"WE BELIEVE"

In this time of desperation
When all we know is doubt and fear
There is only one foundation
We believe, we believe
In this broken generation
When all is dark, You help us see
There is only one salvation
We believe, we believe

WE BELIEVE IN GOD THE FATHER
WE BELIEVE IN JESUS CHRIST
WE BELIEVE IN THE HOLY SPIRIT
AND HE'S GIVEN US NEW LIFE
WE BELIEVE IN THE CRUCIFIXION
WE BELIEVE THAT HE CONQUERED DEATH
WE BELIEVE IN THE RESURRECTION
AND HE'S COMIN' BACK AGAIN, WE BELIEVE

So, let our faith be more than anthems
Greater than the songs we sing
And in our weakness and temptations
We believe, we believe!

WE BELIEVE IN GOD THE FATHER!
WE BELIEVE IN JESUS CHRIST!
WE BELIEVE IN THE HOLY SPIRIT!
AND HE'S GIVEN US NEW LIFE!
WE BELIEVE IN THE CRUCIFIXION!
WE BELIEVE THAT HE CONQUERED DEATH!
WE BELIEVE IN THE RESURRECTION!
AND HE'S COMIN' BACK AGAIN!

Let the lost be found and the dead be raised!
In the here and now, let love invade!
Let the church live loud, our God we'll say
We believe, we believe!
And the gates of hell will not prevail!
For the power of God, has torn the veil!
Now we know Your love will never fail!
We believe, we believe!

WE BELIEVE IN GOD THE FATHER
WE BELIEVE IN JESUS CHRIST
WE BELIEVE IN THE HOLY SPIRIT
AND HE'S GIVEN US NEW LIFE!
WE BELIEVE IN THE CRUCIFIXION!

SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT LITURGY OF THE WORD

READING I — GN 15:5-12,17-18

The Lord God took Abram outside and said, "Look up at the sky and count the stars, if you can. Just so," he added, "shall your descendants be." Abram put his faith in the LORD, who credited it to him as an act of righteousness. He then said to him, "I am the LORD who brought you from Ur of the Chaldeans to give you this land as a possession." "O Lord GOD," he asked, "how am I to know that I shall possess it?" He answered him, "Bring me a three-year-old heifer, a three-year-old she-goat, a three-year-old ram, a turtledove, and a young pigeon." Abram brought him all these, split them in two, and placed each half opposite the other; but the birds he did not cut up. Birds of prey swooped down on the carcasses, but Abram stayed with them. As the sun was about to set, a trance fell upon Abram, and a deep, terrifying darkness enveloped him. When the sun had set and it was dark, there appeared a smoking fire pot and a flaming torch, which passed between those pieces. It was on that occasion that the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying: "To your descendants I give this land, from the Wadi of Egypt to the Great River, the Euphrates."

PSALM 27: The Lord is My Light #29

READING II — PHIL 3:17—4:1

Join with others in being imitators of me, brothers and sisters, and observe those who thus conduct themselves according to the model you have in us. For many, as I have often told you and now tell you even in tears, conduct themselves as enemies of the cross of Christ. Their end is destruction. Their God is their stomach; their glory is in their "shame." Their minds are occupied with earthly things. But our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we also await a savior, the Lord Jesus Christ. He will change our lowly body to conform with his glorified body by the power that enables him also to bring all things into subjection to himself. Therefore, my brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, in this way stand firm in the Lord.

MASS INTENTIONS: Daily Mass Intentions are available for parishioners who would like their intentions to be remembered at Mass. Intentions are available for those who have died or for someone who is living. Stop by the Parish Office or call us to obtain a date and time.

GOSPEL

— LK 9:28B-36

Jesus took Peter, John, and James and went up the mountain to pray. While he was praying his face changed in appearance and his clothing became dazzling white. And behold, two men were conversing with him, Moses and Elijah, who appeared in glory and spoke of his exodus that he was going to accomplish in Jerusalem. Peter and his companions had been overcome by sleep, but becoming fully awake, they saw his glory and the two men standing with him. As they were about to part from him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good that we are here; let us make three tents, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." But he did not know what he was saying. While he was still speaking, a cloud came and cast a shadow over them, and they became frightened when they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my chosen Son; listen to him." After the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. They fell silent and did not at that time tell anyone what they had seen.

LENT

A TIME OF REPENTANCE, GRACE & RENEWAL

“Jesus took Peter, John, and James and went up the mountain to pray... Lord, it is good that we are here...”

One of the chief characteristics of Jesus' life is his commitment to prayer. At every key moment from baptism to death, Jesus shows himself as a man of prayer. As disciples, we, too, are called to be people of prayer, so this might be a good moment for us to review our life of prayer.

