"Repent and believe the gospel."

Dear Beloved Parishioners,

As we prepare to enter the sacred season of Lent, I invite each of you to reflect deeply on the theme of our Lenten message series: "I'M FINE and Neither are You." This theme resonates with the truth that we all carry wounds —wounds from our relationships, from our pasts, and from our encounters with sin and evil. While many of us might feel compelled to present a facade of strength, the reality is that we all experience pain in different forms, and this does not make us abnormal; rather, it is a part of our shared human experience.

During Lent, we are called to acknowledge our wounds and allow Jesus to heal them. The Gospel message reminds us that Jesus came not only to save us but to salvage us —to restore wholeness to our minds, hearts, souls, and relationships. His healing touch is available to us if we dare to confront our vulnerabilities. Remember, the Good News is that Jesus specifically desires to alight in the very areas where we feel most broken.

Throughout this Lent, let us open our hearts to the transformative power of Christ. We will explore ways to recognize our need for healing, allowing us to draw closer to Him and, in turn, to one another. Embracing our wounds with honesty will prepare us to be instruments of healing in our community as well.

I urge each one of you to take advantage of the Lenten practices available — prayer, fasting, almsgiving, and communal worship — as these are pathways to deepen your relationship with God and your fellow parishioners. Engage in these practices with an open heart, seeking not only personal healing but also ways to offer support and love to those around you.

Let us embark on this Lenten journey together, uniting in our search for healing and wholeness through Christ. Allow His grace to wash over you and mend the wounds you carry, transforming your heart and spirit. Together, we can create a supportive and loving environment that encourages honesty and healing.

May the Lord bless you during this holy season, and may our wounds become sources of strength as we become vessels of His healing love for those we encounter.

In Christ's Love and Peace,

Rev. Juan Pablo Avila Ibarra

A Mission with Fr. J. Michael Sparough, SJ
February 15, 16, 17, 2026
7:00pm—8:30pm

Healing for Your Wounded Heart:
Fanning the Flame of Love

“Come to me all who are weary and heavily burdened and I will refresh you!”

- Matthew 11:28

Healing for Your Wounded Heart is a call to follow Jesus on a healing journey into the heart of the gospel. During this three-day mission, Fr. Michael will lead us in prayer through dramatizations of stories and familiar gospel scenes, guided imagery prayer, engaging preaching, uplifting songs, and rituals of blessing. This mission is designed to help us heal our wounded heart by drawing closer to Jesus. It will challenge, delight and re-ignite the flame of God’s love in our hearts. The mission begins with Fr. Michael preaching all the weekend Masses.

In this series we will look at our need for healing and how we can open up our hearts and our lives so that the Healer can set us free. In all our hurts and wounds, Jesus uses them to see our need for him and to draw closer to him.

- Week 1: The Original Wound
- Week 2: The Shadow of the Cross, Wounded Healer
- Week 3: Don’t Go There —Ripping Off Band Aid
- Week 4: For God’s Greater Glory
- Week 5: Grief and Loss

Join us every weekend of Lent and humble ourselves in awe and wonder in the Real Presence of the Lord!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

I recently watched the film adaptation of "Godspell" with my teenage daughter. I had such fond memories of watching it when I was young, back in the day. I listened to the soundtrack so many times and learned to play many of the songs on my guitar. The exclamation from the show, "You are the light of the world!" has always been firmly planted in my mind.

After about ten minutes, my daughter looked at me with that look only a teenage girl can display. "What is this?" she asked with a certain level of condescension. Yes, the film did not hold up so well in the eyes of the twenty-first-century critic. So we laughed most of the way through it.

What attracted me to the film and the soundtrack in the first place wasn't Jesus in a Superman shirt or the idea of the apostles wondering around the urban jungle. I was attracted to the message. I was attracted to that assertion in the song, "You are the light of the world."

There will always be people who see the Gospel of Jesus Christ as dated, irrelevant, and even hokey. You and I are called to be the light of the world? Good stewards must never shy away from living lives that truly bear witness to the reality of the Gospel. The parables of Jesus have as much meaning for us today as ever. Look around. The world we live in needs a little light for sure.

JOIN A SMALL FAITH SHARING GROUP DURING LENT

Small faith sharing groups offer a wonderful opportunity to connect with other parishioners while enriching your faith. Those involved in small groups have a greater feeling of community as well as a better understanding in what it means to live out their faith on a daily basis.

During Lent, we are forming small faith sharing groups to gather together in-person or online once a week to read and discuss Sunday scripture. We aim to deepen our faith and commitment to Christ and His Church through prayer, fellowship, and learning. The groups will meet at different times and places, so please contact Vicki Peloquin at (847)997-7350 to find a group that fits your schedule!

THIS WEEK'S MINISTRY SPOTLIGHT Communication Ministry

Mission Statement: Transfiguration's Communication Committee spreads the good word on the works of all our ministry pillars, along with outreach to both parishioners and non-parishioners, inviting them to join us in our celebrations!

Talents Needed: We are seeking creative thinkers! Familiarity with social media and other communication platforms a plus. Help with designing various campaigns through the year and keeping our communications and website current.

For more information or to join us, contact Sarah Jakubek at sjakubek@archchicago.org

Level of Commitment: Our team meets the second Tuesday of the month at 6pm, typically at a local establishment in our community.

Please consider supporting this year's Appeal. Your generous contribution will be a source of blessing for many people, for yourself and for your loved ones.

On Saturday, January 17, 2026, the First Communion candidates of Transfiguration Catholic Community made their First Reconciliation. Please keep these little disciples in prayer as they continue on their journey towards First Communion Day.

Ministries & Activities at Transfiguration Catholic Community

Making church matter by facing our challenges and boldly reimagining what it means to be Church today. We are committed to a renewal of faith, active participation, engagement in a broader and more diverse family of families and, most importantly, to deepen our personal relationship with Jesus Christ. We are people called to build a Catholic Faith Community by seeking Christ and sharing His Gospel through Prayer, Education, Service and Social Activities.
