THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
LITURGY OF THE WORD

READING I — DN 12:1-3

In those days, I Daniel, heard this word of the Lord: "At that time there shall arise Michael, the great prince, guardian of your people; it shall be a time unsurpassed in distress since nations began until that time. At that time your people shall escape, everyone who is found written in the book. "Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake; some shall live forever, others shall be an everlasting horror and disgrace. "But the wise shall shine brightly like the splendor of the firmament, and those who lead the many to justice shall be like the stars forever."

PSALM No. 16 You Will Show Me the Path of Life

READING II — HEB 10:11-14,18

Brothers and sisters:
Every priest stands daily at his ministry, offering frequently those same sacrifices that can never take away sins. But this one offered one sacrifice for sins, and took his seat forever at the right hand of God; now he waits until his enemies are made his footstool. For by one offering he has made perfect forever those who are being consecrated. Where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer offering for sin.

MASS INTENTIONS: Daily Mass Intentions are available for parishioners who would like their intentions to be remembered at Mass. Intentions are available for those who have died or for someone who is living. Stop by the Parish Office or call us to obtain a date and time.

GOSPEL — MK 13:24-32

Jesus said to his disciples:
"In those days after that tribulation the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will be falling from the sky, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. "And then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in the clouds' with great power and glory, and then he will send out the angels and gather his elect from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the end of the sky.
"Learn a lesson from the fig tree. When its branch becomes tender and sprouts leaves, you know that summer is near. In the same way, when you see these things happening, know that he is near, at the gates. Amen, I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. "But of that day or hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father."

BY HIS CROSS, JESUS HAS REDEEMED THE WORLD.

As we draw near the end of the liturgical year, we notice that the readings at Mass seem to focus on events that will occur at the end of time.

In our first reading today, written at the time of the Babylonian Exile, more than five hundred years before the birth of Jesus, the prophet Daniel speaks of salvation and damnation. In a time of war and enslavement, Daniel's vision spoke of the ultimate triumph of good over evil, and light over darkness – a feat we know to be accomplished in and by Jesus Christ, both on earth and in heaven.

Similarly, Jesus in Mark's Gospel refers to the end of time when the Son of Man comes in the clouds with great power and glory. Of that day or hour, no one knows, Jesus said. However, with Jesus' image of the sprouting leaves on the fig tree, his very presence in the world was a powerful sign that the Day of the Lord is always at hand, summoning us to live in right relationship with God and each other. Perhaps if we knew the day of our death or the moment of Christ's return, we might procrastinate and delay living the life of faith and throwing off the old ways of sin.

Jesus has left us instead in a healthy state of suspense, where the anticipation of his return suggests that we should be living the corporal and spiritual works of mercy every day, so that we might be found prepared upon his return.

The Letter to the Hebrews captures these mysteries perfectly, reminding us how in the Mass, we see memorialized the one offering by which Christ has made perfect those who are being consecrated. As we prepare to celebrate the end of the liturgical year next Sunday, and the beginning of a new one with the coming Advent Season, let us be mindful that heaven and earth will pass away but the saving words of the Lord will endure forever.

THE HEART OF THE MATTER: TIME FOR REFLECTION AND SPIRITUAL GROWTH

1. Do you ever think about the second coming of Christ?
2. What emotion do you experience when you do?
3. How can we be prepared for Christ's return?
4. What specifically can you commit to doing differently that would give you peace of mind about it?

30 Ways to Reduce Stress — Right Now (Part Two)

16. SAY NO TO SOMETHING: Few things in life are more empowering than saying no. You probably have some outstanding invitations or requests or obligations filling your calendar or email inbox. Take a moment right now, and tell your colleague you can't make the happy hour this Thursday, or your neighbor's book club tomorrow night, or whatever it is.

17. PUT ON A GOOD-VIBES SONG: Don't worry, I won't judge. If you want to do the "Single Ladies" dance alone in your office or have a good cry to "The Christmas Shoes," that's just fine with me. Put on something that makes you feel good, and immerse yourself in the tune for just a few minutes.

18. DO TEN JUMPING JACKS, TEN SIT-UPS, AND TEN PUSH-UPS: Who cares if your cubicle mates think you're weird? Who cares if you can only do six? It's even better if you feel a little silly doing it. A quick little workout will release some endorphins, and feeling a little whimsical doesn't hurt either.

