

PERSEVERE

—Lenten Message Series—

Like all of life, the Christian life requires perseverance, tenacity. Grit. Jesus said that it will be by perseverance we will save our life. The Scriptures tell us that Jesus resolutely determined to go to Jerusalem and that he set his face like flint. Perseverance means resisting the urge to quit when faced with adversity. In a world entrenched in instant gratification, developing perseverance becomes essential to sustain our faith and navigate life's challenges.

There are instances of feeling overwhelmed, wanting to give up. However, during these tough times, God stands by to provide support and aid in perseverance. Jesus himself exemplified perseverance, overcoming even death to enable us to establish an eternal connection with God. His actions assure us that we can rely on Him for the strength to persist through any challenges we encounter.

In this series we will look at how to develop perseverance so that we will persist in our faith and other vital aspects of life.

ONE CHURCH—ONE MESSAGE: LENTEN MESSAGE SERIES

GRACE: We are God's Workmanship

Scripture: Ephesians 2:4-10

What does God want us to know? You are God's work of art. Your life is not your project. It is God's project. You will only know the work he has prepared for you to do by staying connected to him.

What does God want us to do? Embrace the idea that life is God's masterpiece; seek guidance through faith for discovering God's plans

What does God want us to feel? A sense of purpose and direction by acknowledging life as God's project.

Ephesians tells us that we are God's workmanship. We are his project and we can grow by his grace into who he has created us to be if we persevere in our relationship with him. Living out our faith and remaining committed to it means recognizing that we must persevere so that we will do the good works God has created us to do. Without living in our faith, we will not discover what God has prepared in advance for us to do.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading: Early and often did the LORD, the God of their fathers, send his messengers to them, for he had compassion on his people and his dwelling place. But they mocked the messengers of God, despised his warnings, and scoffed at his prophets, until the anger of the LORD against his people was so inflamed that there was no remedy.

Second Reading: God, who is rich in mercy, because of the great love he had for us, even when we were dead in our transgressions, brought us to life with Christ.

Gospel: For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life.

