Pentecost Sunday

Acts 2: 1-11 || 1 Cor 12: 3b-7, 12-13 || Jn 20: 19-23

GROW as a DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

CRECER como DISCÍPULOS | ORAR, ESTUDIAR, PARTICIPAR, SERVIR

As a college student, I found myself sitting near the information desk during a layover at a German airport. This was in the days before mobile phones and Google Translate. I remember being so impressed that the two young women behind the desk were able to answer questions in so many languages without missing a beat. Whether it was Spanish, French, German or English, each traveler heard an answer in their own language. I often think that must have been what it was like for the travelers to Jerusalem during Pentecost. They were in an unfamiliar place and yet God spoke to them in a way they could understand. And the beautiful thing about the Pentecost story is that it is not just relating one single moment in time. Instead, it is the start of the Holy Spirit's ministry here on earth, and in our baptism, we, too, receive the same gift of the Holy Spirit. Confirmation completes the grace we receive at baptism, since we receive a "special strength of the Holy Spirit." (CCC 1285) We, too, are given the tools to go forth and speak to others even when we are afraid, they may not understand. Let us remember St. Paul's words from the second reading: "To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit." And then let us go out and use those gifts for the greater glory of God.

Como estudiante universitario, me encontré sentado cerca del mostrador de información durante una escala en un aeropuerto alemán. Esto fue en los días anteriores a los teléfonos móviles y Google traducir. Recuerdo que me impresionó mucho que las dos jóvenes detrás del escritorio pudieran responder preguntas en tantos idiomas sin perder el ritmo. Ya fuera español, francés, alemán o inglés, cada viajero escuchó una respuesta en su propio idioma. A menudo pienso que así debe haber sido para los viajeros a Jerusalén durante Pentecostés. Estaban en un lugar desconocido y, sin embargo, Dios les habló de una manera que podían entender. Y lo hermoso de la historia de Pentecostés es que no solo relata un solo momento en el tiempo. En cambio, es el comienzo del ministerio del Espíritu Santo aquí en la tierra, y en nuestro bautismo, nosotros también recibimos el mismo don del Espíritu Santo. La confirmación completa la gracia que recibimos en el bautismo, ya que recibimos una "fuerza especial del Espíritu Santo". (CCC 1285) A nosotros también se nos dan las herramientas para salir y hablar a los demás, incluso cuando tenemos miedo, es posible que no entiendan. Recordemos las palabras de San Pablo de la segunda lectura: "A cada individuo se le da la manifestación del Espíritu para algún beneficio". Y luego salgamos y usemos esos dones para la mayor gloria de Dios.

GO and EVANGELIZE | INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

VE y EVANGELIZA | INVITACIÓN, TESTIMONIO, ACOMPAÑAMIENTO

The idea of evangelizing is uncomfortable for many people. Sure, it was fine for the disciples to go out and start talking to strangers, but us? No way. However, evangelization doesn't have to mean starting conversations on the street (although it can!). Instead, it might be making the sign of the cross before a meal in a restaurant, mentioning Mass when a co-worker asks what you did over the weekend, or displaying a crucifix in your home where visitors will see it. In these small ways, we can encourage others to open the door for God to "shine within these hearts of yours," as today's Gospel Sequence says.

La idea de evangelizar es incómoda para muchas personas. Claro, estuvo bien que los discípulos salieran y comenzaran a hablar con extraños, pero ¿nosotros? De ninguna manera. Sin embargo, la evangelización no tiene por qué significar iniciar conversaciones en la calle (¡aunque puede!). En cambio, podría ser hacer la señal de la cruz antes de una comida en un restaurante, mencionar la misa cuando un compañero de trabajo le pregunta qué hizo durante el fin de semana o exhibir un crucifijo en su casa donde los visitantes lo vean. De estas pequeñas maneras, podemos animar a otros a abrir la puerta para que Dios "brille en estos corazones tuyos", como dice la Secuencia del Evangelio de hoy.

PRAY | ORAR

St. Paul reminds us today that we are all "baptized into one body" and "we were all given to drink of one Spirit." In today's divisive world, it can be difficult to remember that. Let us pray for one another knowing that all Christians – even those who may annoy us – are joined together in the same body of Christ. Specifically, have as your at-the-ready prayer this week for all circumstances, the following: Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.

