THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME*LITURGY OF THE WORD*READING I — 1 KGS 19:16B, 19-21-20

The LORD said to Elijah:

"You shall anoint Elisha, son of Shaphat of Abelmeholah, as prophet to succeed you."

Elijah set out and came upon Elisha, son of Shaphat, as he was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen; he was following the twelfth. Elijah went over to him and threw his cloak over him. Elisha left the oxen, ran after Elijah, and said, "Please, let me kiss my father and mother goodbye, and I will follow you." Elijah answered, "Go back! Have I done anything to you?" Elisha left him, and taking the yoke of oxen, slaughtered them; he used the plowing equipment for fuel to boil their flesh, and gave it to his people to eat. Then Elisha left and followed Elijah as his attendant.

PSALM 16: You will show me the path of life (Ref III) # 19*READING II — GAL 5:1, 13-18

Brothers and sisters:

For freedom Christ set us free; so stand firm and do not submit again to the yoke of slavery.

For you were called for freedom, brothers and sisters. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather, serve one another through love. For the whole law is fulfilled in one statement, namely, You shall love your neighbor as yourself. But if you go on biting and devouring one another, beware that you are not consumed by one another.

I say, then: live by the Spirit and you will certainly not gratify the desire of the flesh. For the flesh has desires against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; these are opposed to each other, so that you may not do what you want. But if you are guided by the Spirit, you are not under the law.

GOSPEL— LK 9:51-62

When the days for Jesus' being taken up were fulfilled, he resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem, and he sent messengers ahead of him. On the way they entered a Samaritan village to prepare for his reception there, but they would not welcome him because the destination of his journey was Jerusalem. When the disciples James and John saw this they asked, "Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to consume them?" Jesus turned and rebuked them, and they journeyed to another village.

As they were proceeding on their journey someone said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go." Jesus answered him, "Foxes have dens and birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head."

And to another he said, "Follow me." But he replied, "Lord, let me go first and bury my father." But he answered him, "Let the dead bury their dead. But you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God." And another said, "I will follow you, Lord, but first let me say farewell to my family at home." To him Jesus said, "No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God."

Stick together. Love each other, and together: Look to Jesus in Prayer.

OBEY GOD'S CALL WITHOUT DELAY OR EXCUSE. LORD, TEACH ME TO KNOW YOU MORE, LOVE YOU MORE, AND SERVE YOU MORE FAITHFULLY IN MY LIFE.

Now that the Easter Season is concluded and we have celebrated the Feasts of the Ascension, Pentecost, Most Holy Trinity and the Holy Body and Blood of Jesus, we have returned to Ordinary Time. The Scriptures today refer to God's call, and the necessity for us to provide an answer to that call with an act of faith. If we truly believe the Lord to be the sovereign in the center of our hearts, then we must obey God's call without delay or excuse.

Just prior to today's reading on top of Mount Horeb, the Mountain of God, Elijah was granted an answer to his prayers. After praying for death and enduring an earthquake, windstorm and wildfire on top of that mountain, he had heard the tiniest whisper. It was the voice of the Lord telling him that Elisha was chosen to be his successor. Elisha was not as excited as Elijah to learn of this. He wanted to go and bid farewell to his family, and perhaps get his affairs in order. Once he realizes he must leave everything and go right then, not only does he lay down the reins to his father's plow, he burns everything up – there is no turning back. Elisha set the stage for what Jesus' Apostles would do centuries later, when they would lay down their nets and leave the customs post to follow him.

In the Gospel, we listen to the final verses of the ninth chapter of Luke. This is a very busy chapter in Luke's Gospel, and a tumultuous time in the life of Christ. Earlier in this chapter, Jesus had sent out the Twelve Apostles on their first missionary journey. Then, Jesus informed his Apostles that he was going to be arrested and put to death. Then, he took Peter, James and John up on Mount Tabor and they saw Jesus transfigured before them.

Now, today, as we work toward the end of the chapter, we see that Jesus increasingly meets resistance in his efforts to seek and save the lost. Fewer and fewer people wish to accompany him, even Samaritans who previously offered him the warmest of welcomes. They know why Jesus is going to Jerusalem, and they are not sure they wish to follow him any further if it means suffering and death.

Jesus calls others to follow him but, like Elisha, they have excuses, they need more time, they are not ready to go. The Lord has nowhere to rest his head and his days are numbered, but still he presses on, inviting others to join him along the way of the cross. They will not go. Perhaps it is a sign of the abandonment and isolation Jesus is set to endure in his last hours, as almost everyone he cared about refuses to stay at his side.

The Lord is calling all of us. He calls us to be prophets, apostles, disciples, friends, to serve one another through love, as Paul encouraged the Galatians in today's second reading. The time for excuses is long past. Whether we feel unworthy, unwilling or afraid, let us trust in the Lord and leave it all behind and follow him, that he might lead us to himself, to the Father and to heaven.

THE HEART OF THE MATTER: TIME FOR REFLECTION AND SPIRITUAL GROWTH

- What does it mean to follow Jesus?
- What are the problems which you have to face in your life because of the decision which you have taken to follow Jesus?
- How truly do I believe that God wants to use me to achieve great things?

The gospel highlights that Christianity is a challenge, not just a warm blanket. Jesus values God more than safe sleep, than family events, even more than courtesy to relatives and friends. These receive their worth at the very core of themselves from love. Love of God above all, love of our neighbor as ourselves, no matter what.

