"WE BELIEVE"

In this time of desperation
When all we know is doubt and fear
There is only one foundation
We believe, we believe
In this broken generation
When all is dark, You help us see
There is only one salvation
We believe, we believe

WE BELIEVE IN GOD THE FATHER
WE BELIEVE IN JESUS CHRIST
WE BELIEVE IN THE HOLY SPIRIT
AND HE'S GIVEN US NEW LIFE
WE BELIEVE IN THE CRUCIFIXION
WE BELIEVE THAT HE CONQUERED DEATH
WE BELIEVE IN THE RESURRECTION
AND HE'S COMIN' BACK AGAIN, WE BELIEVE

So, let our faith be more than anthems
Greater than the songs we sing
And in our weakness and temptations
We believe, we believe!

WE BELIEVE IN GOD THE FATHER!
WE BELIEVE IN JESUS CHRIST!
WE BELIEVE IN THE HOLY SPIRIT!
AND HE'S GIVEN US NEW LIFE!
WE BELIEVE IN THE CRUCIFIXION!
WE BELIEVE THAT HE CONQUERED DEATH!
WE BELIEVE IN THE RESURRECTION!
AND HE'S COMIN' BACK AGAIN!

Let the lost be found and the dead be raised!
In the here and now, let love invade!
Let the church live loud, our God we'll say
We believe, we believe!
And the gates of hell will not prevail!
For the power of God, has torn the veil!
Now we know Your love will never fail!
We believe, we believe!

WE BELIEVE IN GOD THE FATHER
WE BELIEVE IN JESUS CHRIST
WE BELIEVE IN THE HOLY SPIRIT
AND HE'S GIVEN US NEW LIFE!
WE BELIEVE IN THE CRUCIFIXION!
WE BELIEVE THAT HE CONQUERED DEATH!
WE BELIEVE IN THE RESURRECTION!
AND HE'S COMIN' BACK,
HE'S COMIN' BACK AGAIN!
HE'S COMIN' BACK AGAIN!
WE BELIEVE! WE BELIEVE

FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT LITURGY OF THE WORD

READING I

— IS 43:16-21

Thus says the LORD, who opens a way in the sea and a path in the mighty waters, who leads out chariots and horsemen, a powerful army, till they lie prostrate together, never to rise, snuffed out and quenched like a wick. Remember not the events of the past, the things of long ago consider not; see, I am doing something new! Now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? In the desert I make a way, in the wasteland, rivers. Wild beasts honor me, jackals and ostriches, for I put water in the desert and rivers in the wasteland for my chosen people to drink, the people whom I formed for myself, that they might announce my praise.

PSALM 126:                    God Has Done Great Things For Us #69

READING II

— PHIL 3:8-14

Brothers and sisters:

I consider everything as a loss because of the supreme good of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have accepted the loss of all things and I consider them so much rubbish, that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having any righteousness of my own based on the law but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God, depending on faith to know him and the power of his Resurrection and the sharing of his sufferings by being conformed to his death, if somehow I may attain the resurrection from the dead. It is not that I have already taken hold of it or have already attained perfect maturity, but I continue my pursuit in hope that I may possess it, since I have indeed been taken possession of by Christ Jesus. Brothers and sisters, I for my part do not consider myself to have taken possession. Just one thing: forgetting what lies behind but straining forward to what lies ahead, I continue my pursuit toward the goal, the prize of God's upward calling, in Christ Jesus.

MASS INTENTIONS: Daily Mass Intentions are available for parishioners who would like their intentions to be remembered at Mass. Intentions are available for those who have died or for someone who is living. Stop by the Parish Office or call us to obtain a date and time.

GOSPEL

— JN 8:1-11

Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. But early in the morning he arrived again in the temple area, and all the people started coming to him, and he sat down and taught them. Then the scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery and made her stand in the middle. They said to him, "Teacher, this woman was caught in the very act of committing adultery. Now in the law, Moses commanded us to stone such women. So what do you say?" They said this to test him, so that they could have some charge to bring against him. Jesus bent down and began to write on the ground with his finger. But when they continued asking him, he straightened up and said to them, "Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her." Again he bent down and wrote on the ground. And in response, they went away one by one, beginning with the elders. So he was left alone with the woman before him. Then Jesus straightened up and said to her, "Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?" She replied, "No one, sir." Then Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you. Go, and from now on do not sin any more."