San Pablo nos recuerda hoy que todos somos "bautizados en un solo cuerpo" y "a todos se nos dio a beber de un mismo Espíritu". En el mundo diviso de hoy, puede ser difícil recordar eso. Oremos unos por otros sabiendo que todos los cristianos, incluso aquellos que nos pueden molestar, están unidos en el mismo cuerpo de Cristo. Específicamente, ten como oración pendiente esta semana para toda circunstancia, la siguiente: Ven, Espíritu Santo, llena los corazones de tus fieles y enciende en ellos el fuego de tu amor.

Statement of Cardinal Blase J. Cupich, archbishop of Chicago, in Response to the Illinois Attorney General Report

May 23, 2023

Today, Illinois Attorney General Kwame Raoul published a report (the Report) on his office's investigation of allegations of child sexual abuse against clergy in the six Illinois Catholic dioceses over a period of nearly 90 years. The Report addresses both how dioceses responded to such allegations in decades past and current policies that help ensure the safety of children and support the healing of survivors. We have not studied the report in detail but have concerns about data that might be misunderstood or are presented in ways that could be misleading. It is therefore important that we state what we know to be true. For example:

The 451 names "disclosed":

- 451 is all 6 dioceses and includes religious order priests
- 451 includes the priests already on the 6 web sites
- ALL were reported to civil authorities, none were undisclosed, none were "hiding in plain sight since at least 2002."
- We DO list religious found by their orders to be substantiated
- 149 still "undisclosed" men are mostly religious order members who are not on our site; they are not undisclosed, and they are under the supervision and report to their respective order. AG himself distinguished between dioceses and religious orders, saying "this was an investigation of the dioceses, not the orders," recognizing they are different. However their totals include both.
- AG said: church is more worthy of investigation because it is a trusted religious organization. We think all children deserve to be protected regardless of whether they are cared for by a religious or secular institution; it isn't fair or wise to focus only on the Catholic Church, which has made the greatest strides in this area.
- Statute of limitations: we offer care, compassion (pastoral outreach) and even compensation to all who come forward, regardless of the statute of limitations.
- AG recommends outsiders being involved in overseeing our internal church investigations. We have had an independent review board with lay people overseeing these investigations since 1992, which is why the number of abuse incidents has dropped so dramatically.

We must think first of the survivors of sexual abuse who carry the burden of these crimes through their lives. On behalf of the archdiocese, I apologize to all who have been harmed by the failure to prevent and properly respond to child sexual abuse by clerics. Survivors will forever be in our prayers, and we have devoted ourselves to rooting out this problem and providing healing to victims.

For more than 30 years, the Archdiocese of Chicago has been at the forefront of developing and improving policies and programs to address the scourge of child sexual abuse and to support survivors. Our policies and procedures, first adopted in 1992, have served as a model for organizations and professionals dealing with this difficult issue. I hope the attention drawn to the issue by the Report will encourage those who work with minors to learn from our experience and take steps to protect all children from sexual abuse.

Here are some key facts about our efforts in the Archdiocese of Chicago:

For more information: <https://agresponse.archchicago.org>

For more information: <https://agresponse.archchicago.org>

- Since 1992, we have maintained one of the first and largest victim-survivor assistance programs in the nation. We provide assistance to anyone making an allegation, regardless of whether the accused is living or whether the allegation is substantiated.
- No cleric with even one substantiated allegation against him is in ministry in the Archdiocese of Chicago. When we learn of an allegation of abuse, we act promptly, report it to civil authorities, remove the accused from ministry and investigate the allegation. Allegations are submitted to our lay-majority Independent Review Board for investigation. In accordance with the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) Charter for the Protection of Children and Youth, clerics found to have committed even one act of child sexual abuse are permanently removed from ministry.
- The archdiocese has, to our knowledge, reported all allegations of child sexual abuse by clergy to civil authorities, including the oldest allegations. We report these allegations regardless of whether the accused is alive or dead, a diocesan priest, an extern priest from another diocese or a religious order priest. We consider an allegation to have been made even if the report is made anonymously, has incomplete facts (such as the name of the priest or parish) or is made by a third party, and we report all such allegations to civil authorities. It is important to emphasize that, to our knowledge, there are no “hidden,” “undisclosed” or “unreported” allegations of child sexual abuse by the clergy of this archdiocese.
- Under our recently amended policies, allegations against deceased priests who have not yet been placed on our website list are processed by our Independent Review Board. If an allegation against a deceased priest is substantiated, the priest's name is added to the list.
- When an allegation of child sexual abuse involves a religious order priest working in a ministry of the archdiocese, such as a parish assignment, we remove the accused's faculties to minister in the archdiocese, contact the religious order and help facilitate the survivor's report. Every religious order with members living in the archdiocese is mandated to have a process for investigating such allegations.
- Since 2006, we have published the names of diocesan priests with substantiated allegations of abuse on our website. In 2014, we published more than 20,000 documents from these priests' files. These documents remain on our website.
- We update our website list as needed and have expanded it to include the names of religious order priests whose order has substantiated an accusation against them and who have been assigned to a ministry of the Archdiocese of Chicago such as a parish.
- We conduct background screenings for archdiocesan clergy, employees and volunteers and implement a comprehensive safe-environment training program for adults and children. Over the last two years, we trained more than 112,000 children in an age- appropriate manner on how to recognize, resist and report abusive behavior. To date, we have trained more than 263,000 adults in 3,700 training sessions.

