THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
LITURGY OF THE WORD

READING I — NEH 8:2-4A, 5-6,8-10

Ezra the priest brought the law before the assembly, which consisted of men, women, and those children old enough to understand. Standing at one end of the open place that was before the Water Gate, he read out of the book from daybreak till midday, in the presence of the men, the women, and those children old enough to understand; and all the people listened attentively to the book of the law. Ezra the scribe stood on a wooden platform that had been made for the occasion. He opened the scroll so that all the people might see it—for he was standing higher up than any of the people —; and, as he opened it, all the people rose. Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God, and all the people, their hands raised high, answered, "Amen, amen!" Then they bowed down and prostrated themselves before the LORD, their faces to the ground. Ezra read plainly from the book of the law of God, interpreting it so that all could understand what was read. Then Nehemiah, that is, His Excellency, and Ezra the priest-scribe and the Levites who were instructing the people said to all the people: "Today is holy to the LORD your God. Do not be sad, and do not weep"—for all the people were weeping as they heard the words of the law. He said further: "Go, eat rich foods and drink sweet drinks, and allot portions to those who had nothing prepared; for today is holy to our LORD. Do not be saddened this day, for rejoicing in the LORD must be your strength!"

PSALM 19: Lord, You Have the Words #20

READING II — 1 COR 12:12-30

Brothers and sisters:

As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit. Now the body is not a single part, but many. If a foot should say, "Because I am not a hand I do not belong to the body, "it does not for this reason belong any less to the body. Or if an ear should say, "Because I am not an eye I do not belong to the body," it does not for this reason belong any less to the body. If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be? But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended. If they were all one part, where would the body be? But as it is, there are many parts, yet one body. The eye cannot say to the hand, "I do not need you, " nor again the head to the feet, "I do not need you." Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary, and those parts of the body that we consider less honorable we surround with greater honor, and our less presentable parts are treated with greater propriety, whereas our more presentable parts do not need this.

But God has so constructed the body as to give greater honor to a part that is without it, so that there may be no division in the body, but that the parts may have the same concern for one another. If one part suffers, all the parts suffer with it; if one part is honored, all the parts share its joy. Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it. Some people God has designated in the church to be, first, apostles; second, prophets; third, teachers; then, mighty deeds; then gifts of healing, assistance, administration, and varieties of tongues. Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work mighty deeds? Do all have gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret?

GOSPEL — LK 1:1-4,4-14-21

Since many have undertaken to compile a narrative of the events that have been fulfilled among us, just as those who were eyewitnesses from the beginning and ministers of the word have handed them down to us, I too have decided, after investigating everything accurately anew, to write it down in an orderly sequence for you, most excellent Theophilus, so that you may realize the certainty of the teachings you have received. Jesus returned to Galilee in the power of the Spirit, and news of him spread throughout the whole region. He taught in their synagogues and was praised by all. He came to Nazareth, where he had grown up, and went according to his custom into the synagogue on the sabbath day. He stood up to read and was handed a scroll of the prophet Isaiah. He unrolled the scroll and found the passage where it was written:

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord.

Rolling up the scroll, he handed it back to the attendant and sat down, and the eyes of all in the synagogue looked intently at him. He said to them, "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing."

WE ARE ONE BODY, ONE SPIRIT IN CHRIST.

We, as the body of Christ, celebrate our faith just as millions of people before us have done for two thousand years. We hear our salvation story proclaimed to us in the Scriptures, and we celebrate the Eucharist. We remember that the body of Christ includes all of those who came before us, and all those across the world right now who profess the same creed. It will continue to include all who are baptized into the faith and who strive to follow the commandment of the Lord to love one another. For as Saint Paul says today, in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

One faith, one baptism, one body. But infinite individuality: with unique gifts, charisms and missions all for the sake of the body. All with a purpose designed and graced by God. All with honor and dignity for the sake of the Gospel. And all of this is possible because of God's laws and promises: the law as a means of signifying that God is for us. God will work for us, he will fight for us, he will take care of us and we will delight in his laws if we will only trust in him. And God's promises that adhering to the laws will bring full, lasting and eternal joy.

This is what the community of Nehemiah heard and understood when Ezra read to them, as told in our first reading today. They wept first with lament at their failures, and then with joy in their understanding of God's love for them, and his promises of redemption.

And in our Gospel we see that promise fulfilled, as the scene echoes that of Nehemiah: Jesus reads to the community from the scrolls of Scripture, The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord. Then he finishes with the these words: Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing.

This is the God to whom we belong. This is the Christ who fulfills the law of love and embodies the promise of eternal life. As others before us had their purpose: Ezra and Nehemiah to lead others out of exile, Paul to evangelize the Gospel, and Luke to make record of Jesus' ministry, so do each and every one of us have our own specific, unique contribution to make to the body of Christ. All while mindful that, as Paul says, If one part suffers, all the parts suffer with it; if one part is honored, all the parts share its joy.

