Christmas is coming

—Advent Message Series—

Christmas is the season of hope. The season awakens in us the deepest desire of heart that life could be and should be better. We hope we will get what we want for Christmas, we hope the season will be filled with cheer, hope that our families will get along with one another. We have hope and yet we also have fears that maybe our hope is unfounded. It can be dangerous to hope because hope unfulfilled makes the heart sick. Hope unfulfilled can be painful.

And so often we manage expectations and disappointments. We feel like we should give up because nothing good happens. However, Christ didn't come to lower our expectations but to exceed them.

In this series, we will look at the importance of hope as a Christian virtue and why hope doesn't disappoint.

WEEK TWO: Encouraged to have hope SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

December 8, 2019

SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT LITURGY OF THE WORD

READING I

— IS 11:1-10

On that day, a shoot shall sprout from the stump of Jesse, and from his roots a bud shall blossom. The spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him: a spirit of wisdom and of understanding, a spirit of counsel and of strength, a spirit of knowledge and of fear of the LORD, and his delight shall be the fear of the LORD. Not by appearance shall he judge, nor by hearsay shall he decide, but he shall judge the poor with justice, and decide aright for the land's afflicted. He shall strike the ruthless with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips he shall slay the wicked. Justice shall be the band around his waist, and faithfulness a belt upon his hips. Then the wolf shall be a guest of the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; the calf and the young lion shall browse together, with a little child to guide them. The cow and the bear shall be neighbors, together their young shall rest; the lion shall eat hay like the ox. The baby shall play by the cobra's den, and the child lay his hand on the adder's lair. There shall be no harm or ruin on all my holy mountain; for the earth shall be filled with knowledge of the LORD, as water covers the sea. On that day, the root of Jesse, set up as a signal for the nations, the Gentiles shall seek out, for his dwelling shall be glorious.

Psalm 72: Every Nation on Earth #46

READING II

— ROM 15:4-9

Brothers and sisters: Whatever was written previously was written for our instruction, that by endurance and by the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope. May the God of endurance and encouragement grant you to think in harmony with one another, in keeping with Christ Jesus, that with one accord you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Welcome one another, then, as Christ welcomed you, for the glory of God. For I say that Christ became a minister of the circumcised to show God's truthfulness, to confirm the promises to the patriarchs, but so that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy. As it is written: Therefore, I will praise you among the Gentiles and sing praises to your name. and make no provision for the desires of the flesh. all the fullness was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile all things for him, making peace by the blood of his cross through him, whether those on earth or those in heaven.

GOSPEL

— MT 3:1-12

John the Baptist appeared, preaching in the desert of Judea and saying, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand!" It was of him that the prophet Isaiah had spoken when he said: A voice of one crying out in the desert, Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths. John wore clothing made of camel's hair and had a leather belt around his waist. His food was locusts and wild honey. At that time Jerusalem, all Judea, and the whole region around the Jordan were going out to him and were being baptized by him in the Jordan River as they acknowledged their sins. When he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his baptism, he said to them, "You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? Produce good fruit as evidence of your repentance. And do not presume to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father.' For I tell you, God can raise up children to Abraham from these stones. Even now the ax lies at the root of the trees. Therefore every tree that does not bear good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire. I am baptizing you with water, for repentance, but the one who is coming after me is mightier than I. I am not worthy to carry his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing fan is in his hand. He will clear his threshing floor and gather his wheat into his barn, but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire."

WEEK TWO: Encouraged to have hope

ONE CHURCH — ONE MESSAGE: ADVENT MESSAGE SERIES

WEEK TWO: Encouraged to Have Hope

Scripture: Romans 15:4-9; 13

What do we want them to know? Hope requires courage.

What do we want them to do? Find encouragement in God's word.

To live with hope takes courage and endurance. The Scriptures have been written to encourage us so that we live with hope. Paul writes to the Romans and to us, "May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you may abound in hope by the power of the holy Spirit." In this week we will look at why it takes courage to be filled of hope and how to find that encouragement in Scripture. The Scriptures are filled with people who hoped in the Lord and saw that hope fulfilled.