As is required by the USCCB Charter for the Protection of Children and Youth, (the Charter) we audit our parish and school safe environment programs every year and, in turn, the archdiocese's compliance with the Charter is audited by the USCCB.

- Additionally, we have worked in collaboration with survivors to respond to their need for healing. This partnership has led to the development of the Healing Garden, an annual Mass for Hope and Healing and Pinwheel Service for Child Abuse Prevention, survivor-led peace circles, and the Healing Voices magazine.
- We always seek to improve our child protection and victim support efforts. We have repeatedly had our processes, policies and files reviewed by independent experts to help ensure we remain current with best practices.

In addition to these steps, the Archdiocese of Chicago fully cooperates with law enforcement, including with the Attorney General's investigation. We have made our employees available for interviews and provided access to hundreds of thousands of documents. We are committed to continuously reviewing our policies and will carefully consider any changes recommended by the Attorney General. Indeed, the archdiocese has already implemented a number of recommendations the Attorney General made during the course of the investigation such as expansion of the parameters of our website list.

From my earliest days as a bishop, I have dealt with allegations of child sexual abuse by putting the child at the center of my actions. In my experience, whether the abuse happened in the recent or distant past, the survivor speaks from the pain they suffered as that wounded and betrayed child. The Archdiocese of Chicago has long sought to heal them and prevent this crime from occurring again. I am personally committed to applying the highest level of vigilance to these efforts and to further strengthening our safeguards against abuse. I invite other institutions that care for children and civil authorities to join us in this work and consider adopting the procedures we have developed over the past three decades, so that all children are kept safe.

A Prayer for Healing and Reparation

Heavenly Father, who loves and cares for all your children, especially the smallest and most vulnerable, we entrust to you the lives of the many children and vulnerable adults who have been sexually abused by your ministers, and whose trust and innocence have been destroyed.

Help us to hear their cries of pain and to take responsibility for so many broken lives.

We place the Church in your hands, for in every age you have been our refuge.

Sustain by your grace the faithful bishops and priests who follow their call to serve you and your people in holiness.

Embrace with your love all of us in your Church who are hurt, confused and searching for answers.

Give us the courage to be instruments of justice and reparation to keep building your kingdom with restored trust.

Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who shared our weakness in all things but sin, and lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

What will make your heart sing?

Fr. Juan Pablo has been granted a sabbatical beginning July 1, 2023, and concluding on December 30, 2023.

This appointment is made with gratitude for his service to the Church of Chicago, and the understanding that he will return to his position as Pastor at Transfiguration Parish in Wauconda.

Fr. J. Alexander Garcia will be the Administrator during this period of time.

Program Purpose

The Sabbatical Program seeks to strengthen parishes by providing opportunities for pastors to step away briefly from the persistent obligations of daily parish life to engage in a period of renewal and reflection. Renewal periods are not vacations, but times for intentional exploration and reflection, for regaining the enthusiasm and creativity for ministry, for discovering what will make the pastor's heart sing.

Pastors serve a variety of roles in their privileged positions at the center of parish life: preacher, teacher, spiritual guide, pastoral visitor, friend, confidant. The responsibilities are continual, and the pace and demands of parish life can be relentless, often leaving even the most dedicated pastors recognizing the need to replenish their own spiritual reservoirs to regain energy and strength for their ministry.

Life-giving experiences—strengthening relationship, renewing a sense of call, meeting and serving the neighbor in a new way, finding joy and purpose in a simplified life, traveling to new lands and unfamiliar territories, creating opportunities where members of the congregation can exercise their gifts for ministry—are common themes of these renewal times. Profound discoveries that pastors and their faithful describe as “life-changing events” occur as they participate in this program.

Ministry is profoundly important, not only to the people directly served, but also to the larger community and society.

Congratulations Fr. Juan Pablo in this time of renewal. Well deserved!
