“Lord, It is wonderful for us to be here...”

—Matthew 17:4

Stick together. Love each other, and together: look to Jesus in prayer.

Parish Mission Statement

We are people called to build a Catholic Faith Community by seeking Christ and sharing His Gospel through Prayer, Education, Service and Social Activities.

A photograph of two young children, a girl in a pink shirt and a boy in a purple shirt, sitting together in a church. The girl is smiling and looking towards the camera, while the boy is looking at her. They are in front of a large, ornate altar.

PENITENTIAL ACT KYRIE

GLORIA — Mass of Light — David Hass

Refrain

Glo-ry to God in the high - est, glo - ry to God, and on earth peace to peo - ple, to peo - ple of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the Glory of God the Father. Amen.

COLLECT / OPENING PRAYER

The priest says the Prayer over the Collect and all respond: AMEN

II. LITURGY OF THE WORD

A reading from the book of Isaiah

—IS 8: 23—9:3

First the Lord degraded the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali; but in the end he has glorified the seaward road, the land west of the Jordan, the District of the Gentiles. Anguish has taken wing, dispelled is darkness: for there is no gloom where but now there was distress. The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; upon those who dwelt in the land of gloom a light has shone. You have brought them abundant joy and great rejoicing, as they rejoice before you as at the harvest, as people make merry when dividing spoils. For the yoke that burdened them, the pole on their shoulder, and the rod of their taskmaster you have smashed, as on the day of Midian.

Lector: The Word of the Lord

Assembly: Thanks be to God.

PSALM 27: The Lord Is My Light

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Corinthians

—1COR 1: 10-13, 17

I urge you, brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree in what you say, and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and in the same purpose. For it has been reported to me about you, my brothers and sisters, by Chloe's people, that there are rivalries among you. I mean that each of you is saying, "I belong to Paul," or "I belong to Apollos," or "I belong to Cephas," or "I belong to Christ." Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? For Christ did not send me to baptize but to preach the gospel, and not with the wisdom of human eloquence, so that the cross of Christ might not be emptied of its meaning.

Lector: The Word of the Lord

Assembly: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

— Mass of Light — David Hass

GOSPEL

Priest: The Lord be with you

Assembly: And with your Spirit.

Priest: A reading from the gospel according to Matthew

Assembly: Glory to you O Lord

(When saying 'Glory to you O Lord', with your thumb make a little sign of the cross on your forehead; then on your lips; then on your heart)

—MAT 4: 12-23

When Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew to Galilee. He left Nazareth and went to live in Capernaum by the sea, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali, that what had been said through Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled: Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali, the way to the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles, the people who sit in darkness have seen a great light, on those dwelling in a land overshadowed by death light has arisen. From that time on, Jesus began to preach and say, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." As he was walking by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon who is called Peter, and his brother Andrew, casting a net into the sea; they were fishermen. He said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." At once they left their nets and followed him. He walked along from there and saw two other brothers, James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They were in a boat, with their father Zebedee, mending their nets. He called them, and immediately they left their boat and their father and followed him. He went around all of Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom, and curing every disease and illness among the people.

Lector: The Gospel of the Lord

Assembly: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Stick together. Love each other, and together: Look to Jesus in Prayer.

WE ARE FREED FROM OUR BURDENS BY JESUS CHRIST, THE LIGHT WHO CAME INTO OUR DARKNESS.

Zebulun and Naphtali were sons of Jacob, and the leaders of two of the 12 tribes of Israel. The lands settled by their descendants were in the most northern part of Israel. Of all the Israelites, they were the furthest from the summer sun, giving rise to Isaiah's description of the people there who walked in darkness and in the land of gloom.

Their darkness wasn't just a matter of geography, however. These were also the first lands to be invaded by the Assyrians, and the Israelites were oppressed by their pagan conquerors who practiced false worship of many gods. Isaiah prophesies of a time when a great light will shine upon these people, freeing them from darkness and bringing them abundant joy and great rejoicing. He prophesies what we know to be the coming of the Christ, who will free them from the yokes that burden them.

Matthew shows us the fulfillment of this prophecy in today's Gospel. Jesus goes to Capernaum, which is the same geographical region of which Isaiah spoke. He has come to fulfill Isaiah's prophecy, to be the great light for those who walked in darkness, and so he begins preaching the Good News: Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. This message will appeal to many whom Jesus calls, such as Simon and Andrew, and James and John who follow him. Others will hate him for it – and crucify him.

The freedom found in Christ is what impels Saint Paul's Letter to the Corinthians. He is concerned about a growing lack of unity among them, in mind and purpose. So he reminds them of the cross of Christ – the one true sacrifice made for all, into which they are baptized – that it might not be emptied of its meaning. For it is not specific people or human words that give them life. It is Christ crucified who freed them from all burdens.

To be sure, there are people who still walk in darkness, and there remains division in the Church and among Christians. Yet we are freed from our burdens by Jesus Christ, the light who came into our darkness. With the gift of faith we can cast aside the nets of doubt, and through graces outpoured we can resolve to follow Christ, our light and our salvation.

HEART OF THE MATTER: TIME FOR REFLECTION AND SPIRITUAL GROWTH

In this First Reading Isaiah says that "Anguish has taken wing, dispelled is darkness: for there is no gloom where but now there was distress." He was speaking of the ancient lands of Zebulun and Naphtali, but how about today? From where does the "darkness" in today's world come? Can you think of some recent times when God has dispelled darkness in a significant way?

