TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
LITURGY OF THE WORD

READING I — —IS 53:10-11

The LORD was pleased to crush him in infirmity. If he gives his life as an offering for sin, he shall see his descendants in a long life, and the will of the LORD shall be accomplished through him. Because of his affliction he shall see the light in fullness of days; through his suffering, my servant shall justify many, and their guilt he shall bear.

PSALM No. 33 Let Your Mercy Be on Us

READING II — —HEB 4:14-16

Brothers and sisters:

Since we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who has similarly been tested in every way, yet without sin. So let us confidently approach the throne of grace to receive mercy and to find grace for timely help.

MASS INTENTIONS: Daily Mass Intentions are available for parishioners who would like their intentions to be remembered at Mass. Intentions are available for those who have died or for someone who is living. Stop by the Parish Office or call us to obtain a date and time.

GOSPEL

—MK 10:35-45

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to Jesus and said to him, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you." He replied, "What do you wish me to do for you?" They answered him, "Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left." Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking. Can you drink the cup that I drink or be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized?" They said to him, "We can." Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink, you will drink, and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; but to sit at my right or at my left is not mine to give but is for those for whom it has been prepared." When the ten heard this, they became indignant at James and John. Jesus summoned them and said to them, "You know that those who are recognized as rulers over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones make their authority over them felt. But it shall not be so among you. Rather, whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many."

Stick together. Love each other, and together: Look to Jesus in Prayer.

IN THE KINGDOM OF GOD, EVEN SUFFERING CAN HAVE A NEW PURPOSE AND MEANING.

Our reading from Isaiah's Songs of the Suffering Servant, while short, can often be easily overlooked as we rush to comment on the somewhat audacious and self-centered demands of the disciples in the Gospel. But Isaiah actually sets the scene for the Gospel passage by addressing the question of human suffering. As people of faith, suffering seems to go against our basic image of God as loving and caring, and in the face of the many expressions of suffering we are often left with the question – how could God let this happen?

Throughout history, many philosophers have attempted to answer this thorny question; for some, suffering is a divine punishment, for others a test or an opportunity to strengthen faith or to show heroic virtue or fidelity. Yet in the end, it remains a mystery – beyond our comprehension. As Christians, we often seek an explanation from Scripture. Isaiah tells us that the Lord was pleased to crush him in infirmity, and Hebrews tells us that Jesus was similarly ... tested in every way. At first glance neither sounds helpful, but when we look again through the eyes of faith, we see that these words are not simply meant to explain suffering, but to help us realize that even in suffering there can be good.

The suffering of the Servant is not without purpose or meaning, for the prophet tells us that through suffering he shall justify many. The term justification is central here. It's a term that implies that one has been acquitted and restored to right relationship with God, and that another has paid the price. Christ, in his suffering, has paid the price so that we can confidently approach the throne of grace to receive mercy and to find grace for timely help.

Discovering meaning in suffering is also an element in today's Gospel passage. Having basked in the glory and fame of Jesus, the disciples want a little more – a place of status and glory in the kingdom. What they are surprised to hear is that authority and leadership in the kingdom is not about glory but about self-giving – even to the point of suffering and possibly one's death. Clearly this is a reversal of their world view.

So if discipleship and authority have a new meaning in the kingdom, is it too much to conclude that suffering, too, may have a new meaning? While it cannot be avoided or even fully explained, we can begin to use it for a greater purpose: we can learn from it and, as people of faith, join our suffering to those of the Suffering Servant whom we now recognize as Christ. Perhaps, then, our sufferings might not seem so inscrutable or meaningless. Perhaps, then, we might become Christ to others – an image of the Servant in the midst of our world. What gives us final hope is that not only did Christ experience suffering, as we do, but he ultimately overcame it in the Resurrection. Our hope is that we now can share in that triumph.

THE HEART OF THE MATTER: TIME FOR REFLECTION AND SPIRITUAL GROWTH

1. Pain can be very consuming, affecting how we look and feel about everything. What kind of pain affects your life the most, physical or emotional?
2. What is the worst pain you've ever experienced? What helped you endure that pain?
3. Sometimes short-term pain can bring about long-term joy and peace. Have you ever felt like the pain you went through was worth it because of the end result?
4. Are you willing to endure short-term trials, knowing that there is long-term joy coming in the future?

We need to live differently than the world around us so we can be the people of God and live the kind of life that makes a difference and honors God.

RESPECT LIFE NEWS -- SPIRITUAL ADOPTION

"Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you... before you were born I consecrated you"
Jeremiah 1:4-10

Respect Life Spiritually Adopted Baby – Week 31

Please pray that our baby, who is not yet born, will receive the gift of Life. As we follow our unborn baby to birth, this is what's going on in the womb during week 31.

"I finally made my move this week and turned my body over. It was tough, but I did it! It is important that I am upside down now so that when the time comes for me to make my entrance into the world I'll be ready to go. My lungs have started to secrete a liquid that will help my lungs fully expand when I take my first breath of air. I can't WAIT for my birthday. Please keep praying for me."

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much.
I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby whom I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion.

Bathroom: toilet paper, wash cloth, plunger, toilet bowl cleaner, toilet brush, bath towels, shower curtain

Miscellaneous: smoke detector battery, flashlight with batteries, wall calendar, appointment book, garbage bags, laundry basket, hamper, laundry detergent, aluminum foil, diapers, light bulbs

These Move-In Essentials provide a Veteran exiting homelessness with the basics needed as they transition to their new, permanent residence.

These items are needed on a continuing basis.

Transfiguration manages the PADS site at Messiah Lutheran here in Wauconda each 3rd weekend of the month October through April.

Donations: We are putting a PADS donation board out again this year with tags listing the things the men need (remember, no women or children are at our site). Look for it in Gathering Place. Pull a tag and drop the item in that PADS box in the Gathering Place. We'll put it right into the hands of the people who need it most! - Each year we gather monetary donations to purchase whatever our clients need during "Black Friday" sales (Nov 23).