LENT

A TIME OF REPENTANCE, GRACE & RENEWAL

AS JESUS LIBERATES THE WOMAN CAUGHT IN ADULTERY, SO HE WISHES TO FREE US FROM OUR SINS AND OUR GUILT.

Guilt is one of the most common of all human experiences, and often the heaviest burden to carry. Some will use it to come to terms with their life choices and bring about renewal and change. Others will deny its reality even though it may burn like a fire within them or they may project it onto others, avoiding responsibility and the need for change. Some will even use it to punish themselves and so add to their pain.

The biblical perspective on guilt is evident in today's Gospel. Dragged before Jesus by the Pharisees and scribes, the woman is, by all appearances, guilty, and deserving of the punishment laid down by Moses that she be stoned. Other than the sin of which she is accused, we know nothing about her or her life's circumstances. We do not know her name, her family or the identity of her partner in the act. Alone, humiliated and at risk, she stands before Jesus awaiting her fate. Yet we know that she is a sinner not just because of the adultery, but because like all humanity, she has fallen short of the glory of God (Romans 3:23).

When understood in strict legalistic terms, sin is usually seen as the breaking of rules and regulations – she was a sinner because she committed adultery. But for Jesus, sin is a bigger concept when understood in spiritual and relational terms – it is our alienation from God, from others and from ourselves. Its origins lie in our prideful and rebellious hearts, and so all humanity is sinful and in need of God's forgiveness and healing. What makes the passage even more provocative is that the scribes come to Jesus not out of concern for the law, but in the hope that they might put him to the test. Would he uphold the law or demonstrate compassion? Either way he would alienate someone.

To this day, we will never know what Jesus wrote in the dirt – was he playing for time or giving the scribes time to think again before he turned the tables on them? But his response to their demands has echoed through the centuries: let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her. Outflanked and silenced, they are without words and slowly – one by one – they slip away.

For most folks the story could have ended there, but Jesus goes one step further by offering her not just forgiveness but a new beginning. Instead of condemnation, he challenges her to turn her life around and sin no more.

What happened ultimately to this woman we will never know, and perhaps it's just as well for the real focus here is on God's mercy and forgiveness. In this encounter, Jesus opened the door for her to a new way of life, but the decision to walk through was hers alone. We see it over and over again – Jesus invites but does not coerce, he challenges but never infringes on our freedom. For love that is not freely given is not true love, and it is true perfect love that God wants us to experience and share.

THE HEART OF THE MATTER: TIME FOR REFLECTION AND SPIRITUAL GROWTH

1. Think about a time where you were “caught with your hand in the cookie jar” – when your sin was exposed for others to see. How did you feel? What did you want more than anything at that moment? What happened?
2. Which is harder for you to do – to seek forgiveness or to forgive? Why?
3. Place yourself in this scene. What would be the emotions of the woman as she is “caught in the act” of adultery?
4. What is the significance of Jesus' question to the woman? What was Jesus' attitude toward her? Was he condoning the woman's sin by not condemning her?
5. How does the way Jesus treated this woman help you face some of the sins you struggle with? Jesus loves and accepts us “as is”. Does that free you to change? Why?
6. What can you learn from Jesus about helping someone who has fallen?

Let It Go: 5 Reasons to Give Up Your Grudges and Forgive Everyone

It had been eating at her for days. How could he? How could he?! Barbed wire squeezed her heart. Her shoulders and neck ached. Anger blurred her vision. It was too much—too much! She knew she was going to have to do something. She took a deep breath. It's now or never. So, she did it. She went right up to her husband and said, "I forgive you." "For what, pooky-pants?" I said without looking up from my book. She just shook her head and walked away. But you know what? She felt better. Loads better.

What's my point? Forgiveness is a gift you give to yourself. Holding a grudge torments no one more than it torments you. It punishes no one more than it punishes you.

Don't believe me? Here are five life-changing reasons why you should forgive quickly, forgive freely, and forgive indiscriminately.

1. YOU'LL FEEL BETTER

"Always forgive your enemies; nothing annoys them so much." – Oscar Wilde

My opening example with my wife wasn't a metaphor to make a point. It's a fact. When you let go of your grudges, you feel it. And it feels good. Forgiveness leads to improved mental health, lowered levels of stress and anxiety, fewer symptoms of depression, and improved self-esteem. That's right. When you forgive others, you actually feel better about yourself. You feel stronger and freer and more at peace. You'll have healthier relationships, too. Obviously, the relationships with people you easily forgive will be stronger, but this applies to all your relationships. This is because anger, bitterness, and resentment are almost never contained. Your negative emotions with one individual will seep—like black, poisonous smoke—into every relationship you have, including your relationship with yourself.

