PARISH LENTEN MISSION

Wise Fools

Happy Stewards

SAVE THE DATE: March 1—2—3, 2020 at 7:00PM

This mission is for the whole family, designed to challenge, delight and re-ignite the flame of God's love in our hearts, to help set our captive hearts free.

LENTEN MISSION PRAYER

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace, where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

SUNDAY MASS INTENTIONS

ENTRANCE HYMN

Gather Us In
Worship Hymnal # 743

GREETING

Priest: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Assembly: Amen

Priest: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Assembly: And with your spirit

PENITENTIAL ACT KYRIE

GLORIA — Mass of Light — David Hass

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the Glory of God the Father. Amen.

COLLECT / OPENING PRAYER

The priest says the Prayer over the Collect and all respond: AMEN

II. LITURGY OF THE WORD

A reading from the book of Isaiah

—IS 58: 7—10

Thus says the LORD: Share your bread with the hungry, shelter the oppressed and the homeless; clothe the naked when you see them, and do not turn your back on your own. Then your light shall break forth like the dawn, and your wound shall quickly be healed; your vindication shall go before you, and the glory of the LORD shall be your rear guard. Then you shall call, and the LORD will answer, you shall cry for help, and he will say: Here I am! If you remove from your midst oppression, false accusation and malicious speech; if you bestow your bread on the hungry and satisfy the afflicted; then light shall rise for you in the darkness, and the gloom shall become for you like midday.

Lector: The Word of the Lord

Assembly: Thanks be to God.

PSALM 112

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Corinthians

—1COR 2: 1-5

When I came to you, brothers and sisters, proclaiming the mystery of God, I did not come with sublimity of words or of wisdom. For I resolved to know nothing while I was with you except Jesus Christ, and him crucified. I came to you in weakness and fear and much trembling, and my message and my proclamation were not with persuasive words of wisdom, but with a demonstration of Spirit and power, so that your faith might rest not on human wisdom but on the power of God.

Lector: The Word of the Lord

Assembly: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

— Mass of Light — David Hass

GOSPEL

Priest: The Lord be with you

Assembly: And with your Spirit.

Priest: A reading from the gospel according to Matthew

Assembly: Glory to you O Lord

(When saying 'Glory to you O Lord', with your thumb make a little sign of the cross on your forehead; then on your lips; then on your heart)

—MAT 5: 13-16

Jesus said to his disciples: "You are the salt of the earth. But if salt loses its taste, with what can it be seasoned? It is no longer good for anything but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot. You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden. Nor do they light a Lamp and then put it under a bushel basket; it is set on a lampstand, where it gives light to all in the house. Just so, your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father."

Lector: The Gospel of the Lord

Assembly: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

III. LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

PRESENTATION OF THE GIFTS

What Have You Done For Me Worship Hymnal # 714

Priest: Pray, brothers and sisters, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

Assembly: May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

The priest says the Prayer over the Offerings and all respond: AMEN

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

Preface Dialogue

Priest: The Lord be with you.

Assembly: And with your spirit

Priest: Lift up your hearts.

Assembly: We lift them up to the Lord.

Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

Assembly: It is right and just.

HOLY, HOLY, HOLY

— Mass of Light — David Hass

MEMORIAL ACCLAMATION

— Mass of Light — David Hass

CONCLUDING DOXOLOGY & AMEN

Priest: Through him... for ever and ever.

Assembly:

IV. COMMUNION RITE

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Then the Priest says: Deliver us, Lord, we pray... and the coming of our Savior, Jesus Christ.

Assembly: For the Kingdom, the power and the glory are yours now and forever.

SIGN OF PEACE

Priest: Lord Jesus Christ, who said... for ever and ever.

Assembly: AMEN

Priest: The peace of the Lord be with you always.

Assembly: And with your spirit.

(At this moment, we all offer one another a sign of peace that expresses communion and charity)

LAMB OF GOD

— Mass of Light — David Hass

Daily Mass Intentions are available for anyone who would like their intentions to be remembered at Mass. Intentions are available for those who have died or for someone who is living. Stop by the Parish Office or call us to obtain a date and time. (847) 526—2400

Invitation to Communion

Priest: Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

Assembly: Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

COMMUNION SONG

We Are The Light Of The World
Worship Hymnal # 515

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

The priest says the Prayer After Communion and all respond: AMEN

V. THE CONCLUDING RITES

Priest: The Lord be with you.

Assembly: And with your spirit

Priest: May almighty God bless you, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

Assembly: Amen

Priest: Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life.

Assembly: Thanks be to God.

The theme of the 2020 Annual Catholic Appeal is

“COME FOLLOW ME... AND HEAL OUR WORLD.”

Last week, we began a special cycle of readings from Matthew's Gospel drawn from the Sermon on the Mount. Those Gospel readings are special, because they represent the charter for the Kingdom of God and for the disciples who belong to that Kingdom. The words of Jesus in the Sermon on the Mount give us both a sense of our identity as disciples and our mission to foster the coming of the Kingdom of God. We come to know who we are and what our purpose is.

