Which is the first of all the commandments?

Parish Mission Statement

We are people called to build a Catholic Faith Community by seeking Christ and sharing His Gospel through Prayer, Education, Service and Social Activities.

"The first is this: Hear, O Israel! The Lord our God is Lord alone! THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME LITURGY OF THE WORD

READING I

—DT 6:2-6

Moses spoke to the people, saying:

"Fear the LORD, your God, and keep, throughout the days of your lives, all his statutes and commandments which I enjoin on you, and thus have long life. Hear then, Israel, and be careful to observe them, that you may grow and prosper the more, in keeping with the promise of the LORD, the God of your fathers, to give you a land flowing with milk and honey.

"Hear, O Israel! The LORD is our God, the LORD alone! Therefore, you shall love the LORD, your God, with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength. Take to heart these words which I enjoin on you today."

PSALM No. 147

Bless the Lord,
My Soul

READING II

—HEB 7:23-28

Brothers and sisters:

The levitical priests were many because they were prevented by death from remaining in office, but Jesus, because he remains forever, has a priesthood that does not pass away. Therefore, he is always able to save those who approach God through him, since he lives forever to make intercession for them. It was fitting that we should have such a high priest: holy, innocent, undefiled, separated from sinners, higher than the heavens. He has no need, as did the high priests, to offer sacrifice day after day, first for his own sins and then for those of the people; he did that once for all when he offered himself. For the law appoints men subject to weakness to be high priests, but the word of the oath, which was taken after the law, appoints a son, who has been made perfect forever.

GOSPEL

—MK 12:28B-34

One of the scribes came to Jesus and asked him, "Which is the first of all the commandments?"

Jesus replied, "The first is this:

Hear, O Israel! The Lord our God is Lord alone! You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.

The second is this:

You shall love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these."

The scribe said to him, "Well said, teacher. You are right in saying, 'He is One and there is no other than he.' And 'to love him with all your heart, with all your understanding, with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself' is worth more than all burnt offerings and sacrifices." And when Jesus saw that he answered with understanding, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." And no one dared to ask him any more questions.

Stick together. Love each other, and together: Look to Jesus in Prayer.

WE ARE COMMANDED FIRST TO LOVE GOD WITH ALL THAT WE ARE AND THEN TO LOVE OUR NEIGHBOR AS OURSELVES.

There is a lot of love in today's readings. In the first reading, Moses tells God's people to love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength. The second reading reminds us that Jesus gave himself as the perfect sacrifice for all of us – the ultimate sign of love. The responsorial psalm repeats, I love you, Lord, my strength. And in the Gospel, Jesus adds a new commandment, Love your neighbor as yourself.

God's love is unconditional. God does not expect us to be perfect in order to earn his love. He freely gives it in spite of our faults, our imperfections, weaknesses and sinfulness. But God commands that we do the same. He calls us to put him first in our lives, before our worldly goods, our ambitions and all that consumes our daily lives.

But for today, let's spend a few minutes giving some extra attention to that other commandment to love our neighbor as ourselves.

On the surface, this seems an easy message to understand and to practice in our daily lives, but deeper reflection challenges us to rethink this.

Love your neighbor as yourself is not a suggestion; it is a command. To be true followers of Christ requires that we live out this command. The challenge comes when we answer the question, "Who is our neighbor?"

This is not a geographical question, but a theological one. Every human being is our neighbor, by virtue of being made in God's image. Because in the end, it comes down to this: "love the 'unlovable.'" Love those who are hard to love, those who have hurt us and those we just don't like very much. Clearly, loving is not always easy. It requires forgiveness. It demands putting aside judgments, and it forces us to reach beyond our own wants and needs to put others first. Sometimes, it is so hard that it requires grace and prayer, and God's guidance and intervention. But God's abundant strength empowers us, and he will give us all we need to love others, even when it is challenging and difficult.

THE HEART OF THE MATTER: TIME FOR REFLECTION AND SPIRITUAL GROWTH

1. Which is the first of all the commandments?
2. Why do you think God began the Ten Commandments by saying, "You shall have no other God's before me?"
3. Why did God command that man have no other gods before Him?
4. What kind of relationship does He want with you and all people?
5. Why can't I alone direct my own steps?

WHOEVER LOVES ME WILL KEEP MY WORD, SAYS THE LORD; AND MY FATHER WILL LOVE HIM AND WE WILL COME TO HIM.

Litany of Humility

O Jesus! meek and humble of heart,
Hear me.

From the desire of being esteemed,
From the desire of being loved,
From the desire of being extolled,
From the desire of being honored,
From the desire of being praised,
From the desire of being preferred to others,
From the desire of being consulted,
From the desire of being approved,
From the fear of being humiliated,
From the fear of being despised,
From the fear of suffering rebukes,
From the fear of being calumniated,
From the fear of being forgotten,
From the fear of being ridiculed,
From the fear of being wronged,
From the fear of being suspected,

That others may be loved more than I,
That others may be esteemed more than I,
That, in the opinion of the world, others may increase and I may decrease,
That others may be chosen and I set aside,
That others may be praised and I unnoticed,
That others may be preferred to me in everything,
That others may become holier than I, provided that I may become as holy as I should,

Deliver
me,
Jesus.

Jesus, grant me the grace
to desire it.

MINISTERS OF CARE

Caring for one another...

Our church is a family and we consider our community a part of that family. We strive to care for and encourage those both within and beyond our walls. Our care ministry brings the Holy Eucharist to our people to hospital, nursing homes and family homes. By taking some time to bring the Holy Eucharist we show God's love and we assure our interest in their spiritual life.

Have a desire to help care for your neighbor?

Contact Jim Fijalkiewicz: (847) 526-7101 or Ellen Sherwin: (847) 254-4782 to see how you can help out.

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION

before you were born I consecrated you"
Jeremiah 1:4-10

Respect Life Spiritually Adopted Baby – Week 33

Please pray that our baby, who is not yet born, will receive the gift of Life. As we follow our unborn baby to birth, this is what's going on in the womb during week 33.

"Mommy and I are getting near the end of the time that we are joined together through the umbilical cord. Even though she is keeping me safe and nourishing my body, I am still completely separate from her. I am my own unique person. I have my own blood which is completely separate from hers. (We might not even be blood-type compatible!) Soon enough, I will emerge from my home here in the womb and think and feel and laugh and love. Please pray for me."

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby whom I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion.
