PENTECOST SUNDAY LITURGY OF THE WORD

READING I

— ACTS 2:1-11

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim. Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven staying in Jerusalem. At this sound, they gathered in a large crowd, but they were confused because each one heard them speaking in his own language. They were astounded, and in amazement they asked, "Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans? Then how does each of us hear them in his native language? We are Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene, as well as travelers from Rome, both Jews and converts to Judaism, Cretans and Arabs, yet we hear them speaking in our own tongues of the mighty acts of God."

PSALM 104: Lord, Send Out Your Spirit #60

READING II — 1 COR 12:3B -7,12-13

Brothers and sisters: No one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit. There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.

As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

GOSPEL

— JN 14:15-16,23B-26

Jesus said to his disciples:

"If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always. "Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him. Those who do not love me do not keep my words; yet the word you hear is not mine but that of the Father who sent me. "I have told you this while I am with you. The Advocate, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you."

Stick together. Love each other, and together: Look to Jesus in Prayer.

THE HOLY SPIRIT IS HERE AND DWELLING AMONG US.

There are numerous paintings of the Pentecost scene. Often, they artfully depict Mary and the Apostles, gathered in the Upper Room. Tongues of fire neatly appear on top of each head.

But let us listen carefully to the Scriptures. In our first reading (Acts 2:1-4 and the passages that precede it), Luke depicts a much larger group of disciples – Mary and the Apostles (including the newly-chosen Matthias), men and women, young and old, all followers of Jesus – perhaps as many as one hundred and twenty (Acts 1:15). These were all followers of Jesus – they had witnessed his miracles, loved his message, grieved at his death and rejoiced at his Resurrection. They must have been bewildered. Jesus had promised to be with them always, but they felt very alone. They were sticking together; they were crowded into a house, and they were praying.

This was no quiet scene. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.

This Spirit had been promised by Jesus. He had said that he would not leave them orphaned: The Advocate, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you (John 14:26). And in today's Gospel, he had breathed this Spirit of grace upon his Apostles and given them power to forgive sins.

Jews from every nation were outside of that crowded house. They had gathered in Jerusalem for the ancient feast of Pentecost – fifty days after Passover (it was a celebration of God's giving of the Law to Moses). Yet each heard the disciples speaking in their own tongue, and over time, thousands were converted.

Two thousand years later, we gather in this house of God. Like those early followers of Christ, we find solace in communal prayer. Like them, we crave the words of Jesus and we feast at his table. Like them, we exist in a world of uncertainty and opposing rhetoric. Like them, we find strength in a Christian community. Most important, like them, we have been redeemed by Christ's sacrifice and have been baptized and sealed in his Spirit.

We may not feel the strong driving wind nor see the tongues of fire, but the Spirit is here and dwelling among us. He has given us varied gifts in order to build up God's kingdom. That same Spirit of Jesus is empowering each of us to go out and boldly proclaim the Good News – that Jesus Christ has died for all, that he has forgiven our sins, that he has destroyed death's power over us, and that in all things, Jesus loves us. Now that is something to shout about in any language.

THE HEART OF THE MATTER: TIME FOR REFLECTION AND SPIRITUAL GROWTH

1. What is the role of the Holy Spirit in our lives today?
2. When / How do we receive the Holy Spirit?
3. What does the Holy Spirit do?
4. How is the Holy Spirit like a fire?
5. What keeps me from asking Jesus to "breathe" on me and fill my human spirit anew with the same energy of the Holy spirit?

THE HUMAN SPIRIT IS THE LAMP OF THE LORD.

"The Advocate, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you." JOHN 14:26

The materialism of our society lures us to concentrate more on what we want than on what God wants for us. The relativism of our world tells us that we should be tolerant of all things, that there is no absolute truth. Pray to the Holy Spirit to transform our lives and to guide our thoughts, words and actions.

"El Abogado, el Espíritu Santo que el Padre enviará en mi nombre, te enseñará todo y te recordará todo lo que te dije." JUAN 14:26

El materialismo de nuestra sociedad nos lleva a concentrarnos más en lo que queremos que en lo que Dios quiere para nosotros. El relativismo de nuestro mundo nos dice que debemos ser tolerantes con todas las cosas, que no hay una verdad absoluta. Oremos al Espíritu Santo para que transforme nuestras vidas y guíe nuestros pensamientos, palabras y acciones.

