9 am - 3 pm
Day of Reflection for Adults

A morning of Advent Prayer invites us to prepare to welcome Christ's birth today in our world and in us. Pray with the Jesuit poet, Gerard Manley Hopkins and his hope-filled words: "the world is charged with the grandeur of God," "the Holy Spirit over the bent world broods with warm breast and with ah! bright wings," "I am all at once what Christ is...immortal diamond." The retreat will allow participants to enjoy Bellarmine's grounds in silent reflection.

Archdiocese Special Collections

Campaign for Human Develop.....November 23
Religious Retirement.....December 14

On these weekends, if you would like to give more in your regular collection, this will help cover the 10% the parish will be mailing in. In our stewardship report in the bulletin, we will inform you of the collection for that week and the amount we have mailed to the Archdiocese for that particular collection.

This is a new way of fulfilling our obligation and financial help to these special ministries and our broader church.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Eyes On Your Own Paper

“Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be powerful earthquakes, famines, and plagues from place to place.”

Looking at these words, I have to wonder. Am I reading the Bible or today’s newspaper headline?

It’s never easier to despair than when you glance up and take a good look at what’s going on in the world: disasters, natural and contrived, wars, resentments, rivalries, and divisions. It is almost too much sometimes, isn’t it? The twenty-four-hour news cycle doesn’t help. Add social media and it’s enough to push anyone into a nervous breakdown.

When you find yourself in this place of despair, remember Paul’s admonishment in his letter to the Thessalonians. Work quietly and eat your own food.

It’s not so different from the old “keep-your-eyes-on-your-own-paper” rule of the classroom. Poking our noses into other people’s business, we may think we are getting a shortcut to the right answer, but we’re really just getting distracted. When we become too preoccupied with events that we cannot control — whether they are happening in our neighborhood or half-a-world away — we are tempted to leave off the very specific work God has given us in our own lives. We are easily lured into anger, bitterness, and anxiety.

What is the work that God has called you to? Is it your career? Your family? Your community? What is your food — what nourishes you, sustains you, connects you to something real, powerful, and life-giving? This is what you should be concerned with. This is where your thoughts and your efforts should be.

Work quietly and eat your own food.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Should your plans include restricting your gift for a particular parish program, please contact Camie Kwasigroch, Parish Business Manager, at camiejkwasi@archchicago.org

I want to express my heartfelt gratitude to Mr. Robert Eberhardt ($300,000) and Kathy Shepler ($120,562) for their generous donation to our parish through the Estate, Bequests and Memorial program. Their Support means so much to us and plays a vital role in helping us carry out our mission and serve our parish community.

Their contribution will help us in numerous ways, including enhancing our programs, maintaining our facilities, and supporting outreach initiatives that benefit those in need. We are honored to have such dedicated parishioners, and their kindness truly reflects the spirit of our church community.

"Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of Kathy and Robert and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen"