2. YOU'LL BE HEALTHIER

"Holding onto anger is like drinking poison and expecting the other person to die." – Anonymous

Physiologically speaking, forgiveness is great for your health. It has been studied time and time again. The more you forgive, the healthier you'll be. The other side of this coin is the damage that holding onto grudges can cause, which includes increased blood pressure, a weakened immune system, and decreased heart health. This is because your brain is incapable of determining between real and imaginary threats. When you hold onto a grudge, as far as your brain is concerned, the event that led to your grudge-holding is still happening.

3. GRUDGES INHIBIT YOUR AWESOMENESS

"The weak can never forgive. Forgiveness is the attribute of the strong." – Gandhi

It is impossible to be the best version of yourself while holding a grudge. It just is.

The emotional stress caused by holding onto a grudge actually causes you to make poorer decisions—which means things can snowball for you fairly quickly. Bad goes to worse and you may not even realize why. Parts of your life that have nothing to do with your grudge will be impacted. Maybe you'll attribute it to bad luck, but it has nothing to do with luck. It's a choice. You are choosing a second-rate version of yourself over the best version of yourself. You are choosing misery over happiness.

4. YOU ARE INFLUENTIAL!

"Forgiveness is not an occasional act; it is a permanent attitude." – Martin Luther King, Jr.

This one is so important and so overlooked, the title demanded an exclamation mark. You know what? No. It demands three exclamation marks. Let's try this again . . . YOU ARE INFLUENTIAL!!! Yep. That feels right. Because people notice what you are doing. Yes . . . you! You have more influence on those around you than you think, especially if you have kids. If you are slow to forgive or if you hold onto grudges, it's contagious. Others will not only be more likely to hold onto grudges toward you, but also do so with others as well. On the other hand, if you forgive quickly and openly, people notice. They will see how you're healthier and happier—even if they can't quite articulate why—and they will be attracted to it. They will try to emulate it.

You matter. I encourage you to act like it.

6. FORGIVENESS =/= CONDONING

"Forgiving means to pardon that which is unpardonable, or it is no virtue at all." – G.K. Chesterton

Many people struggle with this concept. They think that if they forgive someone for their heinous shenanigans, they are condoning said shenanigans. That's not true. Forgiveness, at its core, is simply the act of acknowledging another's humanity. We are all flawed. Wonderfully imperfect. Sometimes maddeningly imperfect. Some of us are more maddeningly, imperfectly flawed than others (just ask my wife). But nothing is unforgivable. You don't have to approve of the wrongdoing to show kindness and love toward the wrongdoer.

Oops. Looks like that was actually six life-changing reasons to forgive quickly, to forgive freely, and to forgive indiscriminately—not five. I hope you'll forgive me.

"To err is human; to forgive, divine." – Alexander Pope

ABSTINENCE

The law of abstinence requires a Catholic 14 years of age until death to abstain from eating meat on Fridays in honor of the Passion of Jesus on Good Friday. During Lent abstinence from meat on Fridays is obligatory in the United States as elsewhere.

FASTING

The law of fasting requires a Catholic from the 18th Birthday to the 59th Birthday to reduce the amount of food eaten from normal. The Church defines this as one meal a day, and two smaller meals which if added together would not exceed the main meal in quantity. Such fasting is obligatory on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. The fast is broken by eating between meals and by drinks which could be considered food (milk shakes, but not milk). Alcoholic beverages do not break the fast; however, they seem to be contrary to the spirit of doing penance.

MEAT IS CONSIDERED TO BE THE FLESH AND ORGANS OF MAMMALS AND FOWL.

MINISTERS OF CARE

Our church is a family and we consider our community a part of that family. We strive to care for and encourage those both within and beyond our walls. Our care ministry brings the Holy Eucharist to our people to hospital, nursing homes and family homes. By taking some time to bring the Holy Eucharist we show God's love and we assure our interest in their spiritual life.

Do you have a desire to bring Holy Communion to your neighbor? Please contact Jim Fijalkiewicz: (847) 526-7101 or Ellen Sherwin: (847) 254-4782.