In John's Gospel, Jesus says, “I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness but will have the light of life.” (John 8:12) In today's Gospel, Jesus says to his disciples in a way that perhaps ought to startle us, “You are the light of the world...(and) your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father.” The disciples who follow the Master, the light of the world, are themselves His radiance in this world. That is indeed striking.

Still, we might ask ourselves, “How exactly are we light in the world? What does this mean? How is it shaped?” There are clues in the Gospel itself. Somehow, there is a connection between being a light and doing good deeds. Jesus says, “Your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds...” The prophet Isaiah spells it out in greater detail: “Share your bread with the hungry, shelter the oppressed and the homeless; clothe the naked when you see them, and do not turn your back on your own. Then your light shall break forth like the dawn, and your wound shall quickly be healed...”

When we, the disciples of Jesus, bring a healing presence to our wounded and broken world and humanity, we reflect the very light of Christ and share him with others. Our proclamation of Jesus, our presentation of him to a world in need, is not only a matter of words. Saint Paul seems to be aware of this, as we heard in the second reading from his letter to the Corinthians: “When I came to you, brothers and sisters, proclaiming the mystery of God, I did not come with sublimity of words or of wisdom.” In our deeds, especially in our work for the healing of others and the world, we bring and share the light of Christ.

Next weekend is commitment Sunday for the Annual Catholic Appeal of the Archdiocese of Chicago. And we will have an opportunity to extend our healing mission through the ministry of the Church. The theme for this year's appeal is “Come follow me... and heal our world.” Our financial support, our prayerful support, and our direct involvement in the Church's outreach in parishes, education, religious and ministerial formation, initiatives for justice, peace, and respect for life – all these bring healing and light into our world.

Across this next week, reflect, pray, and ask yourself questions about the meaning of following Jesus and how, in a very specific way, you can carry his healing into the world. Consider what you might contribute from your time, talent, and treasure to make a healing difference. In this way, you will answer His call to follow Him, to bring His healing, and to be His light in our world.

The Eucharist we are now celebrating summons us once again to follow Jesus. His death and resurrection celebrated here are the source both of our own healing and our empowerment to carry forward healing for others.

STEWARDSHIP

SOMOS DISCIPULOS COMPROMETIDOS

DZIELENIE SIĘ DARAMI

"Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven."

Matthew 5:16

The generosity of being a good steward of your gifts has a positive effect on people and it is contagious! Good works encourages more good works. Let your light shine! Be careful to recognize that God is working through you and don't put yourself above the people you have been called to help.

"Dejen que su luz brille ante de los hombres, para que vean vuestras buenas obras y glorifiquen a vuestro Padre que está en los cielos."

Mateo 5:16

¡La generosidad de ser un buen mayordomo de sus dones tiene un efecto positivo en las personas y es contagioso! Las buenas obras animan más buenas obras. ¡Deja que tu luz brille! Ten cuidado de reconocer que Dios está obrando a través tuyo y no te pongas por encima de las personas a las que has sido llamado para ayudar.

"Tak też niech świeci wasze światło dla ludzi, aby widzieli wasze dobre czyny i chwalili waszego Ojca, który jest w niebie."

Mateusz 5:16

Hojność bycia dobrym zarządcą swoich darów ma pozytywny wpływ na ludzi i jest zaraźliwa! Dobre uczynki zachęcają do kolejnych dobrych uczynków. Niech wasze światło świeci! Bądźcie uważni z rozpoznaniem, że Bóg działa przez was aby nie stawiać się ponad ludźmi do których zostaliście wezwani z pomocą.

Thank You For Practicing Stewardship

Why Have a Second Collection?

A Stewardship Moment

"Discipleship means that we care about one another. Discipleship means that the needs of the Church touch our hearts and inspire us to tend to the needs of others—whether those impacted by local floods and hurricanes that destroy the lives of people in our own nation or in lands that we have only just read about. It seems that all we require is a reminder of the need, and we open our lives in concern for other. It is a tradition that Paul began for the ancient Church, and we have been having 'second collections' since then—with no end in sight, as long as there is a need that we find!" – Archbishop Wilton Gregory

Second collections are a stewardship learning moment. As Catholics we are part of a universal Church that extends well beyond our own parish boundaries. Jesus calls us to "make disciples of all nations" (Mt. 28:19). Through the second collection, we have a ready opportunity to give to those causes held up by our Church leaders as important in fulfilling that call of Our Lord.

Second collections develop international awareness of the needs of those beneficiaries—whether an Indian child on a North Dakota reservation or a pilgrim to the Holy Land. The bishops in the United States created the national collections so that by combining our resources we can more effectively carry out our mission as Catholics. Each of the collections is worthy of support and represents our community of faith at its best—working in the world, improving lives, and saving souls.

