II. LITURGY OF THE WORD

A reading from the book of Genesis

—GEN 2:7-9, 3: 1-7

The LORD God formed man out of the clay of the ground and blew into his nostrils the breath of life, and so man became a living being. Then the LORD God planted a garden in Eden, in the east, and placed there the man whom he had formed.

Out of the ground the LORD God made various trees grow that were delightful to look at and good for food, with the tree of life in the middle of the garden and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

Now the serpent was the most cunning of all the animals that the LORD God had made. The serpent asked the woman, "Did God really tell you not to eat from any of the trees in the garden?" The woman answered the serpent: "We may eat of the fruit of the trees in the garden; it is only about the fruit of the tree in the middle of the garden that God said, 'You shall not eat it or even touch it, lest you die.'" But the serpent said to the woman: "You certainly will not die! No, God knows well that the moment you eat of it your eyes will be opened and you will be like gods who know what is good and what is evil." The woman saw that the tree was good for food, pleasing to the eyes, and desirable for gaining wisdom. So she took some of its fruit and ate it; and she also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it. Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they realized that they were naked; so they sewed fig leaves together and made loincloths for themselves.

Lector: The Word of the Lord

Assembly: Thanks be to God.

PSALM 51: # 41

Be mer-ci-ful, O Lord, for we have sinned; be mer-ci-ful, O Lord, for we have sinned.

A reading from Saint Paul to the Romans

—ROM 5:12-19

Brothers and sisters: through one man sin entered the world, and through sin, death, and thus death came to all men, inasmuch as all sinned.

For if, by the transgression of the one, death came to reign through that one, how much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of justification come to reign in life through the one Jesus Christ.

In conclusion, just as through one transgression condemnation came upon all, so, through one righteous act, acquittal and life came to all. For just as through the disobedience of the one man the many were made sinners, so, through the obedience of the one, the many will be made righteous.

Lector: The Word of the Lord

Assembly: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Mass of Creation— Marty Haugen

GOSPEL

Priest: The Lord be with you

Assembly: And with your Spirit.

Priest: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Assembly: Glory to you O Lord

(When saying 'Glory to you O Lord', with your thumb make a little sign of the cross on your forehead; then on your lips; then on your heart)

—MAT 4: 1—11

At that time Jesus was led by the Spirit into the desert to be tempted by the devil. He fasted for forty days and forty nights, and afterwards he was hungry. The tempter approached and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command that these stones become loaves of bread." He said in reply, "It is written: One does not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes forth from the mouth of God." Then the devil took him to the holy city, and made him stand on the parapet of the temple, and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down. For it is written: He will command his angels concerning you and with their hands they will support you, lest you dash your foot against a stone." Jesus answered him, "Again it is written, You shall not put the Lord, your God, to the test." Then the devil took him up to a very high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in their magnificence, and he said to him, "All these I shall give to you, if you will prostrate yourself and worship me." At this, Jesus said to him, "Get away, Satan! It is written: The Lord, your God, shall you worship and him alone shall you serve." Then the devil left him and, behold, angels came and ministered to him.

Lector: The Gospel of the Lord

Assembly: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

May the LORD bless your WEEK and, SEE YOU next Weekend!

May this journey of Lent help us to return to God and put him first in our lives and hearts.

Today's readings, as we begin the season of Lent, give us two special reminders that will help us on our journey: Who God is and who we are as human beings.

The reading from Genesis presents our creation story: The Lord God formed us out of the clay of the ground, and animated us by breathing life into us. Without God, we simply would not exist.

Yet from the very beginning, it has been hard for us as human beings to remember this basic fact. Like Adam and Eve, it is very easy for us to fall into the trap of wanting to be like God – wanting to be in charge of our lives and wanting to know good from evil. We certainly can go through our lives reacting to our problems and challenges as if we're in charge of everything, and forget to rely on the wisdom and guidance of God. Perhaps, however, as we begin our Lenten practices of prayer, fasting and almsgiving, our focus should be to remember to put God first in our lives, and to wrest out of our lives anything we want to put before God.

Jesus gives us a masterful example of how to do just that in the Gospel, as he's confronted with various temptations by the devil. For every temptation that Satan puts before him, Jesus counters with a reminder that God comes first. Tempted to make stones into bread after 40 days of fasting, Jesus notes that we live not only on bread, but on the word of God. Tempted to fall down and let God save him, he reminds the devil that he is not to put God to the test. Finally, tempted with all the riches of the world if he only worships Satan, Jesus counters that God alone should be worshiped. Jesus gives us a clear model: In all temptations to hunger, power and wealth, we are to remember that God, our Creator, comes first.

As we begin our own challenging journey of Lent, let us be assured by the words of Paul in today's second reading. Although sin abounds in our world, God's grace abounds even more. As we struggle in the weeks ahead to put God first, to remove from our lives the obstacles to our union with God, God gives us graces to help us in our struggle. We are never alone on the journey when we strive to come closer to God – God is always waiting to give us any help we need, if only we remember to turn to him. Let us face the Lent ahead with the courage and strength of Jesus.

