TRANSFIGURATION OF THE LORD LITURGY OF THE WORD

READING I —EX16:24,12-15

The whole Israelite community grumbled against Moses and Aaron. The Israelites said to them, "Would that we had died at the LORD's hand in the land of Egypt, as we sat by our fleshpots and ate our fill of bread! But you had to lead us into this desert to make the whole community die of famine!" Then the LORD said to Moses, "I will now rain down bread from heaven for you. Each day the people are to go out and gather their daily portion; thus will I test them, to see whether they follow my instructions or not. "I have heard the grumbling of the Israelites. Tell them: In the evening twilight you shall eat flesh, and in the morning you shall have your fill of bread, so that you may know that I, the LORD, am your God." In the evening quail came up and covered the camp. In the morning a dew lay all about the camp, and when the dew evaporated, there on the surface of the desert were fine flakes like hoarfrost on the ground. On seeing it, the Israelites asked one another, "What is this?" for they did not know what it was. But Moses told them, "This is the bread that the LORD has given you to eat."

PSALM No. 34: Taste and See

READING II —EPH 4:17, 20-24

Brothers and sisters: I declare and testify in the Lord that you must no longer live as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their minds; that is not how you learned Christ, assuming that you have heard of him and were taught in him, as truth is in Jesus, that you should put away the old self of your former way of life, corrupted through deceitful desires, and be renewed in the spirit of your minds, and put on the new self, created in God's way in righteousness and holiness of truth.

GOSPEL

—JN 6:24-35

When the crowd saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they themselves got into boats and came to Capernaum looking for Jesus. And when they found him across the sea they said to him, "Rabbi, when did you get here?" Jesus answered them and said, "Amen, amen, I say to you, you are looking for me not because you saw signs but because you ate the loaves and were filled. Do not work for food that perishes but for the food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. For on him the Father, God, has set his seal." So they said to him, "What can we do to accomplish the works of God?" Jesus answered and said to them, "This is the work of God that you believe in the one he sent." So they said to him, "What sign can you do, that we may see and believe in you? What can you do? Our ancestors ate manna in the desert, as it is written: He gave them bread from heaven to eat." So Jesus said to them, "Amen, amen, I say to you, it was not Moses who gave the bread from heaven; my Father gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world." So they said to him, "Sir, give us this bread always." Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst."

MASS INTENTIONS: Daily Mass Intentions are available for parishioners who would like their intentions to be remembered at Mass. Intentions are available for those who have died or for someone who is living. Stop by the Parish Office or call us to obtain a date and time.

Stick together. Love each other, and together: Look to Jesus in Prayer.

THE TRANSFIGURATION EVENT IS NOT SIMPLY A MOMENT IN TIME; IT IS RE-OCCURRING IN OUR LIVES TOO.

In light of the Transfiguration feast and the Scriptures that are proclaimed, the obvious question to be asking is: "Have I allowed Jesus to be transfigured before my very eyes yet?"

This pre-Resurrection event is a glorious one indeed! For Jesus is in dialogue with Moses and Elijah, glowing with the Father's love. A Father who is well pleased with what his Son has already accomplished and with what he would soon accomplish – reuniting God's greatest creation, us, with the Father – through his death and Resurrection.

Allowing Jesus to be transfigured before our eyes means accepting, though never fully understanding, that Jesus is our Lord, our Savior, our Friend. To accomplish this, we must surrender to the Father.

For many, the word surrender carries negative connotations. It can be defined as "giving in" or "giving up." Some say it is the same as admitting defeat or capitulating our position. For Christians, however, giving in to God, capitulating to God, is neither giving up nor admitting defeat. It is submitting to a good that is greater than anything we can ever imagine.

For when we celebrate the Eucharist, Jesus is transfigured before our very eyes. In the miracle of bread and wine being transformed into the body, blood, soul and divinity of Jesus, we encounter the same one in whom the Father is well pleased. When we receive Jesus in Communion, we are, in a sense, on the mountaintop with him in all his glory, as this gives us a foretaste of Christ's transfiguration of our own bodies (CCC 1000). The proper response to the question of surrender, then, should be more than just a simple yes. It calls for an enthusiastic Amen --- so be it – we must say!

If Amen is not our enthusiastic response, then the Transfiguration of Jesus proclaimed in today's Gospel falls upon deaf ears. Worse yet, we walk away unchanged. This is because, every time we receive Jesus in the Eucharist we are being called to transformation, called to change, called to renewal.

Our temptation is not unlike Peter's in that Gospel. It would be much easier for us to want to simply pitch our tents here and stay where we are. But it is the responsibility of every disciple to bring others to know the glory of Jesus dwelling within them, whether they realize it or not. Let us not shy away from those holy moments when they come our way – to invite someone to come and know Jesus – and to promise them that we will walk with them on their journey in faith.

THE HEART OF THE MATTER: TIME FOR REFLECTION AND SPIRITUAL GROWTH

1. The obvious question to be asking is: "Have I allowed Jesus to be transfigured before my very eyes yet?"
2. What would it be like for you to hear God speaking directly to you in an audible voice?
3. What is your reaction in knowing that Jesus chose to die willingly for your sin?
4. Describe a time when you felt God's presence. What was that like for you?
5. When have you been afraid of God's presence?