WEEKEND MASS INTENTIONS

I Persevere: Grace/ God's Workmanship

This is the fourth week of our series about the importance of perseverance in our faith, in our relationship with Christ and his Church. So, through the course of this series, we are looking at how to persevere in our faith despite the challenge, and we'll be looking at four key factors that can help. Two weeks ago, we looked at the first one: Connections; Friends in Faith we need connections, we need support to persevere in our faith. We were never meant to try and grow and live our faith all alone and on our own. Last week, we looked at the importance of Passion/Zeal. Our savior was not this bland, vanilla person. He had zeal for his mission and message. He expressed this zeal and passion many times throughout his life. Zeal and passion are fostered by exploring new spiritual practices or habits or doing old ones in slightly new ways. This weekend we're going to look at another factor that's important when considering perseverance. St. Paul talks about this important element in his Letter to the Ephesians. Paul lived in Ephesus for three years. The investment in Ephesus was strategic, as it was the fourth largest city in the Roman Empire and the capital of the Roman province of western Asia Minor. It's location also ensured it as an important center of commerce. The city was famous for its large and beautiful temple to the goddess Artemis, an edifice considered one of the seven wonders of the ancient world. Paul wrote to the church there to help encourage them and expand the horizons of their faith, stating in an entirely matter-of-fact kind of way, You were dead in your transgressions and your sins. Maybe you don't believe in God, or maybe, you believe in God, but you don't believe in a God who actually cares about what you do. And as far as sin goes, it's your life and it's your business and no one else's... as long as it doesn't hurt anyone else... St Paul would respond, sin always hurts someone because it always hurts you, it hurts your heart. And over time it can have a dead ending effect. We can even become less and less of our true selves, our best selves. And God very much cares about that. At the same time sin, transgressions, wrongdoing are all part of the human condition. And Paul reminds us that we all have sinned. Therefore what? Should we just feel bad about ourselves Paul quickly places the sadness of sin in a very different context. But God, who is rich in mercy, because of his great love he had for us, even when we were dead in our transgressions, brought us to life with Christ – by grace you have been saved -raised us up with him, and seated us with him in the heavens. Because of sin we're in need of mercy. God is rich in mercy. And more than that...That in the ages to come he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in his kindness to us in Christ Jesus. God is rich in mercy; God is rich in grace. God stepped in and saved us from our sin through grace. Grace in this instance means getting in right relationship with God. For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not from you; It is the gift of God; It is not from works, so no one may boast. Grace through faith. Not works. This is a point worth pausing on because historically it has been misunderstood by many Catholics. We do not work our way to salvation, it is not something we earn or ever deserve. Through faith we dispose ourselves to grace, which is God's free gift. And in grace we undertake good works, that, in turn, builds character on earth as well as treasure in heaven. Then comes my favorite verse of this passage, And this is the main verse I hope you will walk away remembering today. For we are his handiwork, created in Christ Jesus for the good works that God has prepared in advance, that we should live in them. You are his handiwork. The Greek word used here is the word ποίημα poiēma, from which we get the English word poem. It suggests the exercise of writing poetry. We tend to think of our life as our project. But your life is not your project alone. It is a partnership between you and God, and your project is in process. However old you are, whatever your stage or state of life you're not done yet. God has more in store. And toward that end he has work for you to do. Not a check list or "to do" list. Good works that are as much about getting you have done as getting projects done. God grows us through good work. It's how together you write the poem that is your life. And he never gets discouraged by how long it takes; he is delighted every time you grow even a little. Only God can see the "best version of you," and he loves as you make progress in that direction through the good work you do. We have to choose to live in the good works he has prepared in advance for us to do. Partnering with God to discover them. For we are his handiwork, created in Christ Jesus for the good works that God has prepared in advance, that we should live in them. The good works God has prepared for you come out of who God created you to be. They come out of the unique gifts he has given you. They come out of your heart and what you care about. They come from your personality and experiences that have shaped you. The way God wired you. Broadly speaking there are three major areas of good works God has created you to undertake. The first major area: Serving in your Vocation/Career. If you are married, it means extending yourself into the life of your spouse. Or as a parent or grandparent: it means extending yourself into the lives of your children. If you are single, it means extending yourself into the lives of others who are friends and family. For everyone, in your work, in your career or business there are also good works God wants you to do too, ways God wants you to add value to others through what you do. If you are a teacher/educating the next generation, a financier/helping other people win with money. a business owner/sharing wisdom. This work is about extending yourself into the lives of those you live and work with. The flip side of this area of work brings a second. The second major area: Serving in everyday life. Every day, a hundred, hundred, hundred times a day, while living out your vocation and career, there are small, little things you can do to serve. it is holding a door for another. greeting others warmly, listening to someone who is struggling/needs a friend. giving money to charity or charitable causes, being patient in traffic, gracious in the face of another's faults or failures. This work is also about extending yourself, but here, into the lives of people for whom you have absolutely no responsibility whatsoever. And then there is a third area of work that God has given us to do different entirely from the other two. The third major area: Serving in the Church Mission or Ministry some of the good work God has prepared in advance for you to do comes in working together with other Christ followers here in your Church family. That's why it is so important to actually be a part of a church community. Because there is work God has given you to do here, in your church, that you will not/ cannot accomplish elsewhere. It is coming together in service in the name of the Lord in your church family that is so impactful, so powerful: for you, for your teammates, for other parishioners and for our visitors and guests. Right now we have some excellent opportunities for you to serve in the parish. Look at them in the bulletin on page 10, pray, commit and serve. To all our member ministers: thank you for your leadership and friendship. Thank you for all your good work.... Work that God has given you, allowing you to become the best version of you can be. Allowing our church to become the best version of us we can be.

Primera Lectura

2 Cr, 36, 14-16, 19-23

En aquellos días, todos los sumos sacerdotes y el pueblo multiplicaron sus infidelidades, practicando todas las abominables costumbres de los paganos, y mancharon la casa del Señor, que él se había consagrado en Jerusalén. El Señor, Dios de sus padres, los exhortó continuamente por medio de sus mensajeros, porque sentía compasión de su pueblo y quería preservar su santuario. Pero ellos se burlaron de los mensajeros de Dios, despreciaron sus advertencias y se mofaron de sus profetas, hasta que la ira del Señor contra su pueblo llegó a tal grado, que ya no hubo remedio. Envío entonces contra ellos al rey de los caldeos. Incendiaron la casa de Dios y derribaron las murallas de Jerusalén, pegaron fuego a todos los palacios y destruyeron todos sus objetos preciosos. A los que escaparon de la espada, los llevaron cautivos a Babilonia, donde fueron esclavos del rey y de sus hijos, hasta que el reino pasó al dominio de los persas, para que se cumpliera lo que dijo Dios por boca del profeta Jeremías: Hasta que el país haya pagado sus sábados perdidos, descansará de la desolación, hasta que se cumplan setenta años. En el año primero de Ciro, rey de Persia, en cumplimiento de las palabras que habló el Señor por boca de Jeremías, el Señor inspiró a Ciro, rey de los persas, el cual mandó proclamar de palabra y por escrito en todo su reino, lo siguiente: "Así habla Ciro, rey de Persia: El Señor, Dios de los cielos, me ha dado todos los reinos de la tierra y me ha mandado que le edifique una casa en Jerusalén de Judá. En consecuencia, todo aquel que pertenezca a este pueblo, que parta hacia allá, y que su Dios lo acompañe".