THE HEART OF THE MATTER: TIME FOR REFLECTION AND SPIRITUAL GROWTH

1. What unique gifts can I share with others as a member of the Body of Christ?
2. How can I become more aware of the communities I live in? How would you exercise unity with someone whom you disagree with?
3. Do you know how to discern the differences between convictions and opinions?
4. Is there an area where you are acting outside of your strengths? Are there areas that God is calling you to act more confidently in your strengths?

WE ARE ONE BODY, ONE SPIRIT IN CHRIST. MAY THE GRACE OF THE SACRAMENT WE CELEBRATE TODAY STRENGTHEN EACH ONE OF US, AND THE ENTIRE BODY AS A WHOLE, FOR THE GOOD OF THE WORLD AND THE GLORY OF GOD.

Unquestionable Habits Of A Great Listener

Listening well is a vital life skill, essential for success in everything we do – from our personal relationships to our professional endeavors. In today's distracted, busy world, being a good listener isn't easy to do or to find, but the good news is that listening can be learned and strengthened. Here are five habits that will help you do that...

1. MAINTAIN EYE CONTACT

When someone is speaking to you, he or she should have your full attention. There's nothing more annoying than trying to have a conversation with someone who's checking a phone or looking around the room—doing so shows great disrespect to the speaker.

The good listener keeps his or her eyes on the other person. If you find your gaze wandering at any point, try alternating your vision between the speaker's two eyes—focusing on one for a few moments, and then shifting to the other. It's a simple trick like that can help you avoid distractions in your peripheral vision.

2. BE FOCUSED ON UNDERSTANDING, NOT RESPONDING

Many people have trouble opening up and sharing their opinions or experiences—doing so leaves us vulnerable to judgment or rejection. Make sure that when you're listening, you create a feeling of acceptance and not judgment. You want the speaker to feel safe in sharing. Focus your attention on hearing and understanding what is being said instead of planning how you will respond when it's your turn to speak. People can tell if you're not paying attention to them.

3. SHOW YOUR ATTENTION THROUGH BODY LANGUAGE

It's difficult to speak to someone who just stares blankly at you and gives no indication that he or she is registering what you're saying.

When someone is communicating with you, signal your attention and interest through your body language. Lean forward, smile, and nod occasionally to encourage the speaker to continue—this shows interest. On the other hand, leaning back in your seat, crossing your arms over your chest, or staring at the floor tells the other person that you have little interest or openness in what he or she is saying.

4. INTERACT WITH THE SPEAKER

One great way to demonstrate that you're listening is to rephrase and repeat a point the speaker has made. Doing so will show that you are actively thinking about what the other person is saying. Similarly, you should ask questions that help move the narrative along (“So what happened next?”) or clarify the person's point (“In what sense?” or “How?”). When you ask intelligent questions, you signal your interest and also help encourage the speaker.

5. LISTEN WITHOUT FIXING

One common mistake people make in communication is that they're too quick to try to solve the other person's problem instead of simply listening to them. Most people are not looking for a critique of their situation or an analysis of their options, they just want someone to empathize—to see things from their perspective. When someone opens up to you, avoid offering advice unless they ask for it. In most cases, he or she is just looking for someone to listen and understand. Be the person who listens to understand.

Make an effort to work on your ability to listen well and you'll be amazed at how it will improve your life – as well as those who are fortunate enough to have your ear.

MINISTERS OF CARE

Caring for one another...

Our church is a family and we consider our community a part of that family. We strive to care for and encourage those both within and beyond our walls. Our care ministry brings the Holy Eucharist to our people to hospital, nursing homes and family homes. By taking some time to bring the Holy Eucharist we show God's love and we assure our interest in their spiritual life.

Have a desire to help care for your neighbor?

Contact Jim Fijalkiewicz: (847) 526-7101 or Ellen Sherwin: (847) 254-4782 to see how you can help out.

RESPECT LIFE

Opportunities to Serve

Transfiguration manages the PADS site at Messiah Lutheran here in Wauconda each 3rd weekend of the month October through April.

Donations: Please give Karen a call or email if you'd like to donate any monetary amount; Karen will do the shopping and get items that PADS needs to their office. PADS has requested donations go to their central office rather than just to clients at our site. The need is greatest for Thermal Underwear, men's sizes M, L, XL, 2XL, 3XL, some Tall for these sizes as well. Put these items in the PADS box in the Gathering Place.

Are you interested in volunteer opportunities?

Please contact Karen Abernathy

Saint Vincent de Paul MINISTRY

WE NEED YOU!!!

Are you looking for a way to put your Faith in Action? Do you wonder if you might be cut out for "showing mercy", but don't know how? Do you have one to three hours per month? You can put your Faith in Action by becoming involved with St. Vincent de Paul. Please call our number to learn more from one of our associates, attend a meeting as an inquiring guest or go to www.svdpusa.org. If you hear a tiny voice deep inside urging you to "do something", consider joining St. Vincent de Paul at Transfiguration parish.

We look forward to welcoming YOU!
