINUTES: Don't have anything to read? Try Reader's Digest's website, or Passiton.com. Either one will yield dozens of uplifting quick reads to put you in a more positive state.

7. MAKE A LIST OF TEN THINGS YOU ARE GRATEFUL FOR: Gratitude eradicates stress. Plain and simple. Don't do this as a mental exercise. Write them down. Say them out loud. "I'm thankful for my loving family." "I'm thankful for my good health."

8. WATCH A FUNNY VIDEO: Youtube is filled with cats, funny home videos, and clips from late night talk shows. Take advantage and watch a four-minute clip that makes you giggle.

9. DO A SUDOKU: Or a quick crossword, or a word search. They're all over the internet. Just choose the beginner level. Something you can do in five minutes or less. It will make you feel accomplished, smart, and capable.

10. SMELL SOMETHING GOOD: Open a fresh pack of notecards and flip through them. Find an old book and breathe it in. Grab a handful of grass, or an apple from the break room. Brew a fresh pot of coffee. Take a few moments, and breathe in deeply an aroma that you love. When you're feeling stressed, you need something that's going to help you right now.

11. SWITCH TO DECAF: Lay off the caffeine. It hypes you up, and stress does not need to be hyped up.

12. STRETCH: Get limbered up. You can do it anywhere. Even in a crowded coffee shop you can pull one arm across your body, then the other. If you have more privacy, get your full on I'm-about-to-run-the-100-meter-hurdles stretch on.

13. CHEW A PIECE OF GUM: Get the tension out by chomping down on that piece of gum! Don't hold it in with a clenched jaw. Really lay into it.

14. SET THREE GOALS FOR THE REST OF THE DAY: Grab a piece of paper, and write down three important but simple things you want to do today. Goals animate us and make us feel excited and powerful. They don't have to be anything major. In fact, the simpler and more achievable, the better.

15. CALL YOUR MOM AND TELL HER YOU LOVE HER: Or your dad. Or your grandma. Or your best friend. Or your sister. They all need to hear it, and none of us tell them enough. Plus, you probably can't even imagine the amount of stress you have caused in your mom's life. She deserves to hear it.

MINISTERS OF CARE

Caring for one another...

Our church is a family and we consider our community a part of that family. We strive to care for and encourage those both within and beyond our walls. Our care ministry brings the Holy Eucharist to our people to hospital, nursing homes and family homes. By taking some time to bring the Holy Eucharist we show God's love and we assure our interest in their spiritual life.

Have a desire to help care for your neighbor?

Contact Jim Fijalkiewicz: (847) 526-7101 or Ellen Sherwin: (847) 254-4782 to see how you can help out.

RESPECT LIFE

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION

“Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you... before you were born I consecrated you”
Jeremiah 1:4-10

Respect Life Spiritually Adopted Baby – Week 34

Please pray that our baby, who is not yet born, will receive the gift of Life. As we follow our unborn baby to birth, this is what's going on in the womb during week 34.

“Here we go again! (hic!) Another case (hic!) of the hiccups! ... (hic!) I have been practicing my breathing here in the womb and (hic!) sometimes that causes me to have the (hic!) hiccups! They sure do feel strange! Meanwhile, the fuzz on my head that will become my hair is growing rapidly and I get excited to hear my mother's voice as she sings to me. Those will probably be the same songs that I will hear as she sings me to sleep. My birthday is almost here! Please pray for me. (hic!)”

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby whom I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion.