Like all relationships, our relationship with God takes time and effort – time to talk, share our lives and get to know him in all his glory and life-changing power. And just as God wants us to share our needs, he also asks that we stop and listen to his word.

With all this in mind, we read today Luke's account of the transfiguration. At first glance, it might seem an odd selection for Lent: why not a Gospel on healing or mercy? But this is no arbitrary choice; it is chosen to encourage and strengthen us as we undertake our Lenten practices, and to remind us that through them we hope to share in the glory of God, glimpsed here in Christ on the mountaintop. Lenten practices by themselves are meaningless if they do not have this greater meaning; indeed the whole Lenten season is without purpose if it does not ultimately lead to the glory of Easter.

Luke's account follows the other synoptic Gospels: Jesus leads his disciples up the mountain to pray. Suddenly, they are witnesses to something new as the glory of God shines through his humanity, and the prophets Moses and Elijah appear in conversation with him.

These, too, were mountain men who in times of struggle sought solace in the high peaks. There they encountered God and were renewed and strengthened in their mission.

Glimpsing Jesus' glory, Peter begins to panic, and as so often happens in the face of what is new and unsettling, he falls back onto what is familiar and less threatening. His suggestion for three tents shows how much he has yet to learn about Jesus.

But from the cloud that covers the mountain comes the Father's voice: This is my chosen Son, listen to him. Here is the true purpose of this theophany, this “God-reveal”: Jesus is more than just another prophet, he is God's chosen Son. Here are words that all must hear and accept if they are to be transformed and changed.

In the darkness of our sometimes sinful world, we need to hear these words again. We, too, must be willing to climb the mountain and to experience the glory of God. We need to hear again the words of the Father as Jesus is revealed as the one who speaks on his behalf and is worthy of our attention and obedience.

This Lent ought to signal a transfiguration in our hearts and communities. For as Peter said, it is good that we are here, it is indeed good that we are here today, for it is only when we are present to the Lord that we can be open to his word and to the glory he desires to share with us.

THE HEART OF THE MATTER: TIME FOR REFLECTION AND SPIRITUAL GROWTH

1. What exactly is prayer?
2. Do I have to get on my knees or close my eyes to pray?
3. Are we required to pray?
4. Should we pray, to the Father, to the Son, or to the Holy Spirit?
5. Are there prayers that God refuses to hear?
6. Is it acceptable to repeatedly pray for the same thing?
7. What does it mean to pray in Jesus' name?

Prayer opens our hearts to the life-changing power of the risen and glorified Lord.

*"I am the Lord who brought you from Ur of the Chaldeans to give you this land as a possession."
GENESIS 15:7*

Just as the Lord gave Abraham, Moses and the Israelites a land to possess, He has also given each of us a home. Whether your home is grand or humble, it is a gift from God. Abraham prepared a great sacrifice to the Lord in gratitude for the home God gave him. How do you show your gratitude to God for the home He has given you? Do you make a sacrifice of any kind? Do you return any of your finances to God, investing equally in your eternal home just as you invest in your earthly home?

*"Y le dijo: «Yo soy Yahveh que te saqué de Ur de los caldeos, para darte esta tierra en propiedad.»"
Génesis 15: 7*

Así como el Señor le dio a Abraham, a Moisés y a los israelitas una tierra que poseer, Él también nos ha dado a cada uno de nosotros un hogar. Ya sea que tu hogar sea grande o humilde, es un regalo de Dios. Abraham preparó un gran sacrificio al Señor en gratitud por el hogar que Dios le dio. ¿Cómo demuestras tu gratitud a Dios por el hogar que Él te ha dado? ¿Haces un sacrificio de algún tipo? ¿Reintegras algo de tus ganancias a Dios, invirtiendo igualmente en tu hogar eterno, así como inviertes en tu hogar terrenal?

LIVE YOUR BEST LENT

PRAY FOR TRANSFORMATION THIS LENT

Most people have never prayed a prayer of transformation. Too often when we pray, we pray for tweaking. We want God to tweak this and tweak that.

Let's be honest. We don't necessarily want our lives transformed. Transformation may seem attractive in a moment of blissfully holy idealistic exuberance or at a moment of crisis, but the everyday reality is we like to distance ourselves from the inner work required to bring about such a transformation.

Sure, we want some tweaking, but not transformation. This desire for tweaking is selective and selfish, while transformation is total and selfless.

We pray for tweaking—and then we wonder why God doesn't answer our prayers. The reason is simple: God is not interested in tweaking. God is in the business of transformation. He wants to turn your life upside down, which as it turns out is right side up. If you want to see something incredible, start praying for transformation. That's a prayer God will answer.