Te Alabamos Señor

Segunda Lectura

Ef 2, 4-10

Hermanos: La misericordia y el amor de Dios son muy grandes; porque nosotros estábamos muertos por nuestros pecados, y él nos dio la vida con Cristo y en Cristo. Por pura generosidad suya, hemos sido salvados. Con Cristo y en Cristo nos ha resucitado y con él nos ha reservado un sitio en el cielo. Así, en todos los tiempos, Dios muestra, por medio de Jesús, la incomparable riqueza de su gracia y de su bondad para con nosotros. En efecto, ustedes han sido salvados por la gracia, mediante la fe; y esto no se debe a ustedes mismos, sino que es un don de Dios. Tampoco se debe a las obras, para que nadie pueda presumir, porque somos hechura de Dios, creados por medio de Cristo Jesús, para hacer el bien que Dios ha dispuesto que hagamos.

Te Alabamos Señor

Evangelio

Jn 3, 14-21

En aquel tiempo, Jesús dijo a Nicodemo: "Así como Moisés levantó la serpiente en el desierto, así tiene que ser levantado el Hijo del hombre, para que todo el que crea en él tenga vida eterna. Porque tanto amó Dios al mundo, que le entregó a su Hijo único, para que todo el que crea en él no perezca, sino que tenga vida eterna. Porque Dios no envió a su Hijo para condenar al mundo, sino para que el mundo se salvara por él. El que cree en él no será condenado; pero el que no cree ya está condenado, por no haber creído en el Hijo único de Dios. La causa de la condenación es ésta: habiendo venido la luz al mundo, los hombres prefirieron las tinieblas a la luz, porque sus obras eran malas. Todo aquel que hace el mal, aborrece la luz y no se acerca a ella, para que sus obras no se descubran. En cambio, el que obra el bien conforme a la verdad, se acerca a la luz, para que se vea que sus obras están hechas según Dios".

Gloria a ti, Señor Jesús

UNA IGLESIA, UN MENSAJE: SERIE DE MENSAJES DE CUARESMA

GRACIA:

Somos Obra de Dios

Escritura: Efesios 2, 4-10

¿Qué quiere Dios que sepamos? Eres la obra de arte de Dios. Tu vida no es tu proyecto. Es el proyecto de Dios. Sólo conocerás el trabajo que él ha preparado para ti si permaneces conectado con él.

¿Qué quiere Dios que hagamos? Abrace la idea de que la vida es la obra maestra de Dios; buscar orientación a través de la fe para descubrir los planes de Dios

¿Qué quiere Dios que sintamos? Un sentido de propósito y dirección al reconocer la vida como proyecto de Dios.

Efesios nos dice que somos obra de Dios. Somos su proyecto y podemos crecer por su gracia hasta convertirnos en quienes él nos ha creado para ser si perseveramos en nuestra relación con él. Vivir nuestra fe y permanecer comprometidos con ella significa reconocer que debemos perseverar para hacer las buenas obras para las que Dios nos ha creado. Sin vivir en nuestra fe, no descubriremos lo que Dios ha preparado de antemano para que hagamos.

Lord, Jesus
we ask you
to send more servants to your people.
Choose from our parishes,
from our homes,
from our schools and colleges,
an abundant harvest of apostles
for your Kingdom: priests, sisters, brothers, deacons and lay ministers.
We pray that those you call may never lose awareness of the dignity and need of their vocation.

O Virgin Mary,
Mother of the Church,
teach to all those the Master calls
to say a joyful "yes"
as you did at the Annunciation.
Amen.

TRANSFIGURATION MINISTRY OF PRAYER

At the end of weekend Masses the Transfiguration Ministry of Prayer will be in the front of the Church to pray for you or someone you love and care for. Please know that each Minister of Transfiguration Ministry of Prayer commits to holding your intentions in the light of Christ, standing in Truth, Principle and Love. Prayer is the tool we use to know the truth. It is not about begging or pleading for something to happen to change the conditions in life. It is about aligning ourselves with the all good of God that surrounds us at all times. Every request we receive is treated with love, compassion, respect and dignity.

"For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son..."

- John 3:16

Of all the wonderful gifts that God has given to us, the gift of His own Son is truly the greatest. How can we ever thank God for a gift like that? God does not ask us to sacrifice our own precious firstborn, but He does ask that we are grateful and generous with our God-given gifts. That we nurture and develop our gifts, and in gratitude, generously give back with increase our time in prayer, our talent in charitable works and our treasure to support the mission and ministry of our parish and greater Church.
