A Prayer for Healing

ORACION DE SANACION

MODLITWA O UZDROWIENIE

Lord, You invite all who are burdened to come to you. Allow Your healing Hand to heal me. Touch my soul with Your compassion for others; touch my heart with Your courage and infinite Love for all; touch my mind with Your Wisdom, and may my mouth always proclaim Your praise. Teach me to reach out to You in all my needs, and help me to lead others to You by my example.

Most loving Heart of Jesus, bring me health in body and spirit that I may serve You with all my strength. Touch gently this life which you have created, now and forever. Amen.

Pray for the Faithful Departed

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER LITURGY OF THE WORD

READING I — ACTS 5:27-32,40B-41

When the captain and the court officers had brought the apostles in and made them stand before the Sanhedrin, the high priest questioned them, "We gave you strict orders, did we not, to stop teaching in that name? Yet you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and want to bring this man's blood upon us." But Peter and the apostles said in reply, "We must obey God rather than men. The God of our ancestors raised Jesus, though you had him killed by hanging him on a tree. God exalted him at his right hand as leader and savior to grant Israel repentance and forgiveness of sins. We are witnesses of these things, as is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him." The Sanhedrin ordered the apostles to stop speaking in the name of Jesus, and dismissed them. So they left the presence of the Sanhedrin, rejoicing that they had been found worthy to suffer dishonor for the sake of the name.

PSALM 30: I Will Praise You, Lord #30

READING II — REV 5:11-14

I, John, looked and heard the voices of many angels who surrounded the throne and the living creatures and the elders. They were countless in number, and they cried out in a loud voice: "Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power and riches, wisdom and strength, honor and glory and blessing." Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, everything in the universe, cry out: "To the one who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor, glory and might, forever and ever." The four living creatures answered, "Amen," and the elders fell down and worshiped.

GOSPEL — JN 21:1-18

At that time, Jesus revealed himself again to his disciples at the Sea of Tiberias. He revealed himself in this way. Together were Simon Peter, Thomas called Didymus, Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, Zebedee's sons, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We also will come with you."

MASS INTENTIONS: Daily Mass Intentions are available for parishioners who would like their intentions to be remembered at Mass. Intentions are available for those who have died or for someone who is living. Stop by the Parish Office or call us to obtain a date and time.

So they went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing. When it was already dawn, Jesus was standing on the shore; but the disciples did not realize that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, "Children, have you caught anything to eat?" They answered him, "No." So he said to them, "Cast the net over the right side of the boat and you will find something." So they cast it, and were not able to pull it in because of the number of fish. So the disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord." When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he tucked in his garment, for he was lightly clad, and jumped into the sea. The other disciples came in the boat, for they were not far from shore, only about a hundred yards, dragging the net with the fish. When they climbed out on shore, they saw a charcoal fire with fish on it and bread. Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish you just caught." So Simon Peter went over and dragged the net ashore full of one hundred fifty-three large fish. Even though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, "Come, have breakfast." And none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they realized it was the Lord. Jesus came over and took the bread and gave it to them, and in like manner the fish. This was now the third time Jesus was revealed to his disciples after being raised from the dead. When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?" Simon Peter answered him, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my lambs." He then said to Simon Peter a second time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Simon Peter answered him, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Tend my sheep." Jesus said to him the third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Peter was distressed that Jesus had said to him a third time, "Do you love me?" and he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep. Amen, amen, I say to you, when you were younger, you used to dress yourself and go where you wanted; but when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and lead you where you do not want to go." He said this signifying by what kind of death he would glorify God. And when he had said this, he said to him, "Follow me."

“DO YOU LOVE ME?... FOLLOW ME?”

Imagine that we are in the first century and know that Jesus will soon be leaving. Like any anxious member of a group, we ask, “Who’s going to lead us when you’re gone?” Jesus replies, “Peter!” We can’t believe it. How can Jesus select the person who denied knowing him, not once, not twice, but three times? He would not follow Jesus to Golgotha. And yet, he’s the one who is supposed to lead Jesus’ sheep. Peter might not stand out to us at that time as a first choice, but this is the man Jesus chooses to be the leader of the young Christian community.