Donor Rights

We take our donors' intentions seriously. Transfiguration Parish has adopted a "Donor Bill of Rights," to assure you that the gifts you give, whether at the parish level or the archdiocesan level, will be used for the purposes for which they were given. For example, when a second collection is held for the Catholic Relief Fund, donors can be confident that their financial gift is being forwarded to Catholic Relief Services. If for some reason, a donor does not wish to support an organization designated for the second collection, they need only withhold their second collection gift on that particular Sunday.

Taking a closer look at... the Memorial Acclamation in the Anamnesis

What is the "mystery of faith" in the Eucharistic Prayer? The formal name for this moment in the Mass is the Anamnesis. It is a statement by which the Church, fulfilling the command that she received from Christ the Lord, through the Apostles, celebrates the memorial of Christ, recalling his Passion, Resurrection, and Ascension into heaven. The Roman missal instructs that after the consecration, the priest, alone, makes the statement 'THE MYSTERY OF FAITH'. The people then respond with an acclamation or statement of support. Why is this? To fully appreciate this moment, we've got to understand that the original meaning of the word MYSTERY, is rooted in a tiny ancient word, MUO. This word literally means to 'shut the mouth'. Muo is the root word from which we get the English word MUTE. So, the word MYSTERY refers to being rendered 'silent' or 'dumbfounded' by the magnificence of what has been revealed. Consider this: The consecration of the bread and wine has just happened. The priest comes up from a genuflection and recognizes that right before him, on the altar, is the body and blood of Jesus Christ. He states 'the mystery of faith' and is so amazed by the mystery before him that he becomes silent. The people then come to his aid and finish, with one of three acclamations, the fullness of the mystery that has just been recalled. We sing "We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection, until you come again." OR "When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again." OR "Save us, Savior of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free." This Mass moment is a marvelous combination of priest and people working together, in celebration of the great gift and mystery of the Eucharist.

Next week we will look at Part 2 of the Eucharistic Prayer as we continue toward our ultimate encounter with Jesus.

For simple explanations on the parts of the Liturgy of the Eucharist, visit: <http://www.usccb.org/prayer-and-worship/the-mass/order-of-mass/liturgy-of-the-eucharist/index.cfm> OR for more on the anamnesis, visit: <https://www.thecatholictelegraph.com/what-is-the-meaning-of-the-memorial>

TRANSFIGURATION MINISTRY OF PRAYER

We know that life can be challenging and the only thing that may help to get you back to center is Prayer. We believe very strongly in the power of Prayer. This belief and knowing comes from seeing or hearing about the many demonstrations or testimonies in the lives of people around the world.

At the end of weekend Masses the Transfiguration Ministry of Prayer will be in the front of the Church to pray for you or someone you love and care for.

Please know that each Minister of Transfiguration Ministry of Prayer commits to holding your intentions in the light of Christ, standing in Truth, Principle and Love. Prayer is the tool we use to know the truth. It is not about begging or pleading for something to happen to change the conditions in life. It is about aligning ourselves with the all good of God that surrounds us at all times.

Every request we receive is treated with love, compassion, respect and dignity.

What is RCIA?

RCIA prepares unbaptized adults for the sacraments of initiation: Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist and to be in full communion with the Catholic Church.

RCIA is also for adults who have been baptized but have not completed their sacraments of initiation.

RCIA is for anyone who would like to learn more about their Catholic faith.

The journey begins in September and continues through May each Sunday after 10:00 a.m. Mass (10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.) in the Parish Offices.

Anyone interested in learning more about the Catholic faith is welcome to contact Vicki Peloquin at (847) 997-7350.

Parishioners...prayerfully consider becoming part of the RCIA Team as a sponsor, catechist, or to assist with hospitality. Call Vicki Peloquin (847) 997-7350 if you are interested.

First Communion Sacred Space Tour

On Saturday, February 1st. Our Communicants had the experience to visit our church and learn more about the celebration of the mass. This was planned so the Communicants understand that the Church is the place of worship. They also got to experience the church sanctuary and it's symbols and what they represent in our Catholic Faith. Please continue to pray for these young people as they continue their faith journey.

WHY ADVERTISE IN YOUR LOCAL CHURCH BULLETIN?

J.S. Paluch will create, produce and print your ad for less than you'd spend elsewhere. They help you reach consumers at extremely affordable rates and offer options to advertise effectively and keep pace with market change.

If you own a business or know of a local business that might like to support your local Catholic parish by advertising in its parish bulletin, please contact J.S. Paluch. Grow your business by advertising in the church bulletin and create strong connections with your target audience. Benefits include:

GREAT COVERAGE - 97% of all households attending church take at least one church bulletin home every Sunday.

GREAT VALUE - 70% of all households are aware of and look at the advertising in the church bulletin and 68% of households surveyed when making a choice between businesses are inclined to choose the one who advertised in the church bulletin.

GREAT LOYALTY - 41% of households do business with a company specifically because they are advertising in the church bulletin.

GREAT PRODUCT - 62% of households keep the church bulletin the entire week as reference.
