SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIMELITURGY OF THE WORD*READING I — GN18:1-10a

The LORD appeared to Abraham by the terebinth of Mamre, as he sat in the entrance of his tent, while the day was growing hot. Looking up, Abraham saw three men standing nearby. When he saw them, he ran from the entrance of the tent to greet them; and bowing to the ground, he said: "Sir, if I may ask you this favor, please do not go on past your servant. Let some water be brought, that you may bathe your feet, and then rest yourselves under the tree. Now that you have come this close to your servant, let me bring you a little food, that you may refresh yourselves; and afterward you may go on your way." The men replied, "Very well, do as you have said."

Abraham hastened into the tent and told Sarah, "Quick, three measures of fine flour! Knead it and make rolls." He ran to the herd, picked out a tender, choice steer, and gave it to a servant, who quickly prepared it. Then Abraham got some curds and milk, as well as the steer that had been prepared, and set these before the three men; and he waited on them under the tree while they ate. They asked Abraham, "Where is your wife Sarah?" He replied, "There in the tent." One of them said, "I will surely return to you about this time next year, and Sarah will then have a son."

PSALM: They Who Do Justice #17READING II — COL 1:24-28

Brothers and sisters: Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am filling up what is lacking in the afflictions of Christ on behalf of his body, which is the church, of which I am a minister in accordance with God's stewardship given to me to bring to completion for you the word of God, the mystery hidden from ages and from generations past. But now it has been manifested to his holy ones, to whom God chose to make known the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; it is Christ in you, the hope for glory. It is he whom we proclaim, admonishing everyone and teaching everyone with all wisdom, that we may present everyone perfect in Christ.

GOSPEL — LK 10:38-42

Jesus entered a village where a woman whose name was Martha welcomed him. She had a sister named Mary who sat beside the Lord at his feet listening to him speak. Martha, burdened with much serving, came to him and said, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me by myself to do the serving? Tell her to help me." The Lord said to her in reply, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her."

Stick together. Love each other, and together: Look to Jesus in Prayer.

CALLED TO BE BOTH MARTHA AND MARY.

A true story: Once upon a time a young mother with three young children in tow found a pew toward the back of the church. She regularly did this so that she could make a graceful exit if one of her children needed the bathroom or started to squirm a little too much. A few minutes later, an older parishioner came up to the young mother and announced that she was sitting in her seat. She quietly moved over, knowing her escape route had now been compromised.

Almost as if on cue, when the first reading began, one of the children started crying. The older parishioner who forced her way into “her pew” started glaring at this young mother. Thankfully another older parishioner, sitting right behind her, leaned forward and quietly offered to watch the two other children while she took care of the one who needed her attention at the moment.

Thus, the Martha and Mary debate seems to continue even today: doing what is most important in the right moment. Do we listen to Jesus or tend to his needs? In the story above, one older parishioner wants to sit at the feet of Jesus and hear what he has to say without being disrupted. The other parishioner seems more concerned with meeting the needs of a distraught mother. In this instance, we might say that the parishioner who came to the aid of the mother did so because she was already hearing exactly what Jesus had to say, and she acted on it.

As a Church, we continue to struggle with how to make anyone and everyone welcome in our midst regardless of their circumstances. The Eucharist we gather to celebrate is an incredible gift given to us by a God who loves us beyond words. Both Martha and Mary’s talents are needed within us so that we can bring others to Christ – so we can bring others to the Lord’s Table.

If we grow complacent in our responsibility in not only hearing the word of God, but in acting upon it, the Church will suffer. Let none of us be responsible for turning away anyone who comes to our doors seeking Christ. Let us hear with urgency God’s word spoken here today and let us act upon it. We can be both Martha and Mary at the same time.

HEART OF THE MATTER: TIME FOR REFLECTION AND SPIRITUAL GROWTH

1. Who do you identify more with, Mary or Martha?
2. What are the strengths of being a “Martha” in life and ministry? What are the weaknesses?
3. What are the common results you experience when you lose your focus on God? Who, or what, do you blame when your life becomes chaotic?
4. This passage invites us to see Jesus Himself as our ‘portion.’ Apart from Christ, what things do you treat as your ‘portion’? In other words, where are you tempted to look for life apart from Christ?
5. What time of day have you found to be best for you to be able to really sit, listen, and hear from the Lord?

YOU ARE WORRIED AND UPSET ABOUT MANY THINGS, BUT ONLY ONE THING IS NEEDED.

STEWARDSHIP

*SOMOS DISCIPULOS COMPROMETIDOS
DZIELENIE SIĘ DARAMI*

"...I am a minister in accordance with God's stewardship given to me to bring to completion for you the word of God."

COLOSSIANS 1:25

We are all called to evangelize – to continuously grow in our relationship with Jesus and to share it with others. We may not be called to evangelize like St. Paul, but we should look for opportunities to share our faith with those closest to us, like our family, friends and neighbors. Pray for the courage to share your faith the next time the opportunity arises.