TAKE SOME TIME NOW TO PRAY AND ASK JESUS FOR THE GRACE AND POWER TO RECEIVE A GLIMPSE OF HIS GLORY AS THE BELOVED SON OF HIS HEAVENLY FATHER.

5 Ways to Be Happier about the Way You Look

We live in an appearance-driven culture where it can be hard to be at peace with how we look. When you're constantly bombarded with visual messages of what physical beauty is supposed to look like, it is easy to feel insecure and negative about your appearance. Here are five ways you can be happier about the way you look.

1. DEVELOP SELF-ACCEPTANCE

Instead of focusing on all the things you don't like about your appearance, turn your attention to what you do like, such as your great smile, rosy cheeks, soft curls, or long and graceful fingers. Then focus on all the positive things you like about yourself that are not related to how you look—your personality traits, talents, accomplishments, etc. Write them down. By shifting your attention to everything you like about yourself, you'll shift your mindset from a negative, critical one to a positive, grateful one.

2. FOCUS ON BEING HEALTHY

If you focus on being your healthiest self, you will be much happier with how you look. When we're at our healthiest, we look and feel our best. One of the benefits of taking care of yourself, staying fit, and eating nutritiously, is that you end up looking more radiant. Exercise and eating well gives you more energy, helps you lose weight, tones your muscles, nourishes your skin, and affects your entire sense of well-being. If you focus on being your healthiest self, you will be much happier with how you look.

3. BE GRATEFUL FOR AGING

It happens to all of us—we get older, our bodies change, lines and wrinkles appear. But adjusting your view about aging can make a huge difference in your happiness as you go through life. Aging is actually a privilege, and every birthday that rolls around can be an opportunity to be grateful for another year to be alive, learn, and grow. Instead of stressing over every sign of aging, look at each new wrinkle as a sign of the life experience and wisdom you are called to celebrate and share with others. “Be gentle with yourself. You are a marvelous creation, but you are a work in progress.”

4. DEFINE YOURSELF DIFFERENTLY

One of the best ways to be happier with how you look is to define yourself by more important things, such as your character, your talents, and your relationships. If you feel like you still need to live up to your high school reputation of being “the pretty one,” you'll miss out on what makes you truly beautiful now—those lasting qualities that draw us to each other and make a deep impact on others.

5. SPEND TIME WITH AFFIRMING FRIENDS

All of us need friends who affirm us in who we are, who share our concerns and burdens while remaining hopeful and encouraging. Good friends lift each other up and point to what's most important in life. If you've got a friend who loves your haircut but is even more interested in what you're thinking about and reading, you've got a keeper. A great friend helps you feel great about all of who you are.

By employing these five strategies, you'll be on your way to feeling much happier about the truly beautiful person you are, inside and out.

RESPECT LIFE NEWS -- SPIRITUAL ADOPTION

"Before I formed you in the womb
I knew you... before you were born
I consecrated you"

Jeremiah 1:4-10

We ask that you spiritually adopt an unborn child. This is done by praying for one particular, but unknown child; that he or she is allowed the gift of life.

Respect Life Spiritually Adopted Baby Week 20

Please pray that our baby, who is not yet born, will receive the gift of Life. As we follow our unborn baby to birth, this is what's going on in the womb during week 20.

"Before I formed you in the womb I knew you...before you were born I consecrated you..." Jeremiah 1:4-10

Please pray that our baby, who is not yet born, will receive the gift of Life. As we follow our unborn baby to birth, this is what's going on in the womb during week 20.

"This is the half way point! I can't believe that I am going to be born in only 20 more weeks! I am half as long as I will be at birth (that's about 10 inches) but only weigh about 12% of what I will weigh on my birthday. I still have a lot of growing to do. My muscles are getting stronger everyday. I can do all sorts of acrobatic moves in here. You should see me! Isn't it amazing to know that there has never been anyone like me before and there never will be another 'me' again? Please pray for me, God's miracle."

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much.

I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby whom I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion.

Who Would WANT to be a Catechist?

Featuring: Flor
Orozco

I am a catechist because God called me to be His instrument and to share His teachings with the children. He wants me to show the children the love He feels for us, and to teach how to love unconditionally, making Him our center of attention for everything that we do here on earth, working happily in our community.

The School of Religion is very grateful to Flor Orozco and our many catechists and aides for their service. It takes many hands and a great deal of faith to bring Jesus Christ to our children. Won't you consider being a part of God's team? Please pray on it and call Mary at 847-526-6400 x239 for more information.

MINISTERS OF CARE

Caring for one another...

Our church is a family and we consider our community a part of that family. We strive to care for and encourage those both within and beyond our walls. Our care ministry brings the Eucharist to our people to hospital, nursing homes and family homes. By taking some time to extend a helping hand we can show God's love and we assure our interest in their welfare and spiritual life.

Have a desire to help care for your neighbor?