6 Ways We Experience the Holy Spirit

How do we experience God's Spirit presence in our lives? We certainly have seen this question greatly abused. As I noted, many equate his movements with emotional flurries, irrational impressions, or random confluences of events. As I study Scripture, I see six ways we experience his presence: in the gospel, through the Word of God, through the community of the church, in our various spiritual giftings, in our spirit by communion with him in prayer, and through his sovereign control over our circumstances.

1. IN THE GOSPEL

One of the most surprising discoveries I had while writing Jesus, Continued . . . (Zondervan, 2014) was how often Paul equates fullness of the Spirit with going deeper in the gospel. For example, in Ephesians 3:14–18, the apostle prays that the Ephesians would have the strength to comprehend the love of Christ—its breadth and length and height and depth—so that they may be “filled with all the fullness of God.” According to Paul, those two things—knowing the love of Christ in the gospel and being filled with “all the fullness of God”—are synonymous.

2. THROUGH THE WORD OF GOD

The Spirit's primary vehicle for moving and speaking in our lives is the Scriptures. The Spirit works in us to shape us into being the kind of people God wants us to be, because then we will do the things God wants us to do. Almost every time we see the phrase “will of God” in the Bible it refers to shaping our moral character in response to the gospel. I'm not sure this is the kind of thing you can put a percentage on, but I'd say that about 99.4 percent of God's direction for us can be found in the Bible. The Spirit conforms us to Christ's character (Rom. 8:29; 12:1–2) and helps us walk the paths of wisdom (Prov. 2:20–22). As we do, we accomplish the will of God.

3. THROUGH THE CHURCH

The most common way the Spirit speaks in the book of Acts (other than in and through Scripture) is through the Church. For instance, Acts 13:2 records, “While [the church was] worshipping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, ‘Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them.’” God gave the Church specific insight into what Saul and Barnabas were to do. Throughout his life Paul received instructions about where to go and what to do through members of the Church, and he gave similar words of instruction to Timothy. I find nothing that indicates that God has stopped speaking this way—to his children through the Church.

4. IN OUR GIFTINGS

Paul tells us “each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good” (1 Cor. 12:7). This becomes a primary vehicle for his guidance in our lives.

As we sing at church: “We are many parts, we are all one body. And the gifts we have we are given to share. May the Spirit of love, make us one indeed. One, the love that we share; one, our hope in despair, one, the cross that we bear.”

5. IN OUR SPIRIT

Throughout Scripture we see that God guides his people in mission by putting special burdens into their spirits. When Nehemiah left for Jerusalem to rebuild its walls, he didn't have a command from God. He simply said that God had “put it into his heart” to do it (Neh. 2:12). When Paul came to Athens, Luke records his spirit was “provoked” within him about the idolatry in Athens (Acts 17:16). He evidently took this provocation as a direction to stay and preach the gospel there. Later in his ministry he would identify a holy “ambition” that God had put in his heart to preach Christ only where he had never been named (Rom. 15:20). Up until then, his ministry had been broad—debate the gospel, build up the churches everywhere—but the Spirit later narrowed the focus of his ministry. Throughout our lives we (at times) experience a “holy discontent” about a particular situation or the pressing in of a specific promise of God to our context. This is often the Spirit's invitation to pursue a particular ministry.

6. THROUGH OUR CIRCUMSTANCES

Throughout Paul's life we see him interpret open and closed doors as evidence of the Spirit's leadership. In his first letter to the Corinthians he explains he will stay in Ephesus to preach because a “wide door for effective work” has been opened, which he evidently took as the Spirit's leadership (1 Cor. 16:8). Again, no special prophetic word, no handwriting in the sky, no Virgin Mary in a grilled cheese sandwich—just an open door. This one can be tricky, because an open door doesn't always mean something is God's will. Likewise, a closed door doesn't always mean something is not God's will. In Paul's explanation to the Corinthians of why he would stay in Ephesus (mentioned above), he notes many difficulties lay ahead of him. He didn't interpret these difficulties as evidence God wanted him to leave, but to stay.