19. PRAY THE SERENITY PRAYER: God, grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, the courage to change the things I can, and the wisdom to know the difference. It's worked for millions of alcoholics; it will likely work for your stress, too.

20. HAVE A HEALTHY SNACK: Or a small snack. Find something to munch on. Carrot sticks, or an apple. A small bag of nuts. Don't have anything healthy? Just one piece of chocolate is okay.

21. SPEND FIVE MINUTES LEARNING SOMETHING: Download Duolingo, and spend five minutes completing a couple of lessons. You'll feel smart and the accomplishment will make you feel good.

22. USE A MEDITATION APP: Headspace is great, but there are others just like it. A quick guided meditation just might help you clear your mind and escape the whirlwind of stress.

23. DOODLE: Take five minutes and do some doodling. It will get your mind off things. Pick something around you and try to recreate it on paper. Or just imagine something and get creative. Or get weird and go abstract. Recall a great memory. Close your eyes, and immerse yourself in the memory. Re-live it.

24. WRITE DOWN THREE SELF-AFFIRMATIONS: I'm talented and skilled at my work. I love others, and I'm loved by others. I have value and deserve good things. Or anything else you need to hear. Write them down.

25. LISTEN TO CLASSICAL MUSIC: Google "Yo-Yo Ma" playing the cello. It's soothing.

26. WASH YOUR HANDS AND FACE: Give your hands and face a good scrub with soap and hot water. Rinse, and repeat. Take time with it. Really get in there. Wash away the stress. It will refresh you and wake you up.

27. RECALL A GREAT MEMORY: The best vacation you ever took. Your wedding day. The day your kids were born. That time you went bungee jumping. The night the Cubs finally won the World Series. Doesn't matter what it is. Close your eyes, and immerse yourself in the memory. Re-live it.

28. SQUEEZE SOMETHING: Don't have a stress ball? Turn that book into a stress book, or that pen into a stress pen. Give it ten good squeezes. Squeeze as hard as you can, counting to three. Let go, relax, and repeat. Ten times.

29. WRITE DOWN TEN DREAMS: Dreaming brings us back to life. Grab a piece of paper and write down ten dreams for your life. Remind yourself that you have bigger and better things in store for yourself than whatever you're going through right now.

30. WRITE A THANK YOU NOTE: Email or handwritten. Send it or don't—but if you do, it'll brighten your day knowing you are brightening someone else's.

When you're feeling stressed, you need something that's going to help you right now. Try one—or a couple—of the ideas above and watch the stress ease up. Let us know in the comments which ones work for you, and any other ideas you have for a right-now stress solution. Here's to a more stress-free you!

MINISTERS OF CARE

Caring for one another...

Our church is a family and we consider our community a part of that family. We strive to care for and encourage those both within and beyond our walls. Our care ministry brings the Holy Eucharist to our people to hospital, nursing homes and family homes. By taking some time to bring the Holy Eucharist we show God's love and we assure our interest in their spiritual life.

Have a desire to help care for your neighbor?

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION

“Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you... before you were born I consecrated you”
Jeremiah 1:4-10

Respect Life Spiritually Adopted Baby – Week 35

Please pray that our baby, who is not yet born, will receive the gift of Life. As we follow our unborn baby to birth, this is what's going on in the womb during week 35.

“It seems that I just keep getting chubbier as the days go by. I need to store up a layer of fat under my skin in order to help my body regulate its temperature once I leave my mother's womb. I am cute and round just like a cherub. I'll bet once I'm born everyone will say that I look like an angel. I must admit – I am so adorable! Some of the tiny hairs that have covered my body are starting to disappear. I guess by the time I leave this place I will have a beautifully soft 'birthday suit'! I can't wait to show it off! Please pray for me.”

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby whom I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion.

PADS LAKE COUNTY Helping the Homeless Find a Way

Transfiguration manages the PADS site at Messiah Lutheran here in Wauconda each 3rd weekend of the month October through April.

Donations: We are putting a PADS donation board out again this year with tags listing the things the men need (remember, no women or children are at our site). Look for it in Gathering Place. Pull a tag and drop the item in that PADS box in the Gathering Place. We'll put it right into the hands of the people who need it most! - Each year we gather monetary donations to purchase whatever our clients need during "Black Friday" sales (Nov 23).