"Therefore, every tree that does not bear good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire."

MATTHEW 3:10

Do you bear good fruit for Christ? Or, do you spend your time, talent and treasure constantly acquiring more toys, clutter and junk. Our time, our talent and our treasure are gifts that God has given us. What we do with them is our gift back to God. What gifts are you planning to give to the Lord during this upcoming Christmas season?

"Por lo tanto, todo árbol que no dé buen fruto será cortado y arrojado al fuego".

MATEO 3:10

¿Das buenos frutos para Cristo? ¿O gastas tu tiempo, talento y tesoro constantemente adquiriendo más juguetes, desorden y basura? Nuestro tiempo, nuestro talento y nuestro tesoro son regalos que Dios nos ha dado. Lo que hacemos con ellos es nuestro regalo a Dios. ¿Qué regalos piensas darle al Señor durante esta próxima temporada navideña?

ADVENT HYMN

O come, o come, Emmanuel

O come, O come, Immanuel,
and ransom captive Israel
that mourns in lonely exile
here until the Son of God appear.

Refrain:

Rejoice! Rejoice! Immanuel
shall come to you, O Israel.

O come, O come, great Lord
of might, who to your tribes
on Sinai's height in ancient times did give the law in cloud and majesty and awe.

Refrain:

Rejoice! Rejoice! Immanuel
shall come to you, O Israel.

Discussion Questions

Second Sunday of Advent A
December 8, 2019

First Reading: Isaiah 11:1-10

1. In baptism you receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit, mentioned in this reading: wisdom, understanding, right judgment, courage, knowledge, reverence, wonder and awe in the presence of God. How do these relate to the peace in your heart?

2. "The earth shall be filled with knowledge of the Lord." Von Balthasar holds that this is "the drenching of the entire being with the inner understanding of what God is." Discuss this idea. How does this relate to peace in the reading?

Second Reading: Romans 15:4-9

1. John O'Malley, SJ: "Pope Francis is continuously pushing us beyond the comforts of our religious boundaries to encounter the one human family." Would St. Paul be giving the same advice to the Church today that we read in this reading: "I say that Christ became a minister of the circumcised to show God's truthfulness, to confirm the promises to the patriarchs"

2. There are people with whom you disagree. How easy is it to "think in harmony" with them? Why think in harmony instead of just going along with them, or being nice, or acting like you agree with them?

Gospel: Matthew 3:1-12

1. Judging by John's appearance (clothing of camel's hair, a leather belt around his waist, eating locusts and wild honey) would you guess his cry was lukewarm, or was it a cry from his heart that called for life-altering change? How would you respond to him? Is the fire within you a conflagration or does it look more like a pilot light? What can you do during Advent to gather some kindling for your fire?

2. Pope Francis summed up John the Baptists' vocation in three key words: "Prepare, discern and diminish." Why does he say we also need to diminish ourselves?

John was a man who prepared the way for Jesus without taking any of the glory for himself. ... When asked if he was the Messiah, John replied that he was just "a voice" who had come "to prepare the way of the Lord."

The second vocation of John the Baptist was to discern, among so many good people, who was the true Messiah. When John saw Jesus passing by, he said to the disciples, "Look, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world." The third vocation of John the Baptist is to diminish himself so that the Lord may grow in the hearts of others.

... As Christians we too must prepare the way of the Lord, we must discern the truth and we must diminish ourselves so that the Lord can grow in our hearts and in the souls of others.

“Change is hard at the beginning, messy in the middle and gorgeous at the end”.

Dear RelEd Family Community and Parishioners,

We have seen that changing of leadership at school, church, RelEd Program and any other ministries at church can cause great anxiety. Transitions for some people result in learning difficulties, social/emotional problems, decline in self-esteem, poor motivation, decreased attendance, and increased dropout rates, gossip, etc. Since the Transfiguration School of Religion is charged with helping children, teenagers, parents, ministers and volunteers become Missionary Disciples of Jesus, I understand that I have an important role in assisting all the “RelEd Family” adaptation to change/transition.