Except for the gospel and the Scriptures, then, the key with all of these points is to hold our interpretations loosely. We must submit what we sense the Spirit is doing in our hearts or how we're reading our circumstances to the Scriptures and the counsel of the Church. Paul tells us we are to “test” the prophecies given to us in the Church. This isn't an exact science or a formula, and as much as that might disappoint us, it shouldn't surprise us. Jesus said, after all, that experiencing the Spirit is something like a mysterious encounter with the wind (John 3:8).

This excerpt is adapted from J. D. Greear's book Jesus, Continued . . .: Why the Spirit Inside You Is Better than Jesus Beside You (Zondervan, 2014)

TRANSFIGURATION MINISTRY OF PRAYER

We know that life can be challenging and the only thing that may help to get you back to center is Prayer. We believe very strongly in the power of Prayer. This belief and knowing comes from seeing or hearing about the many demonstrations or testimonies in the lives of people around the world.

At the end of weekend Masses the Transfiguration Ministry of Prayer will be in the front of the Church to pray for you or someone you love and care for.

Please know that each Minister of Transfiguration Ministry of Prayer commits to holding your intentions in the light of Christ, standing in Truth, Principle and Love. Prayer is the tool we use to know the truth. It is not about begging or pleading for something to happen to change the conditions in life. It is about aligning ourselves with the all good of God that surrounds us at all times.

Every request we receive is treated with love, compassion, respect and dignity.

Daily Mass Intentions are available for anyone who would like their intentions to be remembered at Mass. Intentions are available for those who have died or for someone who is living.

Stop by the Parish Office or call us to obtain a date and time.

MINISTERS OF CARE

Caring for one another...

Our church is a family and we consider our community a part of that family. We strive to care for and encourage those both within and beyond our walls. Our care ministry brings the Holy Eucharist to our people to hospital, nursing homes and family homes. By taking some time to bring the Holy Eucharist we show God's love and we assure our interest in their spiritual life.

Do you have a desire to bring Holy Communion to your neighbor?

Contact Jim Fijalkiewicz: (847) 526-7101 or Ellen Sherwin: (847) 254-4782 to see how you can help out.

Saint Vincent de Paul MINISTRY

WE NEED YOU!!!

Are you looking for a way to put your Faith in Action? Do you wonder if you might be cut out for “showing mercy”, but don't know how? Do you have one to three hours per month? You can put your Faith in Action by becoming involved with St. Vincent de Paul. Please call our number to learn more from one of our associates, attend a meeting as an inquiring guest or go to www.svdpusa.org. If you hear a tiny voice deep inside urging you to “do something”, consider joining St. Vincent de Paul at Transfiguration parish.

We look forward to welcoming YOU!

Call Parish Office at 847-526-2400 ext. 222.

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS

Lord, Jesus we ask you to send more servants to your people.

Choose from our parishes,

from our homes,

from our schools and colleges,

an abundant harvest of apostles
for your Kingdom: priests, sisters, brothers, deacons and lay ministers.

We pray that those you call may never lose awareness of the dignity and need of their vocation.

O Virgin Mary,

Mother of the Church,

teach to all those the Master calls

to say a joyful “yes”

as you did at the Annunciation.

Amen.

Respect Life

“Before I formed you in the womb I knew you... before you were born I consecrated you...”
Jeremiah 1:4-10

Spiritually Adopted Baby – Week 12

Please pray that our baby, who is not yet born, will receive the gift of Life. As we follow our unborn baby to birth, this is what’s going on in the womb during week 12.

“If only they could see me now! My brain and my muscles are working together and, with my reflexes, I am able to flex and bend my limbs and even twist my wrists. My face scrunches up and then relaxes as everything learns how to work together. I am just a tiny baby but I am so much like you. I need to spend a lot of my time sleeping so that my body can continue to grow. Please pray for me.”

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much.
I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby whom I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion. Amen.