"... Soy un ministro de acuerdo con la corresponsabilidad de Dios que se me ha dado para que complete la palabra de Dios para ustedes".

COLOSENSES 1:25

Todos estamos llamados a evangelizar, a crecer continuamente en nuestra relación con Jesús y a compartirla con los demás. Puede que no seamos llamados a evangelizar como San Pablo, pero debemos buscar oportunidades para compartir nuestra fe con los más cercanos a nosotros, como nuestra familia, amigos y vecinos. Ora para tener el valor de compartir tu fe la próxima vez que surja la oportunidad.

“Renew My Church”

Lord Jesus, you speak to us today,
as you spoke to holy men and women
who have gone before us.
In every age and in our own time,
you call to us and say: Renew My Church.

Pour out the gift of your Holy Spirit upon us,
and so enable us

- to hear you clearly
- to listen to each other attentively
- to imagine our future boldly
- to discern your direction wisely
- to persevere in your holy will courageously
- to stay together in charity
- to surrender our own plans readily
- to embrace the greater good
- to hand on your gifts to future generations.

May we remain in the holy company of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the apostles, and all the saints.

May their example and presence inspire us with patient confidence in the work of your grace.

We ask this of you who live and reign with the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one
God, forever and ever. Amen

The Plague of Helicopter Parents

“The one to whom nothing was refused, whose tears were always wiped away by an anxious mother, will not abide being offended.”- Seneca, Dying Every Day: Seneca at the Court of Nero.

One of the rules in Catholic Youth Organization golf is: “Spectators should stay at least fifteen yards from the players while playing each hole. A two-stroke penalty will be issued if it seems apparent to a scorer or coach or another parent that a parent or scorekeeper is assisting a child with club selection or choice, putt breaks, rule choices, or if said adult is giving aid in any way to his or her son or daughter or team member.” Yet, there we all were, watching this doting mother walking side-by-side with her son for every shot. Thinking it could not get any more obnoxious, I was slightly amazed when she began to fan him from the heat, allow him to ride in her golf cart, and make us all wait far beyond the permitted three minutes to look for an errant shot by her young Tiger Woods. At the end of the match, I was saying my goodbye to a couple of the parents when one commented on the excessive heat of the day. I simply could not help myself by leaving them with this consolation, “Well, at least we had the wind from that Helicopter Parent!”

To be fair, parenting is hard work. As parents, we spend a great deal of time working on ways to help our kids succeed. With all of that hard work, there hardly seems time for what may be one of the most important things we can do for our kids . . . Let them fail. Now, I am not suggesting that we intentionally set our kids up to fail, or that we don’t do everything in our power to instill in them the desire to excel in whatever they do; however, how they get to the finish line is just as important as when they get there. It’s funny, but if we’re honest with ourselves and we think back about the most important lessons we learned in our young lives, they probably revolved around some kind of failure; some time when we just didn’t measure up and we had to either live with it or, if possible, persevere through whatever the challenge was in order to come out on the other side better for it. Why, then, do we spend so much time trying to shield our kids from the very experiences that, with an adult perspective, we can now see were so valuable? Children can only develop virtue by practicing it. Most virtues are gained through struggle.

There are two big problems with never allowing your children to fail (helicopter):

1. Virtue is a habit. Children can only develop virtue by practicing it. Most virtues are gained through struggle. No struggle—no virtue.
2. We are created to be good, to be virtuous, to be the-best-version-of-ourselves. Happiness comes from living a virtuous life.

While we may think we are giving our children “opportunities we never had,” we may also be depriving them of experiences to persevere, to build the habits of fortitude, honesty, and most importantly courage—those things that will make them truly happy. So what’s a caring parent to do? Try to remember these four things:

1. Your child’s failures are not your failures (you are not getting a C in Algebra!).
2. Sooner or later, your child will fail and you won’t be there—then what?
3. If you continually blame others in authority for your child’s failures, they will learn to eventually blame you for theirs.
4. Courage is the ability to suffer for the good—a little suffering now will help make your child much more courageous later.

Remember, great parents know that they occasionally have to say no so that they can say yes.

Finally, I am not suggesting you go out of your way to make your child fail. Furthermore, being there for them is critical so you can help guide them as to how the situation, if handled correctly, can help them grow.

I can remember a time when I was the head of a school and was asked to be a judge of student speakers who were vying for a chance to give a speech at a big annual event at the school. One of my daughters was a finalist and, of course, it came down to her and another young lady. The two other judges and I met privately and went over the merits of each contestant. I could tell it was tough on the other judges to be totally honest given the situation, so I finally spoke up and said, “Look, I’ll make this easy. The other young lady was just a little better than my daughter.” After the announcement was made as to the winner, my daughter eventually made her way into my office. As she began to cry and remind me that she would be the first of her siblings not to be picked at this annual event, I reminded her that, first of all, I loved her and that I was very proud of her. I then tried my best to communicate to her that not everything turns out the way we hope and that dealing with disappointment is an incredible lesson to learn. I also had to tell her that my vote was the deciding vote and that I had to do the honorable thing and vote for who I thought had done the best. We laugh at that story today. My daughter is twenty now, an incredibly hard worker, and she takes on challenges and setbacks with great determination—and was picked to sing at Carnegie Hall last year!

