II. LITURGY OF THE WORD

A reading from the book of Genesis

—GN 12:1-4A

The LORD said to Abram: "Go forth from the land of your kinsfolk and from your father's house to a land that I will show you.

"I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you; I will make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you and curse those who curse you. All the communities of the earth shall find blessing in you."

Abram went as the LORD directed him.

Lector: The Word of the Lord

Assembly: Thanks be to God.

PSALM 33: # 32

A reading from second letter of Saint Paul to the Timothy

—2 TM 1: 8B-10

Beloved: Bear your share of hardship for the gospel with the strength that comes from God.

He saved us and called us to a holy life, not according to our works but according to his own design and the grace bestowed on us in Christ Jesus before time began, but now made manifest through the appearance of our savior Christ Jesus, who destroyed death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.

Lector: The Word of the Lord

Assembly: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Mass of Creation— Marty Haugen

GOSPEL

Priest: The Lord be with you

Assembly: And with your Spirit.

Priest: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Assembly: Glory to you O Lord

(When saying 'Glory to you O Lord', with your thumb make a little sign of the cross on your forehead; then on your lips; then on your heart)

—MT 17:1-9

Jesus took Peter, James, and John his brother, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. And he was transfigured before them; his face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light. And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, conversing with him. Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, "Lord, it is good that we are here. If you wish, I will make three tents here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud cast a shadow over them, then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." When the disciples heard this, they fell prostrate and were very much afraid. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, "Rise, and do not be afraid." And when the disciples raised their eyes, they saw no one else but Jesus alone.

As they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, "Do not tell the vision to anyone until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead."

Lector: The Gospel of the Lord

Assembly: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

My Lenten Resolutions: One Good Deed Every Day

Around this time of the year the Church invites you to Pray, Fast and Give. During these 40 Days of Lent, we invite you to make a Lenten Resolution that we each would actually keep: To do one kind thing per day. It has to be something that you do not normally do, like hold the door open for the next person behind me. It has to be above that.

So TODAY you might start your Lenten One-a-Day-Kindness Acts.

Monday: I will...

Tuesday: I will...

Wednesday: I will...

Thursday: I will...

Friday: I will...

Saturday: I will...

SUNDAY: I will keep the Day of the Lord Holy.

As of March 2, 2020

The Archdiocese of Chicago is closely monitoring the news regarding Coronavirus/COVID-19 and actively planning for any potential circumstances. We are adhering to all guidance provided by the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC).

Below are guidelines from the CDC for individual preventive measures and liturgical considerations, based on guidance from the USCCB Committee on Divine Worship, to be implemented in all parishes within the Archdiocese of Chicago until further notice.

Individual Preventive Actions

- Stay home when you are sick and if you have a fever, stay home for at least 24 hours after your fever is gone.
- If you or a member of your household have traveled to any of the Level 2+ countries (per the CDC China, Iran, Italy, South Korea, Japan as of March 2, 2020) between February 10, 2020 and today, alert your direct supervisor or principal so your workplace or school may take appropriate precautions
- Wash your hands often with soap and water for at least 20 seconds. Use an alcohol-based hand sanitizer that contains at least 60% alcohol if soap and water are not available.
- Avoid touching your eyes, nose, and mouth with unwashed hands.
- Avoid close contact with people who are sick.
- Cover your cough or sneeze with a tissue, then throw the tissue in the trash immediately and not on any hard surface. If tissues are not available, cough or sneeze into your sleeve.

- Clean and disinfect frequently touched objects and surfaces.
- Eliminate open sources of shared snacks and food in the workplace.
- Stop shaking hands.

Liturgical Celebrations During all Masses and liturgies:

- Refrain from physical contact during the Sign of Peace (note: the Sign of Peace can be exchanged without physical contact)
- Refrain from distribution of Holy Communion to the faithful via the chalice (please consider options for any parishioners with celiac disease or sensitivity)
- Given the frequency of direct contact with saliva in the distribution of Holy Communion on the tongue, every consideration should be given by each individual to receive Holy Communion reverently in open hands for the time being.
- Refrain from holding hands during the Lord's Prayer.
- Refrain from using Holy Water fonts.

Assure faithful if you are sick or are experiencing symptoms of sickness, you are not obliged to attend Mass, and even that out of charity you ought not to attend.

- Catechism 2181 allows for serious reasons like illness. For a faithful to miss mass.