"The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; upon those who dwelt in the land of gloom a light has shone." This famous saying from Isaiah is quoted by Matthew in our Gospel passage. Can you see the darkness in the world today? How can you help bring the "light" into darkness? Can you think of new ways or places to bring the light?

THE LORD IS MY LIGHT AND MY SALVATION.

Annual Catholic Appeal 2020

This year's Annual Catholic Appeal draws its theme—Come, follow me...and share the Word—from Jesus' words in Luke's gospel as he calls his first disciples to follow him.

Both the Annual Catholic Appeal and the diocesan journey we have begun with Renew My Church are opportunities to revitalize and live out our discipleship of Jesus. Our prayers, our abiding practical concern for others, and our financial support enable us to leave our mark in this world as Jesus' disciples. By God's grace, we can contribute to the world's transformation and the renewal of our Church.

YOUR GIFT'S IMPACT

Your contributions and generosity are deeply appreciated, much needed and make a real difference in the lives of many.

Each of us is responsible for the well-being of others within our Archdiocese and throughout world. The Annual Catholic Appeal is an opportunity to meaningfully support Catholic education, faith formation, community life ministries and programs for peace and justice here and everywhere.

Careful thought is given to the use of each and every gift. They are gifts to support God's work, and we use them accordingly.

Taking a closer look at... Part 1 of the Eucharistic Prayer

God's word changes reality. In Genesis, the spirit of God moved over the water and our world was created. In the Gospel of Luke, the Holy Spirit overshadows Mary and she becomes the mother of Jesus. Today's Mass moment is within the Eucharistic Prayer, which we introduced last week. In the Epiclesis, a Greek word meaning 'calling down upon', the priest asks the Holy Spirit to come down upon all the gifts we have offered to God -- so that they may be transformed and Jesus may be made present to us in this moment. This moment and those following is holy and commands a right reverence from us. The priest in the person of Jesus remains standing and we kneel with an attitude of adoration, respect and reverence as we humbly present ourselves before the Lord, both as witnesses and participants in this prayer and the action taking place on the altar. It is so very important to remember, that we are not alone in the participation of this moment. All of heaven and earth are present – the angels, the saints, our blessed mother, our loved ones who have gone before us – even those who seek our prayers and God's mercy, are present as we move in God's grace to the real presence of our Lord and his great sacrifice of love.

Next week: We will enter the institution narrative and consecration of the gifts as we continue the Eucharistic Prayer with the presence of the Holy Spirit and the transforming power of the Word of God.

TRANSFIGURATION MINISTRY OF PRAYER

We know that life can be challenging and the only thing that may help to get you back to center is Prayer. We believe very strongly in the power of Prayer. This belief and knowing comes from seeing or hearing about the many demonstrations or testimonies in the lives of people around the world.

At the end of weekend Masses the Transfiguration Ministry of Prayer will be in the front of the Church to pray for you or someone you love and care for.

Please know that each Minister of Transfiguration Ministry of Prayer commits to holding your intentions in the light of Christ, standing in Truth, Principle and Love. Prayer is the tool we use to know the truth. It is not about begging or pleading for something to happen to change the conditions in life. It is about aligning ourselves with the all good of God that surrounds us at all times.

Every request we receive is treated with love, compassion, respect and dignity.

What is RCIA?

RCIA prepares unbaptized adults for the sacraments of initiation: Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist and to be in full communion with the Catholic Church.

RCIA is also for adults who have been baptized but have not completed their sacraments of initiation.

RCIA is for anyone who would like to learn more about their Catholic faith.

The journey begins in September and continues through May each Sunday after 10:00 a.m. Mass (10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.) in the Parish Offices.

Anyone interested in learning more about the Catholic faith is welcome to contact Vicki Peloquin at (847) 997-7350.

Parishioners...prayerfully consider becoming part of the RCIA Team as a sponsor, catechist, or to assist with hospitality. Call Vicki Peloquin (847) 997-7350 if you are interested.

Wise Fools and Happy Stewards

"... If any of you think of yourself as wise, then you must learn to be a fool so that you may become wise. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God...."

1 Corinthians 3:18-19

"Every Scribe in the kingdom is like a steward who brings out of his treasure both the new and the old."

Matthew 13:52

The Sparough Family Mission Team
-- Fr. Michael, Tom, Tricia, & Maribel
March 1-3, 2020 7:00-8:30pm
Transfiguration Parish Church
316 W. Mill St, Wauconda, IL 60084

Decide now to join the joy of renewing our faith at our Parish Mission given by the Sparough Family Mission Team: Fr Michael, Tom, Tricia, and Maribel. The Sparoughs are entertaining evangelists who use their performing skills to bring the gospel message of Jesus alive.

The mission, Wise Fools and Happy Stewards is a call to follow Jesus into the heart of the gospel.

During our three day mission, these "birds of a feather" will lead us in praying through dramatizations of stories and familiar gospel scenes, spiritual analogies illustrated by juggling, guided imagery prayer, clowning, engaging preaching, uplifting songs, and rituals of blessing. This mission is for the whole family, designed to challenge, delight and re-ignite the flame of God's love in our hearts, to help set our captive hearts free.

Sunday, March 1: Discipleship: Following the Master of Folly
Monday, March 2: Reconciliation: Holding On and Letting Go
Tuesday, March 3: Mission: The Challenge Juggle