Someone said: “Change is hard at the beginning, messy in the middle and gorgeous at the end”. It’s true, we all know.

We all change, one way or the other, but the most significant changes are the ones that we wish so hard for and those we must fight for. They bring us closer to the image we have of ourselves but most importantly the image God has for us.

This transitional period is an opportunity for growth if the “RelEd Family” opts to learn coping skills and are given an opportunity to understand and adapt to their new environment. Ideally, a transition team is composed of the clergy, counselors, catechists, administrators, parents and students. They collaborate, plan and support one another in the transition by acknowledging all “RelEd Family” concerns and by creating a sense of belonging in the new environment.

Unfortunately, this transition occurred in a very short of period time that required us to focus firstly and more importantly in getting the RelEd Program 2019-2020 ready to start rather than considering the effects of the transition itself. I myself took the challenge to lead the beginning of the New Religious Education Program with very little of knowledge of what the whole program entitled. But with the help of the RelEd Staff, catechists, volunteers and parents we were able to start the Program.

Today I want to address all the Transfiguration Family in general and I would invite all of you to focus on the great present with the hope of the God fulfilling future for us rather than the past.

Remember, no matter the challenge, do your best and don’t give up before the end. Find the courage, find the patience, find the energy necessary to get you there. It’s only normal for your energy to be running out just before you finish, but all you need in that moment is an extra effort.

Then, when you have crossed that line, you will see that it was all very easy, you forget the struggle and you see the world in a new light.

You will also see that it was not at all a Finish line, but simply a crossing line into the More of God for us as we all, the “RelEd Family” and Transfiguration Family as a whole, continue our journey building a Catholic Faith Community by seeking Christ and sharing His Gospel through Prayer, Education, Service and Social Activities.

Yours in the Lord Jesus,

Rev. Juan Pablo Avila Ibarra

Ministers of Care

Caring for one another...

Our church is a family and we consider our community a part of that family. We strive to care for and encourage those both within and beyond our walls. Our care ministry brings the Holy Eucharist to our people to hospital, nursing homes and family homes. By taking some time to bring the Holy Eucharist we show God's love and we assure our interest in their spiritual life.

Spiritually Adopted Baby – Week 38

Please pray that our baby, who is not yet born, will receive the gift of Life. As we follow our unborn baby to birth, this is what's going on in the womb during week 38.

"I am ready to enter the world. All of my reflexes are working together. I can move my hands and head and can even tell the difference between light and dark. My brain is pretty developed now and I recognize sounds and voices. I am running out of things to do in here. My development inside the womb is completed. My lungs are ready for their first breath of air. Now all I need to do is wait until God decides it's time for my emergence into the world. It will be a life-changing day for me and my family

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much.

I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby whom I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion. Amen.

we ask you to send more servants to your people.

Choose from our parishes,
from our homes,from our schools and colleges,
an abundant harvest of apostles
for your Kingdom: priests, sisters, brothers, deacons and lay ministers.We pray that those you call may never lose awareness of the dignity and need of their vocation.O Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church,
teach to all those the Master calls
to say a joyful “yes”
as you did at the Annunciation.
Amen.www.chicagopriest.com

WHY ADVERTISE IN YOUR LOCAL CHURCH BULLETIN?

J.S. Paluch will create, produce and print your ad for less than you'd spend elsewhere. They help you reach consumers at extremely affordable rates and offer options to advertise effectively and keep pace with market change.

If you own a business or know of a local business that might like to support your local Catholic parish by advertising in its parish bulletin, please contact J.S. Paluch. Grow your business by advertising in the church bulletin and create strong connections with your target audience. Benefits include:

GREAT COVERAGE - 97% of all households attending church take at least one church bulletin home every Sunday.

GREAT VALUE - 70% of all households are aware of and look at the advertising in the church bulletin and 68% of households surveyed when making a choice between businesses are inclined to choose the one who advertised in the church bulletin.

GREAT LOYALTY - 41% of households do business with a company specifically because they are advertising in the church bulletin.

GREAT PRODUCT - 62% of households keep the church bulletin the entire week as reference.