Peter is flawed, and he might not be completely trustworthy. But redemption awaits him. He becomes a leader who is not afraid to voice his beliefs in the face of adversity. When he is brought before the authorities and reminded that he is not supposed to be talking about Jesus, Peter emphatically denounces their authority, obeying only God’s authority. In following Jesus, Peter furthers Jesus’ mission. And in doing so, he is honored by God the Father.

In the Gospel, Jesus and Peter have an exchange about love. For English speakers, we only have the one word – love. But the Gospel is written in Greek, and there are several words for love. Jesus asks Peter if he loves him, using the Greek word agapas, which is divine love. Peter responds that he does love him, but instead of using the term agapas, he uses the term philo, which is brotherly love. This happens again with the same result. Finally, Jesus asks Peter if he loves him with that brotherly love, and Peter replies that of course he does.

Peter, again showing his limitations, is not able to say that he loves Jesus with divine love because he is limited by his humanity. It takes God’s grace to be able to exude divine love, and that comes in the fruit of the Spirit at Pentecost. Only when he is imbued with divine love does Peter become capable of leading Jesus’ flock.

THE HEART OF THE MATTER: TIME FOR REFLECTION AND SPIRITUAL GROWTH

When we partake of the Eucharist, we, too, become filled with that same divine love. But that love is not meant to be hidden, it is meant for us to share. When we leave this church today, will we be able to go out and live our lives signifying that we, too, follow Jesus?

Through the Eucharist, we receive God’s divine love so that we may be witnesses to Jesus’ mission.

The Classroom of Silence

If you're familiar with Dynamic Catholic—maybe you participated in one of our programs, read one of our books, or attended one of our events—you have probably heard us talk over and over again about the classroom of silence. But what really is the classroom of silence, and why are we always talking about it?

Matthew Kelly, our founder and CEO, wrote in Rediscover Catholicism "If I live to be a hundred and write for my whole life, I will never be able to emphasize enough how important silence is as an ingredient of the spiritual life." If you look at Scripture, where does it seem like God prefers to speak to people? Look at Adam and Abraham and Moses and Joshua and David and Jesus and you will discover the answer. That's right: silence and solitude. Our modern world is a world of noise. Our lives have become so filled with noise that many have become uncomfortable and even afraid of silence. It is in the silence that the whole world starts to make sense.

During the 1940s, C. S. Lewis wrote a series of letters that appeared in a London newspaper called the Guardian. These letters were the humorous and insightful correspondence between a senior devil, Screwtape, and an apprentice devil, his nephew Wormwood. The thirty-one letters were later published in the form of a book titled The Screwtape Letters.

In the letters, Screwtape is advising Wormwood about the procedure for winning a soul away from God for the devil. At one point, Wormwood is trying to think up all kinds of exotic ways to tempt the man who has been assigned to him. Screwtape rebukes Wormwood, explaining that their methods have long been established. One such method, he explains, is to create so much noise that men and women can no longer hear the voice of God in their lives. In one letter, the senior devil announces, "We will make the whole universe a noise in the end."

Think of all the noise in our world today. C. S. Lewis wrote these words over seventy years ago, before people had iPhones and iPods, shower radios, laptops, tablets, computers at work, a radio in their cars, loudspeakers at markets, email and texts, and all the other devices that fill our world with a constant buzz of noise. Research suggests that the average American checks their phone more than one hundred times per day and spends an average of ten hours per day in front of a screen.

There are a few things in life that, when we embrace them, have an incredible impact on every other aspect of our lives. Silence is one of those things. How in the world are you supposed to work out the big questions of life when you can't even hear yourself think? The reality is, you won't. Unless you withdraw from all the noise of your life and the world for a few minutes each day, you will most likely just become another cog in the wheel of the world.

The classroom of silence is where we go to break the wheel. For a few minutes, every day, we go to hear the voice of God in our lives. It is in the classroom of silence that we finally are able to listen to God and life can finally start to make sense. It is in the silence that the whole world starts to make sense.

Consider this: You are taking a road trip, and you get a little lost. OK, maybe you even get a lot lost. Do you tell the people in the car to turn up the music and talk louder? Of course not. What do you do? You turn off the music and ask everyone to be quiet. Why? Because things start to make sense in silence.

