March 1–2–3, 2020 at 7:00PM

SPAROUGH FAMILY MISSION TEAM

This mission is for the whole family, designed to challenge, delight and re-ignite the flame of God's love in our hearts, to help set our captive hearts free.

LENTEN MISSION PRAYER

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace, where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

peo - ple of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the Glory of God the Father. Amen.

COLLECT / OPENING PRAYER

The priest says the Prayer over the Collect and all respond: AMEN

II. LITURGY OF THE WORD

A reading from the book of Leviticus

—LV 19:1-2, 17-18

The LORD said to Moses, "Speak to the whole Israelite community and tell them: Be holy, for I, the LORD, your God, am holy. "You shall not bear hatred for your brother or sister in your heart. Though you may have to reprove your fellow citizen, do not incur sin because of him. Take no revenge and cherish no grudge against any of your people. You shall love your neighbor as yourself. I am the LORD."

Lector: The Word of the Lord

Assembly: Thanks be to God.

PSALM 103: # 58

A reading from the first letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians

—1 COR 3:16-23

Brothers and sisters: Do you not know that you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells in you? If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy that person; for the temple of God, which you are, is holy. Let no one deceive himself. If any one among you considers himself wise in this age, let him become a fool, so as to become wise. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness in the eyes of God, for it is written: God catches the wise in their own ruses, and again: The Lord knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain. So let no one boast about human beings, for everything belongs to you, Paul or Apollos or Cephas, or the world or life or death, or the present or the future: all belong to you, and you to Christ, and Christ to God.

Lector: The Word of the Lord

Assembly: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

— Mass of Light — David Hass

GOSPEL

Priest: The Lord be with you

Assembly: And with your Spirit.

Priest: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Assembly: Glory to you O Lord

(When saying 'Glory to you O Lord', with your thumb make a little sign of the cross on your forehead; then on your lips; then on your heart)

—MAT 5: 38-48

Jesus said to his disciples: "You have heard that it was said, An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth. But I say to you, offer no resistance to one who is evil. When someone strikes you on your right cheek, turn the other one as well.

If anyone wants to go to law with you over your tunic, hand over your cloak as well. Should anyone press you into service for one mile, go for two miles. Give to the one who asks of you, and do not turn your back on one who wants to borrow. "You have heard that it was said, You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy. But I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, that you may be children of your heavenly Father, for he makes his sun rise on the bad and the good, and causes rain to fall on the just and the unjust. For if you love those who love you, what recompense will you have? Do not the tax collectors do the same? And if you greet your brothers only, what is unusual about that? Do not the pagans do the same? So be perfect, just as your heavenly Father is perfect."

Lector: The Gospel of the Lord

Assembly: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

III. LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

PRESENTATION OF THE GIFTS

May the LORD bless your WEEK and, SEE YOU next Weekend!

COME, FOLLOW ME... and heal our world

BE HOLY, FOR I THE LORD, YOUR GOD, AM HOLY.

The word holy means “to set apart; to be consecrated to God; to be dedicated to a sacred purpose.” If asked, each one of us could probably name someone whom we think is “holy.” Perhaps it is a deceased person whose life was so exemplary that the Church has declared them a saint – Mother Teresa, or a courageous martyr, Saint Joseph, the Blessed Mother, or our patron saint. It may even be a living person whom we admire – a person who has shown great faith during times of trial. We tend to know a holy person when we see him, or her.

How did Jesus talk about holiness? These are some of the things he told his disciples in today's Gospel: When someone strikes you on your right cheek, turn the other one as well; Love your neighbor and your enemies; pray for those who persecute you, should anyone want you to go one mile, go two miles instead.

It is a bit of a mix of things to do, and things to not do. In the end, he sort of summarizes all of this by telling his disciples to be perfect just as your heavenly Father is perfect. Jesus lived in full communion with God, and he expected his disciples to do the same. Indeed, he asks us to do the same. It is our universal vocation: All Christians in any state or walk of life are called to the fullness of Christian life and to the perfection of charity. All are called to holiness (CCC2013).

What he asks of us is not impossible, for God commands what we are capable of doing (Cf., Deut 30:11). Granted, we cannot do it without his help, but there is nothing set before us that we cannot achieve with his grace (Cf. Mt 11:30, 1 John 5:3). And in the matter of holiness – which is always a process – we have the Holy Spirit to guide us. Paul writes to the Corinthians, Do you not know that you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells in you? Each one of us, by our very baptism, is sanctified [made holy] by the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. We are temples of God, belonging to Christ, and in whom Christ dwells.

As we prepare to receive Christ into our bodies, transforming us for the sake of ourselves and the world, may we embrace this call to holiness with our whole heart. For we are indeed temples in whom the Holy One dwells, and we are sanctified in this life so as to be perfect in the next.

HEART OF THE MATTER: TIME FOR REFLECTION AND SPIRITUAL GROWTH

1. “Be holy, for I, the Lord, your God, am holy.” Does the Lord tell us what holiness is? What does this reading prescribe for us to be holy? Is holiness related to how we interact with others?
2. If we all “loved our neighbors as ourselves” do you think there would be wars, prisons, hunger and poverty? One way the Lord says to love your neighbor is “you shall not bear hatred for your brother or sister in your heart. ... Cherish no grudge against any of your people.” Is this an easy thing to do? Have you tried it? Will you try again?
3. Why would Jesus tell you to “Love your enemies?” Who loves like that? Did Jesus show us a new revolutionary kind of acting when he showed us how to love our enemies? How far was he willing to go for them with his radical self-emptying? How far was the Father willing to go for his children?

THE LORD IS KIND AND MERCIFUL.

But beyond "what am I giving up for Lent?", it's an opportunity to examine "how am I growing in my encounter with Jesus?"

Taking a closer look at... the Lord's Prayer, in the Communion Rite of the Liturgy of the Eucharist

In our Mass Moment series, we now enter the Communion Rite which leads all the faithful to the table of the Eucharist. The Communion Rite begins when we stand and join our voices to pray for the coming of God's kingdom -- to ask God to provide for our needs, forgive our sins, and bring us to the joy of heaven. All this takes place in today's Mass moment: the Lord's Prayer -- the Our Father. In the Gospels of Matthew and Luke -- it is the prayer that Jesus taught to his disciples when they asked him how they should pray. In his talk on the Mass, Bishop Barron shares how beautiful it is that we don't pray [the Lord's Prayer] until Jesus is really, truly and substantially present in our midst. We wait for that moment to pray his words and to claim as our father, his father. In the Lord's prayer we pray for God's kingdom of heaven to be present on earth -- and if we listen closely -- God does just that as he also provides us with the daily bread we ask to receive. Remember for a moment, the children of Israel on their journey in the desert. We know they received manna from God -- that substance beyond the ordinary for their daily bread -- that which they needed to live in order to enter the promised land. The original Greek meaning behind the term "our daily bread" translates as 'super-substantial' bread. The eucharistic bread now present for us in the Mass, is the 'super substantial bread' provided by the Father through the Holy Spirit. Jesus, then, taught us to pray for the Eucharist -- our manna from heaven -- our daily bread -- which is ultimately the reconciliation of heaven and earth in new life -- the sustenance we need, making God's kingdom more present to us, every time we receive it. Our father who art in heaven -- holy be thy name!

Next week we will explore the Sign of Peace within the Communion Rite.