So, land the helicopter and try to simply walk with your child for a while. Remember, great parents know that they occasionally have to say no to the tears of the moment so that they can say yes to the laughter of a lifetime.

TRANSFIGURATION MINISTRY OF PRAYER

We know that life can be challenging and the only thing that may help to get you back to center is Prayer. We believe very strongly in the power of Prayer. This belief and knowing comes from seeing or hearing about the many demonstrations or testimonies in the lives of people around the world.

At the end of weekend Masses the Transfiguration Ministry of Prayer will be in the front of the Church to pray for you or someone you love and care for.

Please know that each Minister of Transfiguration Ministry of Prayer commits to holding your intentions in the light of Christ, standing in Truth, Principle and Love. Prayer is the tool we use to know the truth. It is not about begging or pleading for something to happen to change the conditions in life. It is about aligning ourselves with the all good of God that surrounds us at all times.

Every request we receive is treated with love, compassion, respect and dignity.

Daily Mass Intentions are available for anyone who would like their intentions to be remembered at Mass. Intentions are available for those who have died or for someone who is living.

Stop by the Parish Office or call us to obtain a date and time.

MINISTERS OF CARE

Caring for one another...

Our church is a family and we consider our community a part of that family. We strive to care for and encourage those both within and beyond our walls. Our care ministry brings the Holy Eucharist to our people to hospital, nursing homes and family homes. By taking some time to bring the Holy Eucharist we show God's love and we assure our interest in their spiritual life.

Do you have a desire to bring Holy Communion to your neighbor?

IMPORTANT!! RELIGIOUS EDUCATION CLASS SESSION TIMES ARE CHANGING!!

Due to the change of Mass times, the session times for Saturday and Sunday Religious Education classes are changing!

In the past the Saturday Spanish First Communion level classes began at 5:00 PM and finished with the 6:30 Mass. Due to the Mass time changes, in September, SPANISH FIRST COMMUNION LEVEL CLASSES WILL BEGIN AT 4:30 PM AND END WITH THE 6:00 PM MASS. CHILDREN WILL BE RELEASED TO THEIR PARENTS AT THE CHURCH.

In the past, the Sunday English K-8th grade classes began with the 9:00 AM Mass and ended in the classroom at 11:15 AM. Due to the Mass time changes, in September, SUNDAY ENGLISH CLASSES WILL BEGIN AT 8:45 AM AND END WITH THE 10:00 AM MASS. CHILDREN WILL BE RELEASED TO THEIR PARENTS AT THE CHURCH.

Religious Education office hours for the fall will be determined soon.

Could you be a Catechist?

Catechists DO NOT need to be teachers. They DO NOT need to be theologians. They DO NOT even need to be a "church lady" (or man). They DO NOT need to have all the answers.

Catechists DO need to love Jesus Christ. They MUST want to share their faith with children. They MUST be prepared to have their own faith and love grow.

The School of Religion is looking for English speaking catechists on Wednesday afternoon/evening and Sunday mornings. Catechists are able to waive a portion of the Religious Education tuition for their children or grandchildren.

We provide lesson guides, mentoring, support and instruction both in person or online. If you feel you are being called, please call Mary at 847-526-6400 x 239. We have been praying for you to join us.

PRO-LIFE

Respect Life

"Before I formed you in the womb I knew you... before you were born I consecrated you..."
Jeremiah 1:4-10

Spiritually Adopted Baby – Week 18

Please pray that our baby, who is not yet born, will receive the gift of Life. As we follow our unborn baby to birth, this is what's going on in the womb during week 18.

"I heard a loud noise outside my mother's womb this week and jumped and even covered my ears to muffle the sound. Sometimes I just bump and kick just for fun. I need to get my muscles working and I get to tease my mom at the same time....what fun! Whenever I make a raucous, I always hear mom gathering more people around her to see what I am up to. I can't wait to see everyone. I wonder if I will have any brothers or sisters. Hope everyone is still praying for me."
Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much.
I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby whom I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion.
Amen.

ADMONISHING THE SINNER

Pray For Priests

Lord, Jesus
we ask you
to send more servants to your people.
Choose from our parishes,
from our homes,
from our schools and colleges,
an abundant harvest of apostles
for your Kingdom: priests, sisters,
brothers, deacons and lay ministers.
We pray that those you call may never lose awareness of the dignity and need of their vocation.

O Virgin Mary,
Mother of the Church,
teach to all those the Master calls
to say a joyful “yes”
as you did at the Annunciation.
Amen.