THE HEART OF THE MATTER: TIME FOR REFLECTION AND SPIRITUAL GROWTH

First Reading: Genesis 2:7-9; 3:1-7

1. In the creation story, what establishes a bond between humans and all other creatures of earth? What does this between humans and God? Would it be a better world if humans did not have the freedom to choose? Knowing that people would not always resist choosing evil, why would God ever give them free will?

Second Reading: Romans 5:12-19 or 5:12, 17-19

2. Pope Francis said: Sometimes we are saddened by the weight of our sins. May we not be discouraged. Christ has come to lift this burden and give us peace.

Twitter, February 1, 2014

What explains Pope Francis' statement that Christ represents all of us before God and that his obedience outweighs our sins and disobedience? What does this mean to you?

Gospel: Matthew 4:1-11

3. What desert images hold Lenten meanings for you? Do you ever sense the Spirit calling you to pray when you feel you are in the wilderness? What part did the Spirit play in this Gospel story? What part will you let the Spirit play in your Lent this year?

“It is written: The Lord, your God, shall you worship and him alone shall you serve.”
MATTHEW 4:10

Tempted between the riches and power of this world and service to God, Jesus chose service to His Father. If we wish to truly follow Jesus, we, too, must decide to turn away from worldly power and riches and put God at the center of our lives. Lent is our time to prune ourselves of earthly things. Ask God how he is calling you to serve.

"Está escrito: Adorarás al Señor, tu Dios, y solo a Él servirás".
MATEO 4:10

Tentado entre las riquezas y el poder de este mundo y el servicio a Dios, Jesús eligió el servicio a su Padre. Si deseamos seguir verdaderamente a Jesús, nosotros también debemos decidir apartarnos del poder y las riquezas del mundo y poner a Dios en el centro de nuestras vidas. Cuaresma es nuestro tiempo para liberarnos de las cosas terrenales. Pregúntale a Dios cómo te está llamando a servir.

„Jest napisane: Pan, twój Bóg, będziesz czcił i tylko jemu będziesz służyć”.
MATEUSZA 4:10

Kuszony między bogactwami i mocą tego świata a służbą dla Boga, Jezus wybrał służbę dla swego Ojca. Jeśli chcemy naprawdę iść za Jezusem, my również musimy zdecydować się odwrócić od światowej władzy i bogactw i postawić Boga w centrum naszego życia. Wielki Post jest naszym czasem, aby przycinać się z rzeczy ziemskich. Zapytaj Boga, jak wzywa cię do służby.

Taking a closer look at... the Sign of Peace, in the Communion Rite of the Liturgy of the Eucharist

After concluding the moment of the Our Father, shared last week, today's Mass moment continues the Communion Rite with the SIGN OF PEACE. The priest, in the person of Jesus, extends a sign of peace to all present. He, or the deacon, then invites us to share that peace of Christ with each other. In the Gospel of Mark, we are reminded to "love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength," and then to "love your neighbor as yourself." In the Gospel of Matthew, we also hear Jesus say, "If you are presenting your gift at the altar, and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar and go; first be reconciled to your brother, and then come and present your gift." Peace is what we are given AND invited to share. Both actions are necessary to help make our hearts ready to receive the Eucharist. Do you realize that the peace we received from Jesus today, that the crucified and risen Jesus offered first to his disciples, is our evidence that nothing can finally separate us from the love of God? Even though we killed God – participated in his crucifixion with our sin, God returned in forgiving love! The word Peace, or in Hebrew, shalom, means harmony, wholeness, completeness. It represents what God wants for us today – every good thing and well-being at every level of our lives. When we say 'peace be with you' or simply 'peace', and sign this peace – by kiss OR by handshake, by fist bump OR by two finger sign, OR by a simple nod, let us also seek the eyes of our neighbor, that we may truly share heart to heart, the peace that Jesus gave his life to offer us.

Next week we will look at the moment of the breaking of the bread, as we sing the Lamb of God, in the Communion Rite.

LENTEN 40 DAYS FOR LIFE BEGINS ASH WEDNESDAY

AURORA PLANNED PARENTHOOD

The next 40 DAYS FOR LIFE begins on Ash Wednesday at Planned Parenthood in Aurora. If you are able to pray at the clinic for its closing, it would be a strong stand against abortion. At the very least, let us pray and offer sacrifice and fasting to end abortion at our state's largest abortion facility. For more info, call Mary Ann Fijalkiewicz, 847-526-7101.

Consider volunteering some time to help the most vulnerable (the unborn), the handicapped, the elderly to live with dignity and respect.

You can help support us with a monthly check made out to SVDP Transfiguration or through the Give Central Program. Come join us on the 1st Tuesday of the month at 6:30 in the Parish Center to learn more.
