

THE FAMILY IS THE KEY TO CHRISTMAS

Beloved Transfiguration family and friends these are troubling times, and everything makes us afraid, but we are people of hope, and hope gives us the certainty that God's love and life is stronger than evil forces. The people of Israel had waited for a Messiah for thousands of years and the creator of the humankind came into the world to dwell among his people. The all- powerful God became a baby, born of a woman. Jesus just like every man and every woman who comes into this world did not start from zero. When he came to this world, the Son of God, brought with him a family past. Jesus is the center of the Christmas story, but along with Jesus, the family plays a fundamental role in Christmas. These days, while watching the images on the news of parents running as they held their children to protect them from the brutal attacks of which they were victims on Holy Land, came to my mind something I read from Scott Hahn: The family is the key to Christmas. In the manger we heard about the swaddling bands and know they are for a baby, but someone had to do the swaddling. In the Gospels we read of baby Jesus' exile to Egypt, but someone had to take him there, someone had to protect him, and someone had to work hard to support the mother and the child in a foreign land. So, we have a mother and a child. We have a father. We have a household.

The scenes of Jesus's early life, Mary's crisis pregnancy, Joseph's dreams and provident decisions, Herod's persecution, are dramatic precisely because they involve the intersection of so many individual lives. When God came to save us, he made salvation inseparable from family life, manifest in family life, he came to share it, redeem it, and perfect it. My dear Transfiguration family, the truth of Christmas begins with a family. The events turned historically on the decisions of a husband and father, a wife and mother. The truth of Christmas was passed on by way of families. And now the heritage is ours, we are Christ's family and so the joy of Christmas belongs to us.

By His incarnation the Son of God has united Himself in some fashion with every man. He worked with human hands, He thought with a human mind, acted by human choice, and loved with a human heart. Born of the Virgin Mary, He has truly been made one of us, like us in all things except sin. We must become His voice, his hands, his eyes, his feet, his mouth, in the middle of the troubling world. Christmas means that Christ must be born in you. He must shine on your face, your hands, and in your heart. He needs to transform the world into something beautiful, more human, more just. The best way to "celebrate" Christmas is being instruments that help Christ to be born in today's world.

Thanks for being members of our family in Transfiguration and for having allowed us to be part of your family. May the Holy Family of Nazareth Jesus, Mary and Joseph bless your family.

Christmas 2023

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

As we celebrate the birth of Jesus, we also celebrate the birth of our hope. When he came among us as one like us in all things but sin, he lifted us up to new and transformed life. In fact, he opened for us the way to share in the very life of God. One of the prayers of the Mass gives us these words: "...may we come to share in the divinity of Christ who humbled himself to share in our humanity." The struggles that we face in our personal lives and in our wounded world do not have the last word. We are meant for more. We are meant for full and eternal life. I pray that our celebration of the Lord's birth will remind us of the glory that will carry us beyond the challenges, sometimes truly significant challenges that mark our lives and our world.

We must also remember that the Lord did not just come among us once and long ago. He continues to walk with us as we walk with each other. Our celebrations of the Eucharist remind of that. And he will never abandon his people. He is now and always Emmanuel, our God with us. Our journey is his journey. And this year, having celebrated the first of two synods of the Church, we are especially aware that he accompanies us as we accompany one another.

In this holy season, I invite you to pray. Take time, create a quiet space, look on the creche, read the gospels, and allow yourself to know that he is near and that he walks with you. If you do so, I can assure you that you will know his peace. Then, take what you learn from him to your family, to your workplace, to your community, and to entire world. The gift of Jesus, the Incarnate Word of God, is not something we can hold for ourselves. We are called and destined to share it with others.

As I celebrate the Eucharist, I will remember you and pray that you will have a living sense of the Lord among us, the one who walks with us and draws us forward into the fullness of his life.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Cardinal Blase J. Cupich

Archbishop of Chicago

Stewardship Reflection

The Journey

Advent comes along every year and will continue to do so until Jesus returns. As this season draws to a close, we can each ask ourselves, "Am I now any better a disciple of Jesus Christ and more of a steward of all my gifts than before the Advent season started?" I have been on this earth for 40+ years. I have had 40+ Advents to draw closer to God and to work on taking more seriously my baptismal call. Some have gone better than others, but I would like to think my spiritual life progressed at least a small amount during each of them.

Conversion is a process. Stewardship is about a way of living and it is about more than simply being generous when a situation calls for it. Stewardship and conversion go hand-in-hand and we are always moving closer to holiness in Jesus Christ. Living in this way takes practice and commitment. If this Advent didn't go as you had hoped, remember is not really an end. It is just another step along your journey.

This Christmas, while you are giving and receiving gifts and hopefully spending time with those you love, may you take the time to cherish the true gift that came to us over 2000 years ago and continues to call us to this day: Jesus. Let us be grateful beyond measure for this gift above all gifts, let us continue on our journey, and let our lives give testimony to the one who leads us.