5 Ways To Make Yourself Indispensable at Work

If you're uncertain about your job security, it's hard to relax and do your best work. But one way to make sure that you're considered a valuable employee is to make yourself indispensable. You don't do this by killing yourself, but by improving yourself and letting those improvements help you to shine. Here are five ways to make yourself more indispensable at work...

1. DEVELOP IN-DEMAND SKILLS THAT FIT WELL WITH YOUR OTHER ABILITIES

While your native talents are great, exceptional employees find ways to develop new, complementary skills. For example, a graphic designer might decide to learn web design or programming to further expand his or her abilities. In considering your own situation, think about the duties and abilities of your co-workers—particularly those you interact with frequently. Could you add any of those abilities yourself, thereby making yourself doubly valuable to your employer? If you're at a loss for other ideas, consider improving your writing ability—given its importance in communication, it's a highly valued skill in almost any office setting.

2. BE ON-TIME, EVERY TIME

While casual dress is acceptable in some workplaces, being perpetually late is not. Do not develop a reputation for being tardy with meeting times or deadlines—once you're tagged with that label, it's awfully hard to get rid of. No matter how casual the office, your employer will be impressed if you show up to appointments on time and meet (to the best of your ability) the deadlines you agree to. Doing so shows professionalism and reliability, which are both essential to being considered an invaluable employee.

3. BE POSITIVE

If you've been in the work world for any appreciable amount of time, you've surely run into the problem employee. This is the person whose bad attitude and negativity infect the morale of the workplace, because he or she is focused on complaining and criticizing. These people not only suck the enthusiasm out of an office, but they also tend to draw other employees into the negativity vortex as well.

When you're doing something you like and are good at, your passion shows.

Do not be that person. Employers value enthusiastic, positive team players—the kind of people who can energize a workplace, not bring it down.

4. LEARN TECHNOLOGY, EVEN IF IT "ISN'T YOUR THING"

Guess what? Whether you like it or not, in today's world, technology is everyone's thing. Whether it's the ability to send email, use a word processor, find information on the internet, or just use the right printer setting, the modern workplace requires basic technological know-how. If you don't have that, this is the time to develop it. Soon, it will be a prerequisite to all employment.

5. IDENTIFY WHAT YOU'RE GOOD AT AND WHAT YOU ENJOY

When you're doing something you like and are good at, your passion shows. Not only do you perform your job with gusto, but you're motivated to further develop your job skills. As a bonus, your enthusiasm is infectious and can help motivate your co-workers. So determine what you're good at and enjoy, and find ways to work in that space. This will naturally make you an indispensable employee.

If you're feeling vulnerable at work or want to ensure a more secure future for yourself, start putting these five ideas into practice to let your talent and abilities shine.

TRANSFIGURATION MINISTRY OF PRAYER

We know that life can be challenging and the only thing that may help to get you back to center is Prayer. We believe very strongly in the power of Prayer. This belief and knowing comes from seeing or hearing about the many demonstrations or testimonies in the lives of people around the world.

At the end of weekend Masses the Transfiguration Ministry of Prayer will be in the front of the Church to pray for you or someone you love and care for.

Please know that each Minister of Transfiguration Ministry of Prayer commits to holding your intentions in the light of Christ, standing in Truth, Principle and Love. Prayer is the tool we use to know the truth. It is not about begging or pleading for something to happen to change the conditions in life. It is about aligning ourselves with the all good of God that surrounds us at all times.

Every request we receive is treated with love, compassion, respect and dignity.

Daily Mass Intentions are available for anyone who would like their intentions to be remembered at Mass. Intentions are available for those who have died or for someone who is living.

Stop by the Parish Office or call us to obtain a date and time.

MINISTERS OF CARE

Caring for one another...

Our church is a family and we consider our community a part of that family. We strive to care for and encourage those both within and beyond our walls. Our care ministry brings the Holy Eucharist to our people to hospital, nursing homes and family homes. By taking some time to bring the Holy Eucharist we show God's love and we assure our interest in their spiritual life.

Do you have a desire to bring Holy Communion to your neighbor?

PRO-LIFE

Respect Life

"Before I formed you in the womb I knew you... before you were born I consecrated you..."
Jeremiah 1:4-10

Spiritually Adopted Baby – Week 15

Please pray that our baby, who is not yet born, will receive the gift of Life. As we follow our unborn baby to birth, this is what's going on in the womb during week 15.

"This is another week of miracles. I am able to hear my mother's voice for the first time! All of the fluid that surrounds me helps to carry the sound of her voice, her heartbeat and even her stomach, to me. I can hear some things outside the womb – like Daddy's voice, too! My brain is not yet mature enough to interpret it all, but it sure is interesting. I am growing some hair and eyebrows and even growing tiny little hairs called 'lanugo' all over my body that help me to maintain my body temperature. Don't worry; by the time I am born, most of that hair will have disappeared! Please keep praying for me".

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much.

I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby whom I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion. Amen.

Nabożeństwo Pierwszosobotnie Wynagradzające Niepokalanemu Sercu Najświętszej Maryi Panny

W każdą Pierwszą Sobotę Miesiąca od godziny 9pm do północy w głównym kościele

Lord, Jesus
we ask you to send more servants to your people.

Choose from our parishes,
from our homes,
from our schools and colleges,
an abundant harvest of apostles
for your Kingdom: priests, sisters, brothers, deacons and lay ministers.

We pray that those you call may never lose awareness of the dignity and need of their vocation.

O Virgin Mary,
Mother of the Church,
teach to all those the Master calls
to say a joyful “yes”
as you did at the Annunciation.
Amen.