This is just as true for our personal lives. We're all trying to make sense of something in our lives. I'm trying to make sense of something and so are you. It's a family member's sickness or the loss of a job. It's something you think you want or something you wish you could do. It's a relationship that needs fixing or a bad habit you need to get under control. We all have something that we're trying to make sense of. Something we are trying to figure out and get a handle on. The question I want to ask is, are you giving yourself the silence you need to make sense of it?

I will make you two promises: 1. In the classroom of silence you will find God, and 2. In the classroom of silence you will find yourself.

These are life's two greatest discoveries. But they aren't discovered in a moment that strikes like lightning—a sudden surge of understanding and knowledge. They happen gradually, over time. You discover just a little bit here and a little bit there, and over time you start to put things together. This process of discovery is the great adventure of life, and it can't happen without the classroom of silence.

There are a few things in life that, when we embrace them, have an incredible impact on every other aspect of our lives. Silence is one of those things. And if you aren't sure about that, the best thing to do is to test it yourself. Take a week and spend ten minutes every day in the classroom of silence. At the end of that week, you will find yourself yearning for a need you never knew you had: the need for silence.

Our world has been filled with noise, and as a result, we can no longer hear the voice of God in our lives. It is time to enter the classroom of silence.

TRANSFIGURATION MINISTRY OF PRAYER

We know that life can be challenging and the only thing that may help to get you back to center is Prayer. We believe very strongly in the power of Prayer. This belief and knowing comes from seeing or hearing about the many demonstrations or testimonies in the lives of people around the world.

At the end of weekend Masses the Transfiguration Ministry of Prayer will be in the front of the Church to pray for you or someone you love and care for.

Please know that each Minister of Transfiguration Ministry of Prayer commits to holding your intentions in the light of Christ, standing in Truth, Principle and Love. Prayer is the tool we use to know the truth. It is not about begging or pleading for something to happen to change the conditions in life. It is about aligning ourselves with the all good of God that surrounds us at all times.

Every request we receive is treated with love, compassion, respect and dignity.

Daily Mass Intentions are available for anyone who would like their intentions to be remembered at Mass. Intentions are available for those who have died or for someone who is living.

Stop by the Parish Office or call us to obtain a date and time.

MINISTERS OF CARE

Caring for one another...

Our church is a family and we consider our community a part of that family. We strive to care for and encourage those both within and beyond our walls. Our care ministry brings the Holy Eucharist to our people to hospital, nursing homes and family homes. By taking some time to bring the Holy Eucharist we show God's love and we assure our interest in their spiritual life.

Do you have a desire to bring Holy Communion to your neighbor?

Contact Jim Fijalkiewicz: (847) 526-7101 or Ellen Sherwin: (847) 254-4782 to see how you can help out.

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS

Lord, Jesus we ask you to send more servants to your people.

Choose from our parishes,
from our homes,

from our schools and colleges,
an abundant harvest of apostles
for your Kingdom: priests, sisters, brothers, deacons and lay ministers.

We pray that those you call may never lose awareness of the dignity and need of their vocation.

O Virgin Mary,

Mother of the Church,

teach to all those the Master calls to say a joyful “yes”

as you did at the Annunciation.

Amen.

RESPECT LIFE NEWS --
SPIRITUAL ADOPTION

“Before I formed you in the womb I knew you...before you were born I consecrated you”

Jeremiah 1:4-10

Through Spiritual Adoption, you commit yourself to remembering that child in prayer for 40 weeks, thus “adopting” them, until the day that they are born. This is a prayerful way to open our hearts to those who are voiceless and to be a strong witness to the sanctity of all life.

Respect Life Spiritually Adopted Baby – Week 7

Please pray that our baby, who is not yet born, will receive the gift of Life. As we follow our unborn baby to birth, this is what’s going on in the womb during week 7.

“I can move! My muscles and nerves are now functioning and I have reflexes and can move spontaneously. Even my tiny fingers are starting to form. My lungs are starting their slow development and my heart is now inside my thoracic cavity. It beats strongly as I wiggle and move inside my mother. She can’t feel my movements yet, but pretty soon she will. My abdomen is fully formed and my mouth can almost open. I wish I could just yell out to my parents, ‘I can’t wait to meet you -- Thank you for keeping me safe!’ Please pray for me.”

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much.

I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby whom I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion. Amen.