Lenten Prayer for Transformation

Loving Father, I invite you into my life today and make myself available to you. Help me to become the-best-version-of-myself by seeking your will and becoming a living example of your love in the world. Open my heart to the areas of my life that need to change in order for me to carry out the mission and experience the joy you have imagined for my life. Inspire me to live the Catholic faith in ways that are dynamic and engaging. Show me how to best get involved in the life of my parish. Make our community hungry for best practices and continuous learning. Give me courage when I am afraid, hope when I am discouraged, and clarity in times of decision. Teach me to enjoy uncertainty and lead your Church to become all you imagined it would be for the people of our times. Amen.

Lenten Prayer for Sundays during Lent

Heavenly Father, as I enter another week of my Lenten journey, guide me to the path that leads to you. Fill my heart with gratitude, patience, strength, and peace as I strive to become the-best-version-of-myself, honestly admitting my shortcomings and sins. As I renew my resolve each day to become a better person, let me hear your voice in the deepest reaches of my heart. Give me rest in you. Help me to accept others, showing them your great love instead of casting judgment. Stay with me through the busy days this week and remind me that when I need comfort, solitude, wisdom, or guidance, I can always turn to you. Help me develop discipline and generosity through fasting and almsgiving, and come closer to you through prayer this Lent. In your name I pray, Amen.

Lenten Prayer for Holy Thursday

Jesus, in these last few days leading up to Easter, as I recall your passion and death, let me remember that, above all, I am called to feed your sheep. You have given me a model of how to live; may I strive to be all that you created me for, spreading the love of God and the truth of our Catholic faith wherever I am able. You are the way, the truth, and the life. Amen.

Lenten Prayer for Good Friday

Jesus, no one knows change better than you. You died on the cross, and three days later you rose from the dead. Forty days later you ascended into heaven and left the world transformed for the rest of time. Help me to transform my soul, to die to sin and death and be reborn in your love and eternal life. Amen.

Lenten Prayer for Holy Saturday

Jesus, you are courage incarnate. As you hung on the cross for my sins and the sins of the world, you showed me that all things are possible. You knew that life did not end on the cross. It was only the beginning of a new and glorious eternal life. Amen.

Lenten Prayer for Easter

Almighty Father, I thank you for the gift of your son, Jesus Christ, who rose from the dead and redeemed humankind. Fill us with the fire of the Holy Spirit, that we may be faithful disciples and enthusiastic witnesses of our Catholic faith. Alleluia, Christ is risen! He is risen, indeed.

ABSTINENCE

The law of abstinence requires a Catholic 14 years of age until death to abstain from eating meat on Fridays in honor of the Passion of Jesus on Good Friday. During Lent abstinence from meat on Fridays is obligatory in the United States as elsewhere.

FASTING

The law of fasting requires a Catholic from the 18th Birthday to the 59th Birthday to reduce the amount of food eaten from normal. The Church defines this as one meal a day, and two smaller meals which if added together would not exceed the main meal in quantity. Such fasting is obligatory on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. The fast is broken by eating between meals and by drinks which could be considered food (milk shakes, but not milk). Alcoholic beverages do not break the fast; however, they seem to be contrary to the spirit of doing penance.

You may have noticed the growth in our choir. We still have room for more singers! The choir is currently working on some new songs and will begin preparation for the Triduum and Easter celebrations soon. Rehearsals are on Thursday evenings at 7 pm in the church. Typically, they require 1 hour of your time. People of all ages and skills are encouraged. MINISTERS OF CARE

Our church is a family and we consider our community a part of that family. We strive to care for and encourage those both within and beyond our walls. Our care ministry brings the Holy Eucharist to our people to hospital, nursing homes and family homes. By taking some time to bring the Holy Eucharist we show God's love and we assure our interest in their spiritual life.

Do you have a desire to bring Holy Communion to your neighbor? Please contact Jim Fijalkiewicz: (847) 526-7101 or Ellen Sherwin: (847) 254-4782.

RESPECT LIFE

respect · love · protect

Heavenly Father, Creator of all Life,
We thank you for the gift of Life that you have given to each of us. You have made us
Your children, and filled us with Your Holy Spirit.

We turn to You now, Our Father, to ask for Your protection for our unborn brothers and sisters. We pray that mothers and fathers will place the Life of their unborn children above their own needs and wants.

We pray that family and community members will offer their support for unborn children. We pray that the well-being of both mother and child will be the focus of all health care workers. And we pray that government leaders will seek ways to uphold the dignity of human life.

We place all these prayers before you through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Amen.

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS

Lord, Jesus we ask you to send more servants to your people.

Choose from our parishes,
from our homes,

from our schools and colleges,
an abundant harvest of apostles
for your Kingdom: priests, sisters, brothers, deacons and lay ministers.

We pray that those you call may never lose awareness of the dignity and need of their vocation.

O Virgin Mary,
Mother of the Church,
teach to all those the Master calls
to say a joyful “yes”
as you did at the Annunciation.

Amen.