Lent: A breath of New Life! A Parish Evening of Reflection

By DEACON MARK DUFFEY

WEDNESDAY, March 11 — 7:00pm-8:00pm
In the Old White Church

As we continue through Lent, it will be helpful to focus on how this time is meant to be a source of transformation for each of us. Yes, it's a period of penance and discipline. But beyond "what am I giving up for Lent?", it's an opportunity to examine "how am I growing in my encounter with Jesus?"

“Go forth from the land of your kinsfolk and from your father’s house to a land that I will show you.”
GENESIS 12:1

God calls all of us to leave behind our old ways and to follow Him, placing our complete trust in Him. Some of the old ways that we may have to struggle to leave behind might be materialism, selfishness and greed. Yet God promises to show us a new land and a better way to live. Remember what St. Teresa of Calcutta said, “God does not call us to be successful, God calls us to be faithful.”

“Vete de la tierra de tus parientes y de la casa de tu padre a una tierra que te mostraré”.
GÉNESIS 12: 1

Dios nos llama a todos a dejar atrás nuestras viejas costumbres y a seguirlo, confiando completamente en Él. Algunas de las viejas costumbres que tendremos que luchar por dejar atrás podrían ser el materialismo, el egoísmo y la codicia. Sin embargo, Dios promete mostrarnos una nueva tierra y una mejor manera de vivir. Recuerda lo que dijo Santa Teresa de Calcuta: "Dios no nos llama a tener éxito, Dios nos llama a ser fieles".

„Wyjdźcie z ziemi waszych krewnych i z domu waszego ojca do ziemi, którą wam pokażę”.

GENESIS 12: 1

Bóg wzywa nas wszystkich, abyśmy porzucili nasze stare drogi i poszli za Nim, pokładając w Nim pełne zaufanie. Niektóre ze starych sposobów, w jakie możemy zmagać się z pozostawieniem za sobą, mogą być materializmem, samolubstwem i chciwością. Jednak Bóg obiecuje nam pokazać nową ziemię i lepszy sposób życia. Pamiętajcie, co powiedziała św. Teresa z Kalkuty: „Bóg nie wzywa nas do sukcesu, Bóg wzywa nas do wierności”.

MASS MOMENTS

Taking a closer look at... the Breaking of the Bread as we sing the Lamb of God

After sharing the Sign of Peace, we continue the Communion Rite in the Liturgy of the Eucharist with the moment of the BREAKING OF THE BREAD during the Agnus Dei, Latin for Lamb of God. The scriptural background of this Mass Moment begins in the Old Testament book of Isaiah, chapter 53, where a coming savior is compared to a Lamb; and then in the new testament book of John 1:29, when John the Baptist, upon seeing Jesus, said "Behold the Lamb of God"; and adding purpose says "who takes away the sins of the world". Notice he said 'the WORLD' and not just one person or one nation. While both priest and people, with reverence and awe, make a plea and sing "Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us", a significant action is taking place upon the altar. While together we repeat the plea, "Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us", the priest breaks the bread, the host – the body of Christ -- putting a tiny piece of it in the cup of the blood of Christ as a sign of unity. Together we sing a final plea, "Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace." We need and have just asked for the peace of Christ to reconcile us with His saving action. In the earliest days of the Church, it was this moment that gave the entire celebration we now call the Mass its name: The Breaking of the Bread. It is in this moment "we profess that the real presence of Christ in the sacramental bread and the sacramental wine is available to us only when the host is broken for us.*"

Next week we will look at the moment of Communion with Jesus and each other.

For more information on the breaking of the host, visit: <https://www.nw catholic.org/spirituality/ask-father/why-does-the-priest-break-the-host.html> OR for more on the symbols and tradition of the Lamb of God, visit: <https://www.ocp.org/en-us/blog/entry/agnus-dei-lamb-of-god>

LENTEN 40 DAYS FOR LIFE BEGINS ASH WEDNESDAY AURORA PLANNED PARENTHOOD

The next 40 DAYS FOR LIFE begins on Ash Wednesday at Planned Parenthood in Aurora. If you are able to pray at the clinic for its closing, it would be a strong stand against abortion. At the very least, let us pray and offer sacrifice and fasting to end abortion at our state's largest abortion facility. For more info, call Mary Ann Fijalkiewicz, 847-526-7101.

Consider volunteering some time to help the most vulnerable (the unborn), the handicapped, the elderly to live with dignity and respect.

Come join us on the 1st Tuesday of the month at 6:30 in the Parish Center to learn more.

Call Parish Office at 847-526-2400 ext. 222.
